Introduction

MY PERSPECTIVE OF BROUGHTON

The Class of 1959 was blessed to be perfectly sited in the golden year of the Eisenhower years. The Eisenhower years were characterize by peace, stability, growth and modest prosperity. These idyllic years were sandwiched between the great Depression, World War II, the angst of Vietnam and the civil rights unrest of the 1960s. This brief and unique era was during our own formative years and may not be repeated. It is my belief it was a special and wonderful time to grown up.

Despite the tranquil years of the 1950's, we were also in the midst of a 45-year Cold War, complete with atomic bomb fears, seven foot Russians and Vietnam - which would claim our Dudley Dalhouse and Gordon Chadwick (Class of 1958), and earn Buddy Crumpler a Purple Heart. All three were neighbors around Anderson Drive.

During our era, we avoided or just missed integration, drugs, alcohol, big wealth, the Pill (not that it was needed), bullies (think Jeter Lewis), war immigration, class warfare and assassinations.

We were innocent and unaware of our segregation and the looming clash of civil rights which followed. Multiculturalism was not a goal; it was not yet invented.

We dodged the Depression and World War II and, thankfully, missed being Baby Boomers, yet we carry these DNA's. We are something in-between, perhaps a bridge generation yet to be studied.

It was a simpler time and lacking in the luxuries that we now witness. The prime worries were related to the basic needs of living, with few excesses. My memory is that everyone was middle class. Neither did I observe extreme poverty or wealth.

The early 1950's prior to high school were somewhat simple in that we:

only had one car in a family walked to school

played in the woods and creeks listened to radio, as RV emerged played neighborhood sports

teachers and parents ruled and were respected did not wear jeans to school feared polio

grew up slowly

being good and well-mannered was important.

We morphed from grade school to 8th grade at Broughton to junior high and back to Broughton. Any confusion can be expected.

Watson Holyfield and Joe Holliday were effective as good cop-bad cop team -- a management technique I later witnessed many times.

School traditions were prevalent and respected. It provided a sense of place. Teachers and parents forced on us the seriousness of life, although we did not always take heed. We were well-prepared in our academics. Years later I determined that our teachers were conscientious and superior to others - despite their quirkiness and rigidity. Our numerous attempts at rebellion were marginal and more experimental than a serious rage. I remember Billy Lynn's iconic Crosley left outside the auditorium entrance. Deep down our favorite two cops thought it was humorous - but never admitted it.

Any cliques we had were based on friendships and were not malevolent.

Boredom was a factor. A common complaint for us was, "There's nothing to do in Raleigh." Raleigh was a docile sleepy town soon to be discovered by the Research Triangle and blossom into an envied growth machine which struggles with its success. Our Smedes York successfully served as Mayor for four years.

I first thought our class was well above average with prettier girls, skillful athletes, high intellects and wholesome qualities. After several decades of comparison, I saw we were more average on the first three items, but the special wholesome qualities remained.

Our idyllic years may not have fully prepared us for the gritty toughness, mean spirits and grim reality of life. Yes, we had more personal growth and challenges ahead of us.

Nevertheless, I believe our Broughton years were more prefect than imperfect. It is possible we had better experiences in high school than our children with their limitless privileges and opportunities. I am grateful to have been part of Broughton and our special class.

Growing up in Raleigh

Hazel was here. . . .

...1954 when a "young lady" named HAZEL hit town! While students were dashing madly about school in search of more purple and gold crepe paper to decorate cars and floats, and the members of the student council committees were selling homecoming corsages, "Hazel" was arriving on the Atlantic Coast. In no time at all the weatherman was sending out warnings to Raleigh. Mr. Holiday's excited voice broke through on the PA system during 4th period and in a flash we were safe in our homes or either stranded in the parking lot in cars. Over the next few days, we ate a lot of beans in the dark. In the end we only got a half a day holiday, and a cancelled homecoming!

And Still More Fun

The annual "FROST FROLIC" was taking place at Christ Church last Saturday night. This dance takes place each year at Christmas, and it always has the same decorations 'cause everyone likes them so well! Jo Crowder, Jerry Tuttle, Brenda Furee, Jimmy Bone, Donna Wilkerson, Jimmy Johnson, Jane Adams, Jimmy Pierce, Betsy Read, and Alvah Fuquay say they wouldn't change the decorations for anything!

The Younger Set, N&O

"The less formal social was held at "Swoosh" Phelph's house where many of the sub-freshmen gathered to live it up. Annette Radcliff, Johny Wardlaw, "Sis" Stron, Burks Crumpler, "Runt" Rogers, Joy Pettit, Joe Webb, and Betty Sue Carson were packin' away the food and laughter at "Swoosh's". Need any more be said about how much fun they had?

Over at Carolyn Layton's, Sara McCorkle, "Cookie" Lucas, "Pug" Liles, Carol Kelly, Peggy Latta, Jane Liles, Jerry Liles, and Walda Klier, tried to get a bit of sleep before their usual Saturday fun, but after a few hours of whispers and and snickers, they gave it up as a good try and spent the rest of the night, listening to records and nibblin' on potato chips!

Dixie Classic scandal left bad taste

A.J. CARR - STAFF WRITER
Published: Thu, Mar. 16, 2006 12:00AM

Modified Thu, Mar. 16, 2006 07:46AM

Throughout the 1950s, Reynolds Coliseum rocked with the biggest holiday basketball tournament in the country -- the Dixie Classic. The three-day event in late December was even more popular than the postseason ACC Tournament. But it was canceled in 1961 because of a national point-shaving scandal that included players from N.C. State University and UNC-Chapel Hill.

The field in the Dixie Classic consisted of the Big Four schools -- N.C. State, Duke, UNC and Wake Forest -- and four teams from different sections of the country. Four N.C. State players -- Don Gallagher, Stan Niewierowski, Anton Muehlbauer and Terry Litchfield -- and UNC's Lou Brown were among players across the country who were charged with fixing college games in that era. Top administrators at UNC and N.C. State disbanded the Classic and de-emphasized basketball by cutting their regular-season schedules. UNC played only 17 games in the 1961-62 season, Dean Smith's first as head coach.

...Dr. Charles Bugg?

A Little Story of How "Bugg" " got his name ...

Few of my friends have any idea. To burst a myth, Walt Disney did not name me for Bugs Bunny. But you'd be surprised how many people think so! To this day, lots of people still pluralize my nickname. I'm only one Bugg (that's a gracious plenty)-not two bugs! Actually, my late parents--bless their hearts--are to blame for hanging this moniker on a poor, defenseless, little child. Sometimes I wonder if I'll ever be able to forgive them. You'll never imagine how much kidding and woe this nickname "Bugg" has caused me over the years--especially when I was growing up as a child and starting school. Here's the real story about how this nickname came to be. Actually, it's quite bizarre. If you happen to be a Raleigh native in your 60's or older, you will no doubt remember the legendary Dr. Charles Bugg. For many years, Dr. Bugg was Raleigh's sole pediatrician. Later, he partnered with Dr. Sanders to form Sanders and Bugg, MD's. If you were of that time and place, your Momma either took you to see Dr. Bugg or Dr. Sanders. In the beginning, it was most likely Dr. Bugg. Like most small children, I was scared SHITLESS of him! Charles Bugg was a very kindly and gentle man--wonderful with children--but I associated him with "needles" and "shots" and that sort of thing. One day when I was about two years old, I as misbehaving at home in front of my mother and father by whining, crying and pouting like children that age are prone to do. My mother said, "If you don't stop that whining, we're going to take you to see Dr. Bugg." Instantaneously, I froze in mortal fear and went almost catatonic. The misbehavior stopped on a dime. My Mom and Dad thought it was funny as hell! So, they started using the threat as a discipline device. Friends of my parents would come over for a visit. I might be crawling around on the floor perfectly happy. Mom and Dad would say to their company, "Hey, watch this. They they would say the word, "Bugg." I would freeze in abject terror while the adults yucked it up. Well, like most nicknames do, it caught on. Mom called me "Bugg" and Dad called me "Bugg-Boy." Then all of their friends and my little playmates picked it up. The rest is history. I became "Bugg" to Raleigh. Only one problem. My contemporaries had no knowledge of the true origin of my name. But they did know about Bugs Bunny. So, in the juvenile world, I became "bugs." I HATED IT! Meantime, until the day he died, Dr. Charles Bugg thought my parents had named me after him. I suffered all the way through kindergarten, elementary and high school with the name "Bugs" or "Bugg" Berryhill. Finally when I headed for UNC in I959, I said, "Enough is enough. I'm not going to have classmates calling me 'Bugs' at Carolina." So, since my given name was William Irwin (hell, Irwin was almost as bad as "Bugs"), I opted to introduce myself to all my new college friends as Bill. As a result I have two distinct and separate groups of friends. Old friends (ante 1959) call me "Bugs" or "Bugg." Newer friends (post 1959) call me Bill. I will readily answer to both. Whenever someone calls me "Bugg," I know immediately that it's an old friend--and old friends are truly the best. But then there is the story of my last name "Berryhill" ... we'll save that for another time.

Do You Remember... Growing up in Raleigh

...when the "Fairview Road Gang" used to steal railroad flares out of the cabooses near Downtown Boulevard -- we called the flares "few-zees." "Cougar" and "Dingleberry" once requisitioned a whole crate of fewzees. They stuck a lit flare in every telephone pole on Fairview Road between St. Mary's and Reid Street. Then ducked into Dingle's "clubhouse," listened to the sirens, and watched every cop car in Raleigh descend on Fairview Road. The Raleigh P.D. spent months scratching their heads over that prank!

...when boys saved up their firecrackers, cherry bombs, M-80's, repeaters, helicopters, Roman candles and N-chases for Halloween?

Broughton Days 1954-55

We arrived on September 2, 1954 - a little scared, nervous and lost in this gigantic "castle." We made our way into the auditorium with trembling knees. A booming voice welcomed us and laid out the school rules before us. These were to be our restrictions: No smoking (there were a few giggles at this cancer causing habit). No leaving the school grounds during school hours (this rule didn't faze us either, as we had not yet been introduced to the "Milky Way") and last but not least, no hazing or initiation on the school grounds. (This brought a sigh of relief, and the fear of the deep and dark "pits" was gone). After a few weeks of going up and down the wrong steps, worshipping our senior idol, being guided by our Big Sister or Brother, being late to classes, our first real high school duty faced us, and we began to vigorously campaign for class officers.

This was a special year because it was the 25th anniversary of the school. Next year Broughton was consolidated with Hugh Morson and the Methodist Orphanage and became Raleigh's Senior High School. We adapted quickly to the social scene. Talking on the phone and slumber parties became our past time ... (Top photo) Sandra Shaw Mary Elizabeth Tant and Becky Franklin (left photo) are up for the challenge!

October brought the wonderful fair and although may of us declared that the fair was "kid stuff," you saw us there trudging along the midway with cotton candy from head to toe and hoping that special guy would win us a panda. (In this photo are seniors: Gene McCracken, Jimmy Lyndon, Wheatie" Jeffries and Friends).

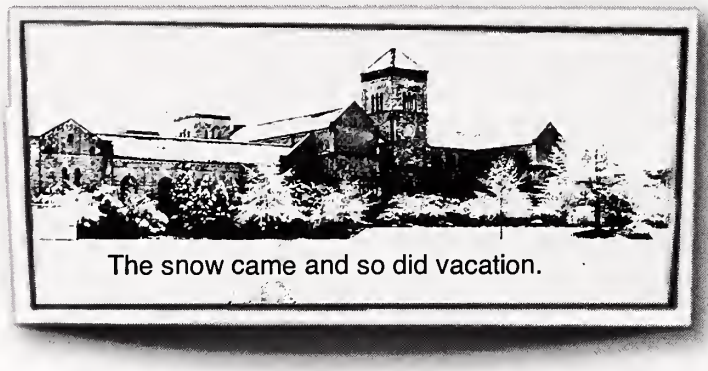

The less formal social was held at "Swoosh" Phelph's house where many of the sub-freshmen gathered to live it up. Annette Radcliff, Johny Wardlaw, "Sis" Stron, Burks Crumpler, "Runt" Rogers, Joy Pettit, Joe Webb, and Betty Sue Carson were packin' away the food and laughter at "Swoosh's". Need any more be said about how much fun they had?

Over at Carolyn Layton's, Sara McCorkle, "Cookie" Lucas, "Pug" Liles, Carol Kelly, Peggy Latta, Jane Liles, Jerry Liles, and Walda Klier, tried to get a bit of sleep before their usual Saturday fun, but after a few hours of whispers and and snickers, they gave it up as a good try and spent the rest of the night listening to records and nibblin' on potato chips!

November was our first "Homecoming," with Sis Strong chosen to represent our class, but an another girl named "Hazel" hit the N.C. coas and gave us a "gloomy" homecoming. Sis had to wait until the next week to sponsor.

The snow came and so did vacation.

Also in the month of February, we attended the Student-Faculty game - we couldn't believe the male faculty won their game, but the girls proved superior and held the older women to one point!! We went to the senior play, "January Thaw," and we thought they deserved Oscars - everyone of them.

With the snow over, we began to anticipate the Queen of Hearts program. Beautiful Faye Arnold was our Queen. Sis Strong, escorted by Burks Crumpler, represented our class.

The Younger Set

"THERE'S GONNA BE a great time in the ole town tonight!"

Today's really gonna be a lively one for the Raleighites with 'bout five parties being held on this sunny(?) Saturday.

Judy Swain, Martha Still, Sandra Strickland, and Martha Thomas are having a party this morning. Gay Sandlin, Ann Richards, Betty Poole, Donna Matthews, Kay Cheves, Betty Franklin, Julia Worth, and Betsy Poe will be here for this hen gathering.

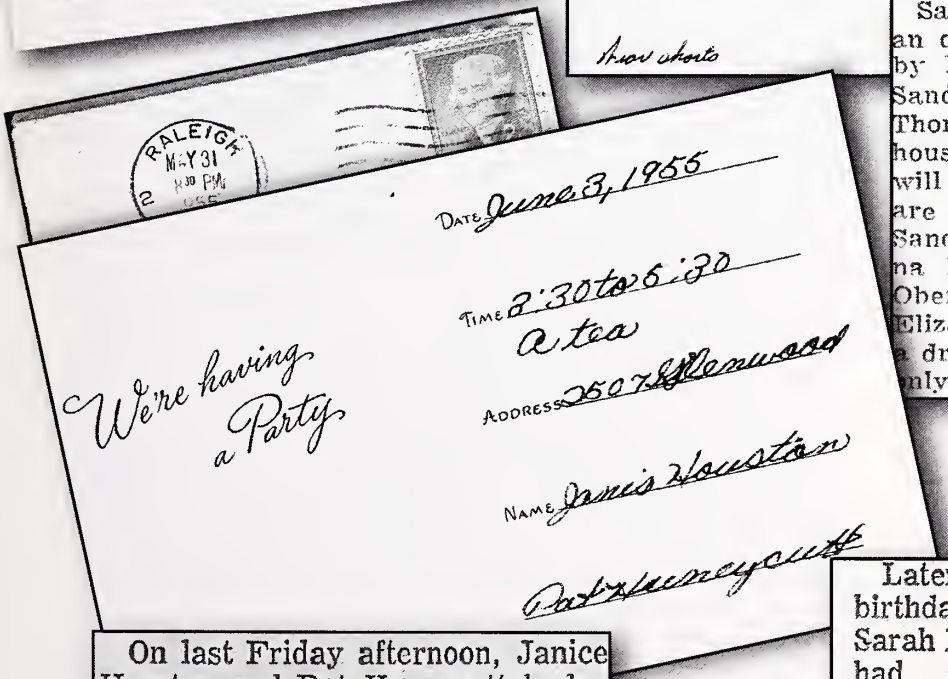

OPEN HOUSE
GIVEN BY:
Martha Thomas
Martha Still
Judy Swain
Sandra Strickland

Hope you can come
DATE Sat. May 21st
TIME 3:00-5:00 P.M.
PLACE 907 Vance St.

Thank shorts

Saturday afternoon, there will be an open house just for girls given by Martha Steele, Judy Swain, Sandra Strickland, and Martha Thomas, who is furnishing the house. Some of the guests who will drop in between 2 and 5 p.m. are Judy Tindal, Carleton Savage, Sandra Shaw, Carol Williams, Donna Mathews, Kay Cheese, Maria Oberby, Linda Jacobs, and Mary Elizabeth Tant. The party is not a dress up affair, but the girls will only wear shorts or bermudas.

We're having a Party

DATE June 3, 1955
TIME 2:30 to 6:30
a tea
ADDRESS 2507 Glenwood
NAME Janis Houston
Pat Honeycutt

On last Friday afternoon, Janice Houston and Pat Honeycutt had a tea at Janice's house to sign annuals, get a bite to eat, and just celebrate the beginning of summer. Donna Matthews, Kay Cheeves, Mary Ruth Jackson, Margie Finley, Joyce Williamson, Mary Lou Dorris, and Mary Evelyn Dughi were some of those here for this party.

Later that same afternoon a birthday party was in session for Sarah Levine, and what a time she had. After opening "fitty" presents the girls, with hopes that no boys were peeping in the windows, tried to make up some new bop steps. And with Pat Hununicutt, Carlton, Savage, Donna Matthews, Nancy Edwards and Edith Olive there, you can be sure there were some steps made up that haven't even been thought of yet!

Linda Jacobs had the other party for last weekend which was a luncheon on Saturday afternoon. If you'd peeped in Linda's window, 'could be that you'd have seen Sandra Shaw, Donna Matthews, Gail McClamrock, Sara Levine, and Sherry Wells laughing gaily and exchanging bits of gossip around the dinner table.

THE RECREATION CENTER at Pullen Park was the site for the dance that Ann and Sue Carper gave last night for some of their sub-freshmen friends. Betsy Adams, Ned Thurlow, Linda Bradshaw, Scott Bowers, Dale Bethune, E. P. Brinkley, Tommy Hines, Donna Matthews, Kay Cheese, and Billy Bernhardt were only a few of those there, dancin', eatin', and livin' it up!

TO GET LAST WEEKEND underway Linda Bradshaw, Annette Raycliff, and Becky Franklin had a party on Saturday morning. The girls caught up on all the latest gossip and discussed the game the night before. Some of those were Sandra Strickland, Donna Mathews, Betty Parker, Mary Clyde Davis, and Mary Lou Doris.

Hugh Morson High

(Tune: "Auld Lang Syne")

Hugh Morson High, Hugh Morson High
None can with her compare,
We'll live for her, and fight for her,
Defend her anywhere.
Our star of hope in future years,
As she has been our guide.
We will be true while time endures,
And love none else beside.

Chorus

'Tis Hugh Morson High we love,
'Tis Hugh Morson High,
Of her we'll sing, till earth shall ring
With echoes from the sky.

We love her for the great times past,
For greater yet to be,
Surpassing all that others know
From sea to farthest sea.
We love her for her learning, skill,
For all her guiding gleams,
For visions, and for victories,
For glorious, golden dreams.

Her grace and beauty blend in one,
As virtuous valor strives,
And cultured kindness hovers 'round
While vibrant wisdom thrives.
Here sportsmanship and romance bloom,
Careers are launched for life;
The vanquished rises, conqueror,
Achieving in the strife.

I'd love to blend my life with hers
And in that blending be
The veriest jot of any plan
For larger liberty.
Her spirit we will keep alive
And growing, going strong,
Until some genius blossoms forth
In richer, grander song.

HUGH MORSON HIGH SCHOOL, RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Donald King, who is in the eighth grade is in the spotlight, is in Mrs. Winslow's homeroom. Donald is 5'3" in height. He has blonde hair and blue eyes. H:is favorite subject is Arithmetic. When asked about his favorite food, he seemed to have a hard time making up his mind, but he finally settled for steak. His favorite television show is "Ed Sullivan's Toast of the Town." Donald can usually be seen with Jerry Bryant and Bill Duncan. He doesn't have a girl friend yet, but he's got his eye on all of them. This little eighth grader has made quite a good start at Hugh Morson by being elected President of his homeroom. Good luck Donald, during your stay at Hugh Morson.

1954-55 was the last year Hugh Morson would be a High School. During that year athletics were combined with Needham Broughton and Raleigh High School athletics began. The Class of '57 would be the first graduating class containing students from Morson and Broughton. The Class of '59 will remain at Hugh Morson, now a Junior High School, for the 9th grade.

Jackets Dump Wilson, 20-12

Daniels Finishes Unbeaten Season

Daniels' Blue Jackets completed their first season of football unbeaten by turning back Wilson Junior High, 20-12, here yesterday.

It was the fifth straight victory for the Blue Jackets and the first loss for Wilson after five consecutive wins.

Quarterback Scott Bowers passed for one touchdown, and ran 46 yards for another in pacing the victory. Daniels' other score came on a 36-yard romp by halfback John Wardlaw.

Daniels went out front early in the second quarter after a 70-yard drive stalled on the Wilson 1. The visitors, after pouncing on a Daniels fumble just one yard short of the goal, were forced to punt from the end zone.

Wardlaw Scored.

That's when Wardlaw sent the home team ahead. He gathered in the punt on the Wilson 36 and galloped all the way for the game's first score. Halfback David Poole ran over the extra point.

Wilson came back for a second period score on some nifty running by halfback Eddie Robbins, who scored both times for the visitors. Robbins raced off tackle for 46 yards and the TD that pulled Wilson within one point of a tie. A running play for the extra point failed, however.

Daniels shoved across what proved to be the winning touchdown early in the third quarter. Bowers climaxed a 60-yard drive by passing to end Joe Webb for 12 yards and the TD. Poole ran over the extra point to make it 14-6.

Robbins Romped.

Wilson marched 50 yards following the next kickoff with Robbins racing around left end for the final 12 yards to make the score 14-12.

ON THE SPOT—Johnny Wardlaw (22) was Johnny-on-the-spot as far as this play was concerned. The pass was intended for Smedes York (36) of Daniels Junior High but was deflected into Wardlaw's hands. The play netted a first down for the Jackets who finished the season undefeated by whipping Wilson, 20-12.

The visitors had another drive going late in the period that carried to the Daniels 8. They had a first-down on the 12, but later lost the ball on downs when a perfect pass was droped in the end zone.

The Blue Jackets launched their final drive from the 8, and went the distance. Bowers moved off tackle on an option play and ran 46 yards for the score. Pole's extra point attempt hit the bar and was no good.

It was the most points scored against Wilson this season. The visitors had only been scored on twice before the trip to Raleigh.

Statistics.

Daniels picked up 273 yards rushing compared to 108 for Wilson, and had 13 first downs to eight for Wilson. The visitors gained 99 yards passing to 61 for Daniels.

End Smedes York, tackles Bob Baird, Stanton Tuttle, and guards John Phelps and Jimmy Olive played outstanding defensive ball for Daniels, along with Poole and Fred Voorhees in the linebacker spots.

Daniels thus closes its first season with victories over Durham, Sanford, Goldsboro, Hugh Morson and Wilson.

Daniels Defeats Sanford, 12 to 7

SANFORD, Sept. 29 — Daniels Junior High School of Raleigh trimmed Sanford Junior High, 12-7, here tonight in a tight struggle.

It was the second straight win for the Blue Jackets, who opened with a 33-0 victory over Goldsboro last week.

Coach Jimmy Goldston's Blue Jackets got a scoring opportunity in the first quarter and scored immediately. Sanford elected to run the ball on fourth down from its own 28 and failed to get a first down. Scott Bowers passed to Ivan Jones to cover the distance in one play. The try for the extra point failed.

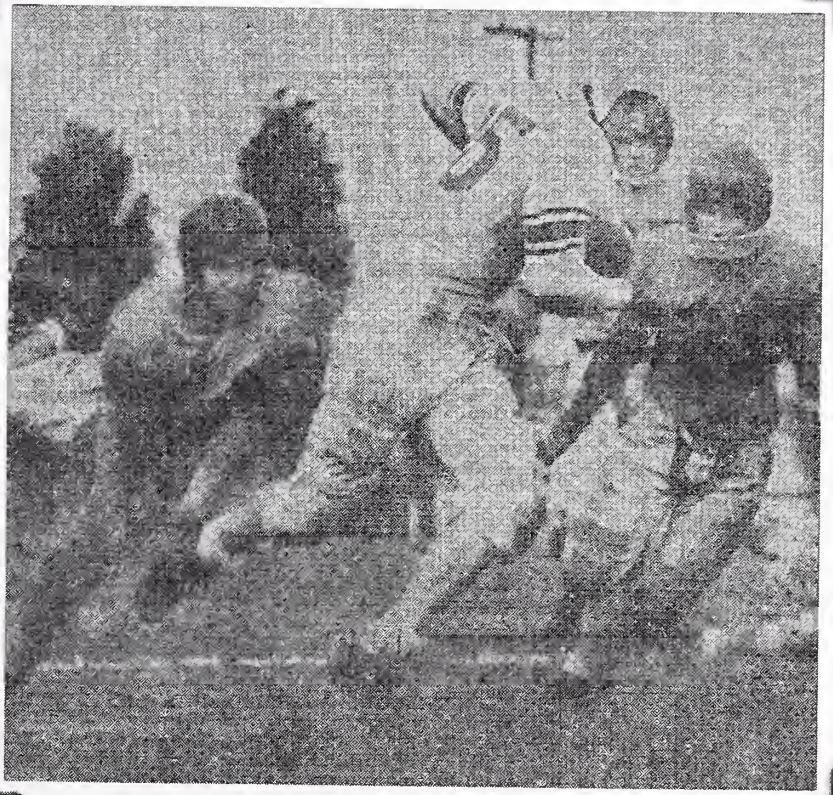

In the second quarter Sanford drove to Daniels' 22 and fumbled. David Poole took off around right end and romped 78 yards for Daniels' second touchdown.

Sanford took the second half kickoff and drove 65 yards for its only touchdown. Pete Mason crashed over from the 1 for the score and kicked the extra point.

Neither team made another serious threat during the remainder of the game.

Daniels made 191 yards rushing one more than Sanford. The Blue Jackets made 28 yards passing while Sanford failed to complete a pass.

Freddie Vorhees, John Phelps, Jimmy Olive, Bobby Sodon and Poole played outstanding defensive games for Daniels.

Daniels Wallops Goldsboro

Daniels Junior High School made a successful football debut last night. The Blue Jackets scored in every quarter as they smashed Goldsboro Junior High, 33-0, in Devereux Meadow before a crowd of about 2,000.

In the first quarter the Jackets drove 61 yards for a touchdown, with halfback David Poole getting the last two yards. From then on Daniels completely outplayed the visiting Goldsboro gridders.

Ivan Jones galloped 60 yards with a punt in the first quarter for Raleigh's second touchdown. Another six points were registered before halftime when Poole smashed over from the 1 after Fred Voohrees had set up the touchdown with a 23-yard run after intercepting a pass.

Halfback Johnny Wardlaw went 45 yards for a touchdown in the third period on a play through the middle of the line. Bob Martin climaxed a 50-yard drive with a two-yard run in the fourth quarter for Daniels' final touchdown.

Quarterbacks Scott Bowers and Al Lassiter directed the Daniels attack which gained 300 yards on the ground compared to 52 for Goldsboro.

GO BLUE JACKETS!!

FOR CITY TITLE

Junior Highs Play Tonight At Devereux

Daniels' unbeaten Blue Jackets meet the Morson Blue Demons here tonight in a battle for the junior high city championship.

Gametime is 7:30 at Devereux Meadow.

Daniels, riding a three-game winning streak, is a heavy favorite to cop the initial battle between the two junior high schools. Morson is winless after three outings.

However, the Blue Demons, coached by Leon Sexton, have shown steady improvement and are expected to give the strong Blue Jackets a battle for the city title.

Coach Jimmy Goldston's Daniels eleven hasn't been pushed hard in racking up wins over Goldsboro, Sanford and Carr of Durham. The victory over Carr was 26-12 while Morson lost to the same team, 24-0. Morson has dropped successive games to Wilson, Carr and Powe of Durham, but shows its best form of the season in losing to Powe, 26-6, last week.

Morson's probable starters will include Jimmy Bayles and Woodrow Huffman at ends, Carl Stroupe and Jerry Tuttle at tackles, Lynn Wilson and Chester Smith at guards, and Simon Dixon at center; with William Duncan, Joe Mangum, Donald Pleasant and Billy Merritt in the backfield.

For Daniels, the probable starters include Smedes York and Joe Webb at ends, Bob Baird and Sam Tuttle at tackles, Fred Smith and John Phelps at guards and Bob Shearon at center; with Scott Bowers, Ivan Jones, Davie Poole and Fred Voorhees in the backfield.

Daniels Cops City Crown By Beating Morson, 26-0

Undefeated Josephus Daniels Junior High won the first intra-city battle with Hugh Morson, 26-0, at Devereux Meadow last night.

After getting off to a slow start the Bluejackets struck for three touchdowns in the second quarter to take a commanding lead. The Morson eleven was unable to make a serious threat during the game.

Daniels made 202 yards by rushing and held Morson to 13. The winners completed four of six passes for 107 yards.

Morson fought off its favored foe in the first quarter but got into trouble in the second when a fumble was recovered 15 yards short of the goal. Ivan Jones took it across from the 2 and ran the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

Later in the period David Poole intercepted a pss and returned it 25 yards to the 6. He went over from there and also got the extra point. In the same quarter a third touchdown was made on a 15-yard run by Poole, who now has eight touchdowns in four games.

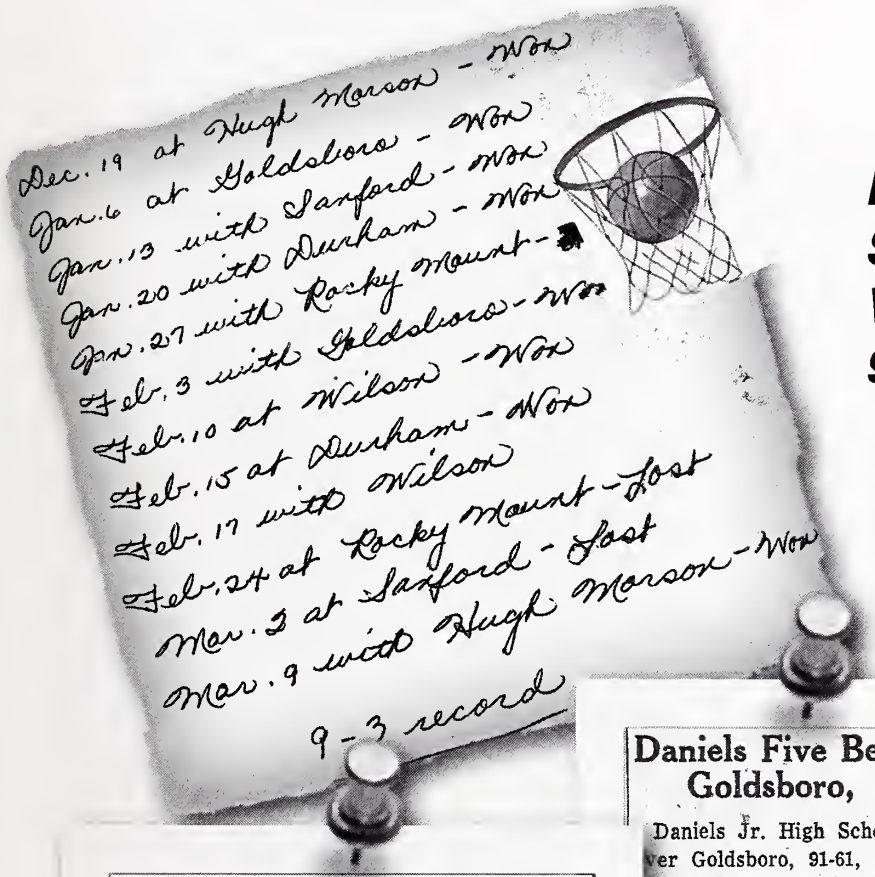

The final Daniels touchdown came in the third period after a drive had been stopped on the Morson 4. The punt out was partially blocked and Daniels took over on the 9. Bobby Martin ran eight yards for the score.

Leading the Daniels' defense were Freddie Vorhees, Bobby Baird, Lewis Mattox, and John Phelps.

Morson leaders were Donald Pleasants, Donald King, Joe Mangrum, Simon Dixon, Jimmy Bayles, Jerry Tuttle, and Carl Stroup.

A crowd of 1,800 attended.

Daniels Ends Successful First Season

The Daniels Junior High School baseball team was a little disappointed when it finished its season Friday.

The team lost a 4-3 decision to Rocky Mount in its final game — and in the final inning — to ruin a bid for a perfect season.

However, it was the third successful athletic season for the Raleigh school in its first season of competition. The Daniels football team went through undefeated while the basketball team lost only three games.

"I guess the boys were just too anxious to win that final game," said coach Jimmy Goldston, "and made a lot of mistakes they hadn't been making earlier."

Goldston, who was assisted during the season by Bill Harrington, pointed out pitching and defense as the strong points of his team which won seven and lost one. "We made seven errors against Rock Mount," he pointed out, "but that hadn't happened in any of the other games."

Ronnie Jeffries and Riley Pleasants were the big winners on the Daniels' pitching staff, both posting 3-0 records. The other victory and only defeat were credited to Warren Peed.

Hitting star of the team was Burks Crumpler, rightfielder. He clouted the ball at a better than .600 pace. Third baseman Jimmy Olive was another potent man with bat, finishing the season close to the .500 mark.

RALEIGH 59—WILMINGTON 57

Winning the 100th game under Coach Carroll King the Raleigh Caps spilled Wilmington 59-57 on the Wildcats' home floor. Wilmington overcame an 11 point Cap advantage in the last three minutes to pull within three points with 14 seconds left to play and threatened to tie the game as Jackie Bullard stepped to the foul line with two shots. He made his first one and attempted to miss the second, in hopes of a tap in, but the ball went through the hoop and Raleigh came home winner over the Wildcats for the second time this season. Pacing the Caps were Bill Shinn with 22 points and Allen Millar with 10.

RALEIGH 76—DURHAM 66

With Bruce Hoadley pumping in 31 points the Raleigh Caps scored a stirring 76-66 victory over the Durham Bulldogs. The win left Raleigh all alone atop the Eastern Conference pack with an 8-1 record. The two teams left the floor at halftime tied 37-37 but at the beginning of the third period the Caps scored five quick points and were never headed thereafter. In the final three minutes, the Caps began to hold the ball and the Bulldogs began to press thus causing a parade to the foul line with Durham getting no closer than 6 points. Following Hoadley in the scoring columns were Bill Shinn with 16 points and Allen Millar and Bryant Garner with 12 each.

Bobby Edgerton Bid High in City Tourney

Don't look now but Raleigh may have a 15-year-old city golf champion by the weekend.

Bobby Edgerton, a youngster of 15 years who spent most of his time this summer playing American Legion baseball, survived the second round of the City Tournament at Raleigh Golf Association yesterday.

He is one of eight remaining in the championship flight.

The serious-minded young Needham Broughton student yesterday disposed of Jimmy Ayers in the second round.

Ayers, by the way, is the golfer that defeated defending champion Bill Aldridge in last week's opening round.

Edgerton, who has been turning in some impressive scores at his home Carolina Country Club course, was three down at the end of nine yesterday but rallied to win, 2-up.

Prior to the Eastern Junior Invitational held recently at CCC, he had turned in two successive rounds of three-under-par 69's. He qualified second only to National Junior champ Larry Beck for the local Junior event.

Bobby reached the semifinals before losing out.

Edgerton's game has been steady in the City Tournament thus far but he faces one of his toughest assignments in the third round when he meets C. O. Boyles.

It was Boyles who pulled a major upset yesterday by defeating tournament favorite Bill Dean. His medal score was a one-over-par 71 for the match.

Carolina Country Club assistant pro Terry Atkins, who is probably more familiar with Edgerton's play than anyone else, said today that the youngster definitely has a chance against Boyles.

"Bobby has been consistant of late," Atkins said. "He's been playing good golf but so has Boyles. Their match should be a good one and I believe Boyles will have to be at his best to beat him."

Second round play will end tomorrow with the third round beginning Wednesday. Finals are scheduled for Sunday.

Other third round matches in the championship flight send Vernon Hill against Gabby Bryant, Bob Yancey Jr. against Clarence Alexander and Allen Senter against Bill . helps.

SURPRISE PARTY!!

YOUNGER SET

Kay Cheeves and Sandra Strickland were the two lassies who made the plans to surprise Cabell Robb on her birthday. The time was Wednesday afternoon and the scene was Sandra's house. Everyone kept it a big secret right up until the very last minute!!! Cabell was mighty surprised when she walked into Sandra's house thinking that she was just going to a get-together, and heard the girls singing "Happy Birthday" to her. A few of those who watched her open a table full of gifts were Donna Wilkerson, Mary Lou Dorris, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Edith Olive, Jackie McGee, Peggy Baker, Sarah Collins, Sandra Shaw, Linda Jacobs, Ann Richards, Sarah McCorkle, Carleton Savage, Natalie Tunstall and Emily Lloyd.

CAPS WIN FOUR STRAIGHT

Raleigh 20—Wilmington 14

The Caps came through again by defeating the Wildcats 20-14. The Caps scored twice in the first period while stalling Wilmington throughout the first half. Roy Stephenson lead the Caps' opening quarter offensive. Grady Ferrell scored the first touchdown and Roy Stephenson the second on a nine yard trip through left tackle. With five minutes left the Caps moved for two first downs, twice making the necessary yardage on crucial plays. A fourth down motion penalty prevented a third first down and the Caps were forced to punt. Raleigh played straight football and rolled up 182 yards rushing. Wilmington had the ball only 3 plays and a punt in the first quarter. Stephenson carried the ball eleven times in the first quarter and 7 more in the second.

Raleigh 34—Burlington 7

Raleigh controlled the ball most of the game in winning their easiest victory of the year 34 to 7 over Burlington. It was the Caps' sixth win of the year against one loss. The Caps, expecting a tough game as the result of many sick and injured players, made Burlington's homecoming a disappointment for its fans.

Grady Ferrell led the scoring with three touchdowns, all on quarterback sneaks. Roy Stephenson and Davé White accounted for the two remaining touchdowns. Mickey Caviness kicked three extra points, and Fred Smith concluded the scoring with one conversion.

For the Bulldogs, Talley sprinted for Burlington's only score of the evening as he returned a kick of 75 yards. Outside of that, the Bulldogs failed to advance beyond the Raleigh 46 as they were held to fourteen yard's rushing.

Caps 21—Quakers 14

Raleigh turned a Goldsboro punting mistake into touchdown in the last five minutes to defeat the Quakers, 21 to 14. Trailing 14-7 going into the last quarter, the Caps' Henry Newton blocked a Goldsboro kick, and Reggie Brown raced for the touchdown. Caviness booted the tying point. Halfback Freddy Johnson took a pitch-out from Grady Ferrell and went around end for the winning touchdown.

Poole crashed over the goal from the 5 for the first Raleigh touchdown. After Caviness kicked the extra point the score was 7-0. Ellis to Ward pass and a Frederick to O'Daniel pass were the only scoring plays of the Goldsboro Earthquakes.

Caps Open Season Against Greensboro

Big Test In Making For Caps

BY WOODY UPCHURCH
Times Sports Writer

GREENSBORO — The spoils of three seasons of gridiron warfare are awaiting the winner at Greensboro tonight.

The record books will only show one win but the team that comes out on top will need an armored car to carry away all the personal dividends that will belong to the victor.

In a truly unusual football series, the Raleigh Caps launch the new season at Greensboro tonight against Coach Bob Jamieson's tough Whirlies.

In the two previous meetings of the two teams, no one has crossed the goal line. Both Jamieson and Cap Coach Clyde Walker have agreed this time that they would like to see somebody score just for the sake of breaking the monotony.

Both camps have reported their teams in top physical condition for the clash and, like in the past two seasons, a close contest is anticipated.

"The hot weather has taken a lot out of the boys," Walker said yesterday, "but I believe that we are in excellent physical condition."

The Caps will take the field tonight with all members present. Greensboro will have to go without at least one of its backfield men.

Both teams will be testing unseasoned boys in the season opener. Greensboro has new faces in both its backfield and line while most of the new Raleigh starters will be in the backfield.

About the only factor that could be considered in an attempt to determine a favorite for the season opener is Raleigh's seasoned line.

The Caps have seasoned players at every line position and will outweigh the Whirlies about 10-pounds per man.

Henry Newton and Allan Millar will start at ends for the Caps. Veterans Bub Pearson and Steve White will operate at the tackles.

Jerry Cordell and Bob Baird are Walker's guard choices and Simon Dixon will start at center.

Grady Ferrell will draw his first starting assignment at quarterback. Freddy Johnson and Johnny Wardlaw will start at the halfbacks.

Last year's defensive standout, Roy Stephenson, will get his first offensive starting role at fullback.

Colds, Coughs, Flu Kee

Broughton High School was hard hit by the "flu bug" during the last two weeks of October. On October 18, there were 484 absent. That total docs not include those that checked out during the day.

On a normal day, such as September 17, there were 63 out of 1,500 students that failed to answer roll call. On October 9, thcre were 91 absent. Perhaps that might have served as a warning of what was to follow.

As colds, coughs, and fever became more prevalent, students stayed at home.

The absences for the school days beginning with October 14 are as follows:

|---|---|
| October 14 | 197 |
| October 15 | 205 |
| October 16 | 240 |
| October 17 | 386 |
| October 18 | 484 |
| October 21 | 331 |
| October 22 | 293 |
| October 23 | 219 |
| October 24 | 183 |

The individual average absence was four or five days.

HOMECOMING CORSAGES

RALEIGH 20—WINSTON-SALEM REYNOLDS 7

Shaking off the flu-bug, the "Sweet Cappers" celebrated Homecoming with a 20 to 7 victory over Reynolds High. Three fumbles made by Reynolds and recovered by the Caps proved to be the determining factors for the sixth victory of the season.

Raleigh's life-savers included two homeruns and only one sustained drive. In the second period, Bobby Howell made a spectacular 80 yard gallop with a recovered fumble. Halfback Johnny Wardlaw topped Bobby's run by picking up the third quarter kick-off at the last minute and prancing 95 yards for the Caps' second full bagger. Fullback Roy Stephenson got Raleigh moving in the final period. Good runs by Roy and a 15 yard penalty set up a one yard scoring dive by quarterback Grady Ferrell. This win appealed to the fans and made our Homecoming perfect.

Hi-Times

Needham B. Broughton High School held its annual homecoming Friday, October 25.

Preparations had been going on for two weeks for the big event. The last minute touches were put on Friday and the actual floats were made. Kay Fletcher and her Hospitality Committee started early to make the homecoming corsages. They went on sale at the lunch periods. The Hospitality Committee also made corsages for the sponsors.

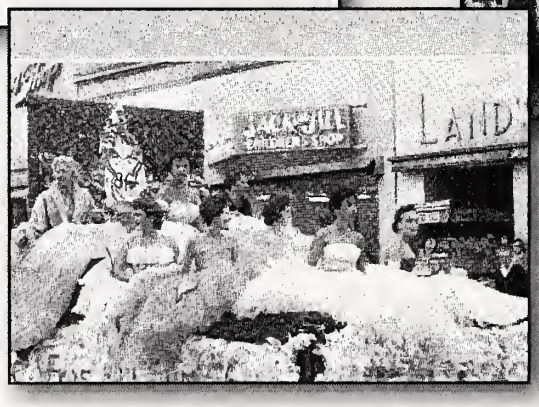

Bill Hurt and his committee sold pennants at school and at the game. Bill was also in charge of the sale of programs for the game.

Immediately after school the parade for Homecoming started at Memorial Auditorium and went down Fayetteville Street.

Mr. Glover's homeroom, Future Homemakers of America, and Mrs. Freeman's homeroom won first, second and third places for having the best floats. Lyman Ferrell was in charge of getting the judges.

At the half time during the game with Reynolds on Friday night, the sponsors were presented with their escorts. The band followed the theme of Stairway to the Stars. Kate Blackwell and Anna Conrad were the guest sponsors from Reynolds.

F.H.A. homecoming float filled with beauties and hundreds of pounds of tissue paper wins again!

NBHS Turns Out For State Fair

What's going on here? This is Broughton High School and Tuesday, isn't it? Every girl in sight has on long slacks, pedal pushers or bermudas. Not a single boy looks like he is ready to have a class picture made for the annual. Oh! it is fair week. School will be dismissed at 12:30 o'clock. This memory is not a dream, but something that occurs every October.

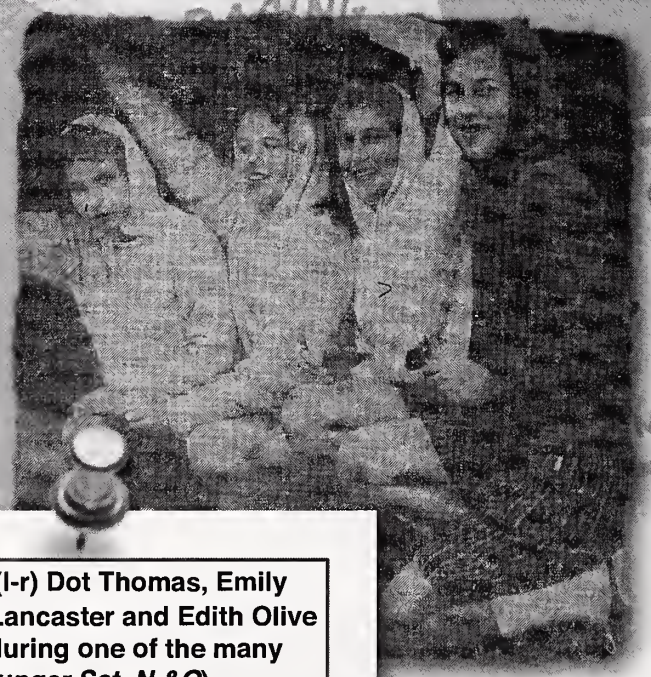

Even Asian flu, colds, coughs, and sneezes failed to hold the crowds back this year. Rides! Food! Games! Shows! Exhibits! Stuffed animals! To stay at home would be a disgrace. The Fair is a conversation topic for weeks. Animals won or received are treasured for months.

Seventy-five students were asked how they spent their time and money. They reported as follows:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 100 | hotdogs | $20.00 |
| 193 | drinks | 19.30 |
| 79 | French fries | 15.80 |
| 25 | hamburgers | 7.50 |
| 30 | ice creams | 6.15 |
| 28 | candy apples | 4.20 |
| 57 | cotton candy | 13.15 |
| 20 | cakes and pies | 3.00 |
| 22 | boxes popcorn | 2.20 |
| 280 | rides | 92.25 |
| 64 | Teddy bears, etc. | 217.55 |
| Total | | $401.10 |
| Average | | 5.35 |

What puzzles Bob Martin and Sandra Shaw is "how" they'll manage to ride the rocket with their arms full of teddy bears. *(Younger Set, N&O)

Wardrobe Wisdom

Hazel Leonard and Lynwood Lawton, in the picture to the left, are wearing the perfect outfits for these in-between fall days. Around school boy's shirts range from small pen-stripes to large colorful plaids. The variety of girls blouses include: sailor, hobo, tailored long-sleeved, and fussy baby-doll sleeved. Sporting these popular fashions are Tommy Butler, Judy Ray, Mary Ruth Jackson, Jim Byrd and Gail Swinson. Have you seen the lace-up socks Mary Beaty and Pat Marion have been wearing?

And Still More Fun

The annual "FROST FROLIC" was taking place at Christ Church last Saturday night. This dance takes place each year at Christmas, and it always has the same decorations 'cause everyone likes them so well! Jo Crowder, Jerry Tuttle, Brenda Furee, Jimmy Bone, Donna Wilkerson, Jimmy Johnson, Jane Adams, Jimmy Pierce, Betsy R[illegible], and Alvah Fuquay say they wouldn't change the decorations for anything!

Mary Elizabeth Tant, Sally Derr, Retha Gulley ('58), "Boopie" Poole and Kay Cheves got an early Christmas present when they were invited to join the Sub-Junior Woman's Club in Raleigh.

Younger Set N&O

Frank Cella's house was really packed with oodles and oddles of fellows and gals Tuesday night. This party was for stags and drags and everyone there had a great time. Donna Wilkerson, Janis Houston, Linwood Rideout, Steve White, Marguerite Howard, Tom Cannon, Paul Burroughs, Bryant Garner, Arch T. Allen, Bill Hurt, Marie Overby, Mary Lou Derris, and Bobby Burch are some of those who were there.

Deadeye Billy Hubbard dropped in the tie-breaking basket in the last two-seconds to give the Caps a thrilling upset over the Wildcats from Wilmington at the State Fair Arena. Hubbard's basket came just 23 seconds after Larry Edens dropped a jump shot which tied the game after Wilmington had been down all the way. Hubbard's 20 points and Yate's 18 were pacemakers for the Kingmen. The win moved Raleigh into a tie for second with the Wildcats. Wilmington's "all-everything" Roman Gabriel was held to 12 points and fouled out in the crucial dying moments of the game. Jackie Bullard's long jump shots which accounted for 22 points kept the Cats in the game, but he alone couldn't

Raleigh 70-High Point 62

In a thrilling upset victory Raleigh avenged two previous setbacks and gained the semifinal round by defeating a good High Point team. The Caps held the upper hand most of the way but not until the final quarter could they make the lead permanent. Te first break of the game came in the third quarter when star Bison forward Jimmy Adams fouled out. At this point the Caps were leading 41-39. Within three minutes, the lead had been increased to 50-2. The Caps coasted the final period and pulled away despite the efforts of High Point' other big threat Bobby Teague. Teague took scoring honors for both clubs with 32 points. Bill Hubbard turned in one of his finest games of the year leading the team in rebounding and points. He was helped by Raleigh's three other big men Yates, Millar and York. Coach King commented after the game that the Caps simply outscrapped the boys from High Point and their determination was not to be denied.

Bill Simpson — "It doesn't cramp Sue and me while we are watching."

Edwina Hardy — "Being able to see the game better."

Bob Shinn — "I don't like it because you have to sit too far away from the game for the players to hear the cheers."

Robert Stephenson — "It doesn seem like a N.B.H.S. game."

Sally Derr — "I liked it the oth way better, but I guess this is a right."

Jack Leavel — "Has got plen of room and no people to fill it up."

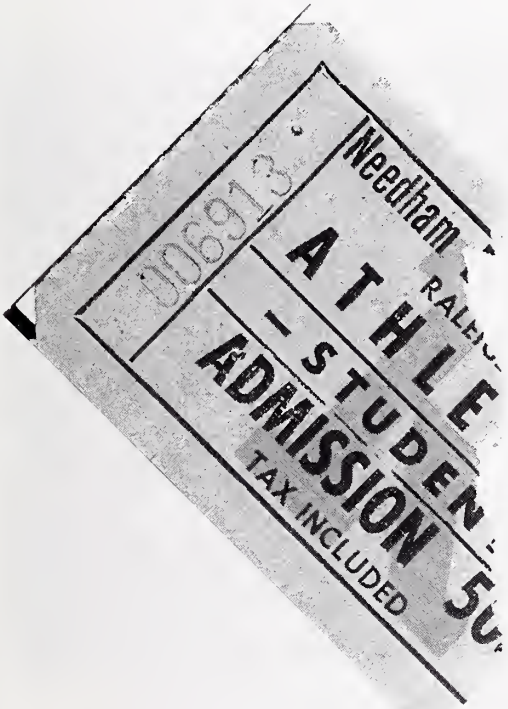

Pat Huneycutt — "I think it really great. There is enough roo on the grounds outside for the st dents to have a big pep rally b fore the game."

Raleigh Caps Have to Perform At Consistent Best This Week

By BRUCE PHILLIPS

Times Sports Editor

"We'll have to play our consistent best to stay with them," Coach Carroll King of Raleigh High commented this morning.

His allusion was to the rugged opposition that confronts his Caps this week as Eastern AAA Conference basketball wars begin.

Tomorrow night the Capital City cagers travel to Wilmington to test the mighty Wildcats, and on Friday are in Durham to play the Bulldogs.

"There's no doubt about it," King said. "Wilmington and Durham have the best two teams in the league this year.

"I believe both are at least as good as last year and maybe improved."

Raleigh clipped Wilmington in two and halved a pair with Durham last year but the Caps are not the terror they were in 1956-57.

King lost his top two scoring aces to collegiate ranks and must play inexperienced boys in many spots.

"I thought we did some things well against the ACC Jayvees,' King said. "We also looked bad in some spots.

"We have played some basketball his year that would qualify us to beat Wilmington or Durham but we haven't played a total game.

"We will give away size against both Wilmington and Durham," he pointed out. "Both teams are also more experienced units."

King, though, doesn't feel any remorse having to lead off his conference schedule against the best teams in the league.

"We might as well begin at the top," he said. "That way, we'll find out what we have in a hurry."

King will go with the same lineup that has been playing in recording a 3-5 mark. The forwards are Jim Yates and Bill Hubbard, the center Allan Millar, the guards Tommy Butler and Bryant Garner.

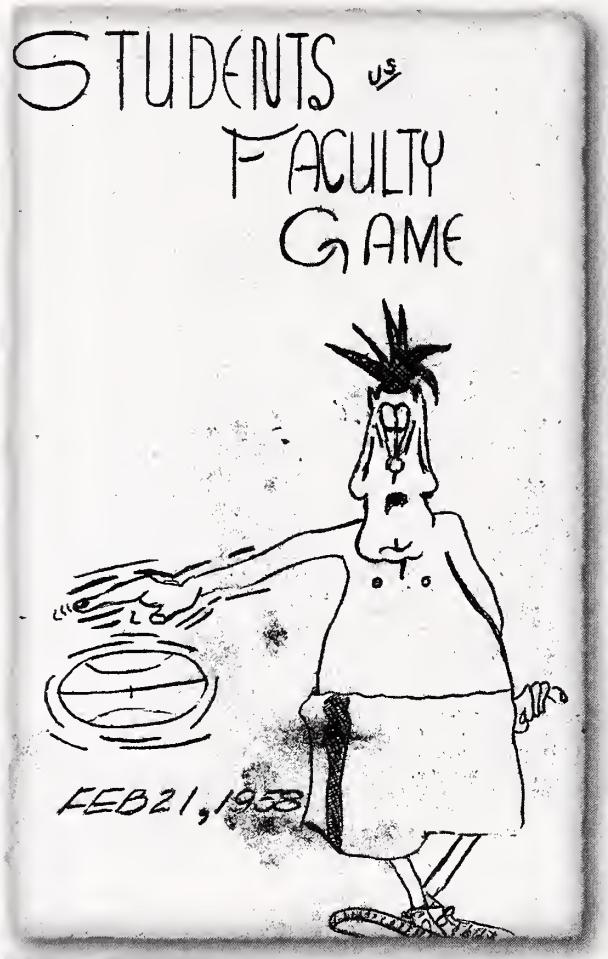

"Smedes York and N. R. Stell have been coming strong," King commented. "And both may see a lot more duty from here on."

OUR JUNIOR SONG

(Tune: Moments to Remember and So Long)

The moments we have shared these years,
Will shine through all our misty tears.
We'll hold these memories dear forever.

The day has come, you've reached the top,
But keep on going and never stop,
We'll hold these memories dear forever.

Chorus:
The football games where friendships start,
The treasured "Queen of Hearts"
Your Senior Prom, where dreams came true,
Of these you are a part.

Its time to leave, its time to part,
But still you'll be in all our hearts.
We'll hold these memories dear forever.

(So Long)
So long or a while, we'll say good-bye with a smile,
So long 'til we meet again,
In the halls where our friendships began.
So Long!

Frankly Speaking...

By FRANK SMITH

The sweat rolled and the pounds melted as Coach Clyde Walker put his gridiron warriors through the paces in late August. The Caps' losses by way of the sheepskin were great, for fourteen lettermen and nine starters were lost from a squad that last year compiled an excellent 8-2 record. The coaching staff and Captain John Wardlaw realize the shoes they have to fill are large.

The further losses of Stuart Jenkins, Dave White and Bryant Tudor by broken bones and moving were absorbed by the addition of transfers Phil Hagler, Billy Vaughn and Jay McClellan.

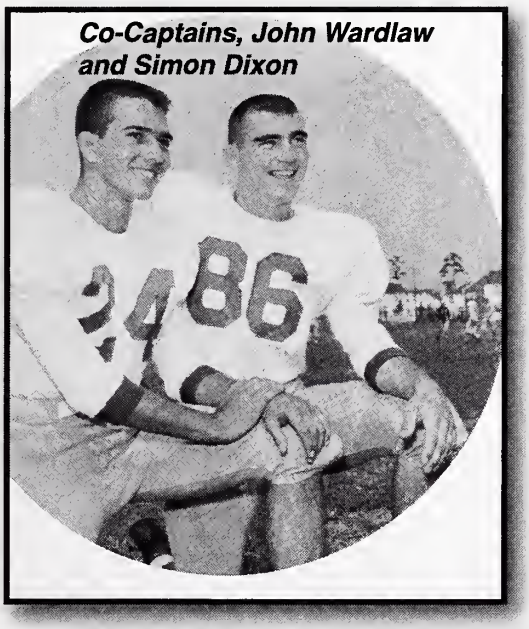

The Cap eleven have so far come out on the short end of a 1-3 record; however, all losses were decidcd by only one touchdown. The Capper's only win, a 46-7 mauling of Kinston, prompted the mentors of Wilson and Durham to say that Raleigh had the best team in the conference. Both coaches happily ate their own words for on successive week ends their squads defeated the Capital Warriors in out-of-town contests. The flashy running of speedy halfbacks Eddie Robinson of Wilson and Jimmy Addison of Durham, accounted for most of the damage in the losses. The Caps, always fighting, almost pulled the Durham contest out of the bag, but time stopped a desperate last minute bid for victory.

Raleigh's double loss to Wilson and Durham has all but knocked them out of the conference race, but the Caps' record should improve as the season progresses.

Several of the Cappers distinguished themselvcs by winning various titles and tournaments in summer sports. Tennis . . . Earl Brian, Jimmy Emmons and Stuart Austin . . . Golf . . . E. P. Brinkley, Bobby Edgerton and Stanton Tuttle . . . Water-skiing . . . Nat Taylor and Rella Lancaster.

As this paper goes to press, the outcome of the first two games of the World Series is unknown. Pitching, the key factor in any Series, should carry the Braves through against the powerful bats of the New York Yankees.

All-State Ga. Center Among Cap Aspirants

By WOODY UPCHURCH
Times Sports Writer

It may sound a little off beat but if Raleigh High produces a championship football team this season, at least part of the credit will belong to Seaboard Air Line Railroad.

Among the number that turned out for the first day of practice at Needhem Broughton today was a husky All-State center-fullbeck from Atlanta, Georgia.

Jay McClellan, a trim 6-2, 205-pounder, has moved here from Atlanta where he made the Georgia All-State team a year ago as a member of the North Fulton High eleven.

Young McClellan's arrival in Raleigh and his appearance on the Cap gridiron is a direct result of a Seaboard Railroad decision.

The 17-year-old gridder's father is an employe of the railroad and has been transferred from the firm's Atlanta office.

"I'm very happy to be in Raleigh," Jay said yesterday as he waited eagerly for the first day of practice. "I liked it in Atlanta, of course, but I think the change is good. I'll be able to meet new people and make new friends because of the transfer."

Needless to say, Raleigh Coach Clyde Walker welcomed the Georgia All-Stater with open arms. "We haven't seen him play but we've certainly heard a lot about him," Walker commented.

"It's very nice to be gaining instead of losing a ball player for a change. We've lost four fullbacks within the last two years and I hope Jay can make up for some of those losses."

Ironically enough, each of the four fullback's the Caps heve lost left when their families moved out of town.

McClellan wes the only junior on the Georgia All-Stata team last year and mede it as a center. However, his first love is fullbeck.

"I worked at fullback during spring practice and that's where I would like to play," he said. "I weighed 215 pounds when I played center but I've taken off about 10. That should help me move around better at fullback."

Besides making the All-State team, McClellan was on the Greater Atlanta All-Star squad and the All-City team. He was also selected as Lineman of the Week on one occassion. Jay has two varsity years of experience behind him.

Greensboro, Raleigh To Meet at Riddick Tonight

By JOE TIEDE.

Greensboro and Raleigh, a pair of rivals who annually finish no more then a point apart, get together once more in the football opener for both teams tonight.

The game marks the Caps' return to Riddick Stadium after a lapse of several years. Kickoff is at 8 o'clock.

As usual there appears little to choose between the two teams who make a habit of playing each other the first game of the season. On the premise that Raleigh's losses from last year were more serious, however, Greensboro might be given an edge.

Tight Series.

This will be the fourth year Cap coach Clyde Walker has sent a team against the Whirlies and he has yet to lose. The series couldn't have been closer, however. The first two ended in scoreless ties and Raleigh came from behind for a 14-13 victory last season.

Greensboro expects to make a serious bid for the Western AAA title this year with a big line and a talented backfield. Coach Bob Jamieson is hoping the correction of defensive deficiencies will make the Whirlies an improved club.

The Caps, 8-2 a year ago, appear to have some fine talent as usual. But coach Walker isn't entirely satisfied with a somewhat inexperienced line. Only Bob Baird, shifted from guard to tackle, was a starter last year. The backfield looks potent headed by an All-Georgia transfer, fullback Jay McClellan.

Greensboro can be expected to break out in a double-wing on occasion and last year gave the Caps the fits with this formation. However, the Whirlies this time are blessed with fine T-quarterbacking from Bob Jamieson Jr. and Bill Swofford. Both, by the way, stay in the game regardless of who's calling plays. The other goes to fullback.

New Quarterback.

The Whirlies are three-deep at both halfbacks, with Barry Morgan and Pete Stout running on the first team.

Raleigh's backfield has been no problem thus far. Billy Merritt, a 6-3, 180-pounder who was ineligible last season, has taken over at quarterback. The 200-pound McClellan provides power at fullback while veterans David Poole and captain Johnny Wardlaw are highly regarded halfbacks.

Four lettermen will start up front for the Caps but the bulk of the first two lines is inexperienced. Probable starters are Ennis Smedes York and Joe Webb, tackles Burt Crumpler and Baird, guards Joe Mangum and Bill Godwin, center Bob Shearin.

Letterman center Simon Ditson will miss the contest because of injury. End Gary Meyer, figured as a starter, will dress but he hasn't played any since a knee injury two weeks ago. York, hampered by a back ailment, is also a question-mark.

By JOE TIEDE.

Raleigh's Caps closed their season with a sixth straight victory at Devereux Meadow last night but their 9-7 decision over Rocky Mount was the toughest of the six.

Shackled most of the game by a rugged Blackbird line, the Caps spring halfback Johnny Wardlaw loose for two long runs in the third period. The second one was good for 23 yards and a touchdown which overcame a 7-2 Rocky Mount lead.

Raleigh got its first two points on a safety in the final minute of the first half.

The rest of the time Rocky Mount dominated play although it was able to score only once.

Trailing 2-0 at halftime, the Blackbirds stormed 69 yards after the third quarter kickoff. Fullback Jimmy Mooring, a 197-pounder who pounded the Raleigh tackle spots unmercifully all night, carried the last six yards.

That touchdown stung the Caps into their only effective offensive gesture of the ball game. The two runs by Wardlaw, both on trap plays, did most of the damage.

CORSAGES . . . CARS . . . SPONSORS . . . parades . . . With all these things to prepare, Bobby Soden has been a busy Senior this week. He is chairman for all the Homecoming festivities. The sponsors have been chosen, the floats are in the making, half-time preparations are almost completed, and the flowers are ready to be turned into corsages.

This afternoon is the parade where the sponsors will be seen riding through town on the backs of convertibles — Mary Lou Dorris, Nancy Edwards, Edwina Hardy, Kay Talton, Johnsye Massenburg, and Sue Little are the beauties that were chosen by the "beasts." Tonight they will be presented to the public at the half-time ceremonies.

Homecoming Really Great

Ginger Reynolds

If any of you all were at the open houses after homecoming then I'm sure you heard the same remarks about it:

Susan Kirk said, "I thought it was very good although we needed something after the game in honor of the Goldsboro team, their supporters, and their managers. I liked having it at Devereaux Meadow because it seemed to bring the school close together."

Bettie White said, "I think we should have had a pep rally although the spirit was high without it. I loved the parade and game. Especially since we won."

I doubt if many of you asked the Goldsboro kids what they thought but I did and:

Carol Turner said, "You all really did a good job. Your homecoming was great. My impression was that you really did a lot of organizing. My only regret is that Goldsboro didn't win!"

Jane Ward said, "The open houses afterwards were a lot of fun. It's a good way to let off extra pep. You all were great."

These girls attended a slumber party that Mary Ann Johnson gave Friday night. Jane was the chairman of her room's homecoming float in Goldsboro.

Johnny Wardlaw Sparks 26-6 Raleigh Win Over Burlington

By JOE TIEDE.

Burlington couldn't catch up with fleet halfback Johnny Wardlaw often enough Friday night at Devereux Meadow and as a result took a 26-6 beating from Raleigh's Caps.

Wardlaw, 145-pound team captain, showed his heels to the Bulldogs three times in the first half as Raleigh grabbed a 20-0 lead. For the game he gained 194 yards in 14 carries, most of them sweeps around left end.

The Caps, moving over .500 with their fourth win against three defeats, had the ball four times in the first half and scored on three occasions. Each time it was Wardlaw on runs of 57, 38, and 16 yards.

The Bulldogs from the Central Conference startled the Caps with a 75-yard burst by fullback Phil Deaton on the first play of the third period. Wardlaw had a shot from behind inside the 15 but Deaton stumbled into the end zone for six points.

Boxley Goes Over.

Raleigh came back later in the period on an 18-yard run by quarterback Max Boxley for the final touchdown.

The Caps wasted little time posting a score. After the kickoff they moved 14 yards in four plays, bringing up a second and 1 even at their 43. Wardlaw then turned left end, swung to the right as he moved through the secondary and outsped the defenders into the end zone.

CONCENTRATE NOW: What do you expect to be your happiest memories from high school? Does the last football game fit into this list?

Well, for many senior gals and guys this Friday night will live for a long time in their memories. The last football game is a milestone for the graduating team members and cheerleaders, but how about all those energetic folks in the stands who have followed the Caps since the eighth-grade days when games were played at State? These loyal fans have many very happy thoughts, but they have to remember that the next Raleigh team that plays on the football field will include none of the boys from the Class of '59!

Last Kicks- seniors a Broughton, tonight's football game will be a sad one - regardless of the score. It's the last of the season. Andy Brown kicks while John Daniels, Mary Byrum, Cabell Robb and Bod Soden watch.

Bounteous giver hear our praise
For within they walls, we've garnered
Gifts enriching all our days;
opportunity for friendship,
Guidance in our quest for truth
Faith through all our grave endeavor,
Understanding love of youth.
These our gifts, O Alma Mater,
We shall cherish through the days,
Striving still through high endeavor
Thus to render thee one praise.

Dear Broughton We leave thee.
We pray you take care -
Look forward tomorrow,
We'll remember you there.

You have kindled our future.
Through our joys and tears -
You have banished our sorrows,
Filled our highest of dreams.
Faith and hope for tomorrow,
Guidance through the years.

Thee, our Alma Mater,
We shall cherish they name.
Thy strength, our ambitions -
Crowned with honor and fame.

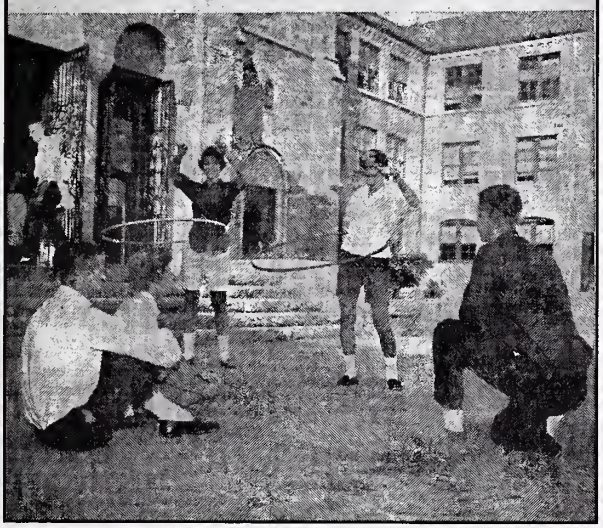

Courage, through our endeavors.
Striving still to praise,
Hold our memories within you,
Cherish these all your days.

Do You Have Seventh Period Fatigue?

By the time seventh period comes, both the teachers and the students are dead tired. But did you ever stop to realize that your teachers have already come in contact with four times as many people as you have today? She has been standing for five periods and in most cases she has been talking almost continuously. When you go into seventh period class you think, "Oh Boy! school is almost out." Just one more period. But your teacher is trying frantically to hold your attention for just one more class. She might become somewhat touchy, but after all, you were talking; or she may seem stricter than usual, but you didn't get your homework in. These are a few good examples of what a teacher has to go through. By the time seventh period comes, her troubles are multiplied after hearing the same excuses time-after-time during the day. Tomorrow when you go into your seventh period class, smile, be courteous and attentive, and you will find that your teacher is more human than you thought.

Beware of the Rotor

Cliff Benson says: "My most thrilling event while at the N. C. State Fair this year took place on the ride known as the rotor. It is designed for brave people, or dumb ones. I, or the later, ventured on that ride out of sheer curiosity.

"Centrifugal force can do marvelous things. It can even hold one up against a wall. While in a cylinder, spinning at a high rate of speed with my hands at my side, I suddenly saw the floor being removed from under my feet. I began to worry a little and I tried to find something to hold on to. When I saw the floor coming back up, I was a relieved man. I was a little shook up, but out of all the rides, I enjoyed this the best."

Linda Cromley says: "The room began to spin around and around. Slowly the floor dropped beneath us and we were suspended to the wall, not being able to move a muscle, not holding to anything. We felt ourselves slipping down the wall to the abyss below, little by little and there was nothing to grasp to prevent the slipping. A weird feeling overcame our bodies. After a few seconds, the floor was felt under our feet again and the room slowed down to a dead stop and we walked out of the room, down some more steps, finally to put our feet on the ground."

Juniors and Seniors Attend As Honor Society Inducts 24

On Wednesday, October 22, the annual fall induction of the National Honor Society was held in the auditorium of Needham Broughton High School. The new members are Seniors, Willard Barbee, Scott Bowers, Buck Champion, Buddy Crumpler, Johnny Daniel, Simon Dixon, Barry Frazelle, Bob Martin, Peggy Matrone, Edith Olive, Betty Parker, Betsy Poe, Bill Price, Judy Swain and Bob Self.

After the traditional processional down the aisle by the members of the Honor Society, Carol Williams had the devotional. This was followed by the Ensemble's singing of "The Lords' Prayer."

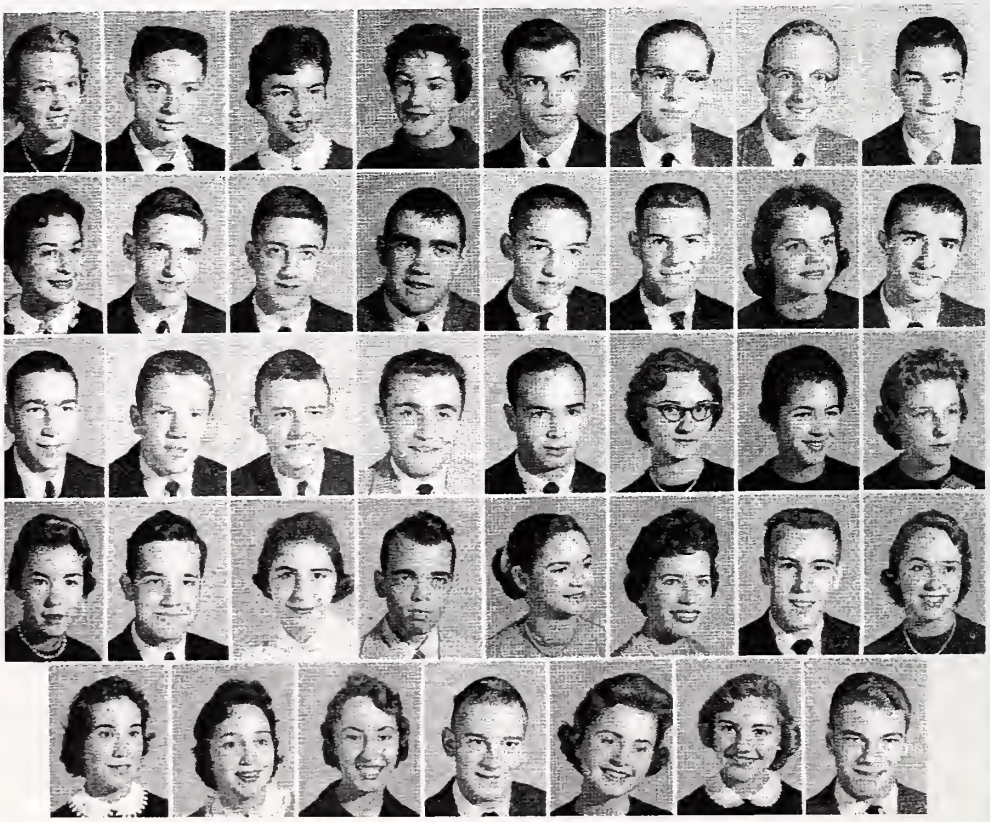

President Stanton Tuttle then made a speech explaining the purposes of the National Honor Society. Following was the lighting of the four candles which represent the characteristics required for membership. The candles of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service were lit and briefly explained by John Cameron, Annette Gill, Mac Goodwin, and Don Carmichael respectively. The Ensemble sang "Thy Word is the Light."

The fourteen seniors and ten juniors who were recognized for their high academic standings were tapped by Bobby Soden and Betsy Smith. As each one was tapped, he stood in front of a large Honor Society emblem while George Lothian read a suitable quote about each one. After the tapping was completed, the president led the recital of the pledge; and Linda Shirley read the poem, "Hold High the Torch." The Ensemble's singing of the Benediction completed the fall induction of the Honor Society.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

INDUCTED INTO THE National Honor Society were 25 new members during an impressive ceremony at a Broughton student assembly on Wednesday. Among seniors tapped were Willard Barbee, Scott Bowers, Buck Champion, Buddy Crumpler, Johnny Daniels, Simon Dixon, Barry Frazelle, Bob Martin, Peggy Matrone, Edith Olive, Betty Parker, Bill Price, and Judy Swain. Bob Self, a homebound student, was inducted as an honorary member.

Today was a big day for thirteen deserving juniors and seniors at Broughton High School. In one of the most impressive assemblies of the school year, six juniors and seven seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. The honorees are: Seniors: Earl Brian, Paul Humpherys, Rella Jean Lancaster, Marie Overby, Andy Rogers, Kay Shaw, and Sandra Strickland, and Juniors: Carolyn Bishop, Carol Coxe, Julia Davis, Linwood Lawton, James Self, and Francene Wilkerson.

A processional of the 39 black-robed members opened the ten o'clock program. Betty Parker led the devotional, which was closed by the singing of the "Lord's Prayer" by the Choral Ensemble. President Stanton Tuttle addressed the student body, giving the purposes of the Honor Society. Next the four requirements for membership were presented. Susan Blount spoke on scholarship; Robert Ho-

Annie Lee McLeod had moved to Durham and her parents were out of town ... soooo each of us-Cary Oliver Rogers, Gail McClamroch, Janis Houston and Linda Bradshaw told our parents we were staying with one another. Off we went, feeling so cleaver! We arrived and started to drag out all of Annie Lea's mother's libations. ( There wasn't any hard stuff.) The music was up and we were partying! The phone rang - I remember C.O. answering and saying that the housekeeper, Vella, had just stepped out. It seemed Janis Houston's mother had heard an ambulance siren, so of course she thought it could have been her darling in trouble. Mrs. Houston called whoever Janis had said she was staying with ... so all the parents called around, figured it out and we were BUSTED! The Houston's came over to pick us up, but couldn't find the house. After the rode around for about an hour they just got madder and madder. Not one word was spoken on the way home. Today - that

Andy Brown Has Title Roll; Time: 8 o'clock; Place: Auditorium

An octopus (alive), a mummy case, and a lunatic murderess — a strange combination, but they are part of a mixture of "things" that result in "The Man Who Came to Dinner." Tonight at 8 o'clock curtains will rise on the first act of a dramatic masterpiece which has been in preparation many weeks.

Andy Brown has the title role. He is ably supported by Carolyn L. Smith, Graig Springer, Rose Jones, Bernice Bazemore, George Batts, Priscilla Wright, Kathie Carter, Dan Hartman, Michelle La Borwitt, James Dupree, Linda Haley, Bill Abrams, Pete Nichols, and P. T. Rideout, and 10,000 roaches.

Marie Overby and Mrs. Nan Price are directing the actresses and actors. They have showed Andy how to break his leg so that he can be "the man who came," directed convicts to the Stanley household, let loose bugs in the cellar, prompted the secretary to fall in love, and have thrown in mystery and humor with the acting skills.

While actors memorized lines and the directors tore out their hair, Nan Ragan, Clifton Coltrain, Skip Palna, Vickie King, Nancy Lipford, Jane Johnston, George Batts, Carl Olle, P. T. Rideout, Cynthia Poole, and Carolyn Jones have publicized, collected props, painted flats, applied make-up, and fixed costumes in preparation for the big event.

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the Broughton auditorium the Little Theatre of the school will present to students for 35 cents and to adults for 50 cents "The Man Who Came to Dinner."

CAGE HOPEFULS START PRACTICE

On October 20, a multitude of basketball players descended upon Broughton's gymnasium, inspired by the hope of obtaining a spot on one of the two basketball teams of Broughton's varsity for juniors and seniors, and the junior varsity for sophomores. The greater portion of this group was from the sophomore class from which one of the largest turnouts in a long time has come. The two squads each will be cut down to approximately fifteen players.

The varsity Caps, coached by athletic director Carroll King, have a fairly experienced contingent of "hoopsters" returning from last year's fine team although no starters of last year's team are among this group. Lettermen heading this group are forwards Scott Bowers and Bobby Mayton, center Smedes York, and guards Bobby Soden and Bobby Edgerton. Members of the '57-'58 team who are also eligible to play this year are Forney Holler, Barry Benson, and Joe Webb. The Caps also will be bolstered by some fine prospects off last years jayvee team. Leading this contingent are Jimmy Brickhouse, Bryant Tudor, and Johnny Bogle. This year's junior varsity squad with Bert Brantley as mentor will probably be exceptionally strong. It will be mainly composed of boys who played on the strong junior high teams of Daniels and Morson last year. Leading prospects for this team are Ray Kees, Morris Knight, and Jimmy Rowland.

Cagers to Move to Arena For Home Contests

Athletic Director Carroll King has announced that all home games for the 1958-1959 basketball season will be played in the State Fair Arena. The Caps had scheduled this year's games in hopes that the new gym would be completed for this season, but construction has fallen behind and the gym will not be ready.

Raleigh moves to the Arena because the seating capacity of the present gym is far below normal and the seats are not considered safe for a large crowd. In general the cracker-box gym is inadequate.

Season tickets will be sold through the Raleigh Boosters Club.

Reserved season tickets in the center section will be $5.00 and the season tickets for students $2.00. Individual tickets can be bought at the school for $.50 whereas at the gate they will cost $.75 and center section tickets at the gate $1.00.

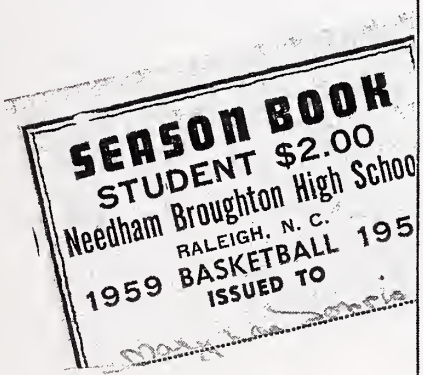

Why not get your parents to buy the student season ticket as a Christmas gift? Certainly no one can beat the price of $2.00 for the eight home games. Lets all Support Operation Spirit in its goal of 1,000 advance student tickets.

Drop Second Decision to High Point

Caps Still After First Victory In Game With Lynchburg Tonight

HIGH POINT — Looking for better luck at Greensboro than they found here last night, the Raleigh Caps moved over to the Gate City tonight for a game with Lynchburg, Va.

Still looking for their first victory of the season following last night's 57-54 loss to High Point, the Caps take on the Virginians in the first game of a doubleheader. Greensboro plays Durham in the nightcap.

The Caps were a different ball club here last night than the one that played poorly and lost to Burlington in the season opener.

The first victory seemed almost in tho bag in the late minutes of play but the Tom Burton-led Bison charged from behind with a sudden shooting surge.

Raleigh led most of the way in the close game. The Caps took an 16-13 lead in the first period but the Bison cut this to only three points, 33-30, at the end of the first half.

The Caps, playing without the services of center Smedes York who is still recovering from a knee injury, started the second half just like they started the game—with deadly shooting—and had increased the lead to 47-41 by the end of the third quarter.

Forward Bobby Mayton was doing most of the scoring with help from guard Bobby Edgerton. Mayton led the Caps and was only one point behind the games high scorer, Burton, with 1. Mayton padded his total by dropping nine of 13 free throw attempts.

Edgerton contributed 10 points, hitting five field goals. Scott Bowers had nine points and Forney Holler and Bobby Soden hit for six each.

High Point, never able to claim the lead made its move with one minute to go in the game.

Burton hit on a jump shot with 1:02 remaining to erase Raleigh's lead and give it, 53-52, to the Bison.

Burton followed his field goal with a pair of charity tosses to make the count, 55-52. Mayton then scored a pair of free throws with three seconds left in the game to cut the margin to one point.

Pint-sized guard Charlie McPherson wrapped the game up for High Point when he was fouled as the Bison put the ball in play and made both tries.

Bob Soden 34, Raleigh Guard, out-jumps Goldsboro's Bobby O'Daniel for a rebound. No. 42 is Raleigh's Bobby Mayton.

BEFORE THE BALL GAME last Friday night, Martha Still hostessed for a spaghetti supper. Betty Lou Ramseur, Susan Kilgore, Jane Todd, Sara McCorkle, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Marsha Mustard, JoAnn Winfree, Sandra Shaw, Linda Jacobs, and Mary Lou Dorris were there to enjoy the good meal, but what could it have done to Sandra and Jane to make them crawl under the table? And what on earth did Martha put in the salad dressing to make some of the girls make those phone calls? Huh?

Caps Launch League Play At Wilmington Tomorrow

By WOODY UPCHURCH
Times Sports Writer

The Raleigh Caps found that elusive first win last night and immediately the prospects of them fielding another Eastern AAA Conference challenger took on a brighter aspect.

All it took was the return of the team to top physical strength after a series of injuries to key personnel had figured heavily into three pre-holiday defeats.

Smedes York and Bobby Edgerton returned to the Raleigh lineup and were the sparks in the Caps' 61-57 conquest of the Burlington Bulldogs, a team that had beaten Raleigh by nine points before when neither of last night's high scorers was able to play.

York pumped in 13 points but it was the steady shooting of Edgerton that highlighted the home opener for the Caps. The senior guard fired in 20 points

Frankly Speaking

By FRANK SMITH

After playing in spurts for most of the season, the Broughton five has finally found themselves. Fighting like tigers off the board and handling the ball as smooth as a foreign sports car, the Cappers wiped the Cow Palace floor with Bulldog blood as they slaughtered Durham last weekend. Durham, one of the best teams in the state and second in the Eastern Conference, was run off the court by hustle, determination and the superb play by the reserves. In the State Tournament every year since it was started, the Caps barely did make it this time as they presently occupy the fourth slot in the standings. This fourth place finish will not give the Caps their usual role of favorite, but there is little doubt that they won't give someone a battle as the underdog of the tournament.

The tankers, defending State Champions, will defend their title this weekend in Chapel Hill where the State Swimming Meet is being held.

The ever present problem of depth hits Coach Clyde Walker in the face as he starts track practice. Returning lettermen pounding the cinders this year will be speedsters Scott Bowers, Ivan Jones, Charles Little, Bob Martin, David Poole, Bugg Berryhill and the versatile iron horses Joe Webb and Johnny Wardlaw.

Under the leadership of Coach Bert Brantley and his able assistant Doc Dickinson, the Broughton baseball team should have another fine season. The Caps, short on experience and longe on potential, will come through with the help of some non-lettermen. The pitching staff will be headed by veteran Sheriff Pleasants. In the infield it's lettermen Joe Mangum and the smooth as silk Robert Hocutt, while tending the outer pastures is the powerful three-year veteran Johnny Daniel.

GO CAPS!

CAPS UPSET BULLDOGS 69-43

In one of the biggest upsets of the year in the Eastern Triple-A Conference, the Raleigh Caps thrashed the highly touted Bulldogs of Durham by the very impressive score of 69-43. The Cow Palace was the scene of this action as the Caps ran their conference record to 6-5 and assured themselves of a berth in the state tournament at Greensboro being held March 11-13.

Durham dropped in the first basket, but from then on it was all Raleigh as the Caps ran up a 26 point victory. Leading scorers for the Caps were Bobby Mayton and Bobby Edgerton with 15 points apiece. The play of the reserves was also outstanding and indicated that they should play an important part in the tournament for the Caps. Especially impressive were forwards Forney Holler and Scott Bowers who chipped in 9 and 4 points respectively.

The Caps have two more games to play after this one and then are bound for the state tournament.

Caps vs. Bulldogs - Bryant Tudor, No. 44 and No. 42 Smedes York.

Of the boys who played like crowned princes throughout the season, not enough can be said. Big Smedes York used his enlarged frame to the best ability as he brought down countless rebounds and scored needed points. Guard Bobby Edgerton, and Forward Bobby Mayton proved to be the leading point getters for the Caps, as they maintained a well rounded average. The duties of floor general was given to strong Bobby Soden and his constant driving and leading the fast break did the Caps much good.

HATS OFF

To the Editor:

Just what is the Booster's Club? Who belongs to it? What is its purpose? These are some questions that might be asked concerning this club.

The Booster's Club was started several years ago by Mr. Wisner Chamblee. A citizen who buys a season ticket to the Raleigh High games becames a member. The purpose of the club is to create more interest in Raleigh's sports activities.

Each year a banquet is held in order to elect officers. These are a president, a vice-president, secretary, and a treasurer. Mr. Benson is the presiding president this year.

So, hats off to the Booster's club for their support and interest in Broughton High School.

The Future Homemakers of America sponsored the first dance of the 1958-59 school year on Friday evening, November 14. Moonlight and roses was the theme for the dance and the gymnasium was the scene of a colonial garden with a fountain and crescent moon.

The figure organized by Jo Anne Allen and Ruth Brown was held at nine o'clock with the chapter officers and unit presidents participating. Miss Shealy was recognized during the figure and given a bouquet of red and white carnations. As the officers were introduced they walked through a trestle woven with roses and ivy.

Panthea Gupton was in charge of the decorations. The punch bowl was made by freezing long stem roses in ice with green punch. Nancy Edwards was chairman of the refreshments committee. Susie Astin, overall chairman, was helped by Carol Coxe, Nan Zeigler, and Myrtle Weaver. Miss Shealey is advisor for the club.

Basketball Season Nears Commencement

The prospects of the Raleigh Caps' basketball team in the season 1958-59 will to some extent be determined at Burlington where the Caps begin their difficult schedule on December 5. The team has the potential for an excellent team. Ability blended with experience are the key compositions of this team. Five lettermen, Bobby Mayton, Scott Bowers, Smedes York, Bobby Soden, and Bobby Edgerton, supply the majority of experience while each member on this team is outstanding in some facet of play, whether it be shooting, rebounding, defense, or handling of the ball. Besides possessing a fine starting lineup, this team will most likely have an adequate number of good players in reserve. These three qualities, ability, experience, and reserve strength, make the prospects of Raleigh's 1958-59 basketball team look exceptionally good.

On Saturday at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m., Ellisberg's will sponsor a fashion show especially for teens.

In New York this week, fashion editors are concentrating on clothes for adults, but young women will be featured in Saturday's "Kay Junior Carousel Fashion Show."

Commentator will be Shelia Cole, writer and producer of television films. She was once managing editor of the American News Weekly in Paris.

Models for the show include Miss Virginia Shavender, Miss Johnsye Massenburg, Miss Mary Lou Davis, Miss Nancy Edwards, Miss Connie Pearce, Miss Kay Jones and Miss Diane Farlow.

Door prizes will be given at each showing.

Who Dreamed of a White Christmas Like the One in Raleigh in December 1958

First Snow Causes Schools to Close

Holidays? No school! Not a student or teacher answered roll call on December 11 or 12 and Monday, 15. Mother nature took a hand. At about 6 o'clock on the morning of December 11, the snow began to fall. The temperature fell to 16 degrees. A sheet of ice made the streets impassable. Parents began to call the school, the superintendent, the radio stations. Mr. Sanderson, the superintendent, could not get a call through until after 8 o'clock to the radio stations to have them announce "no school today."

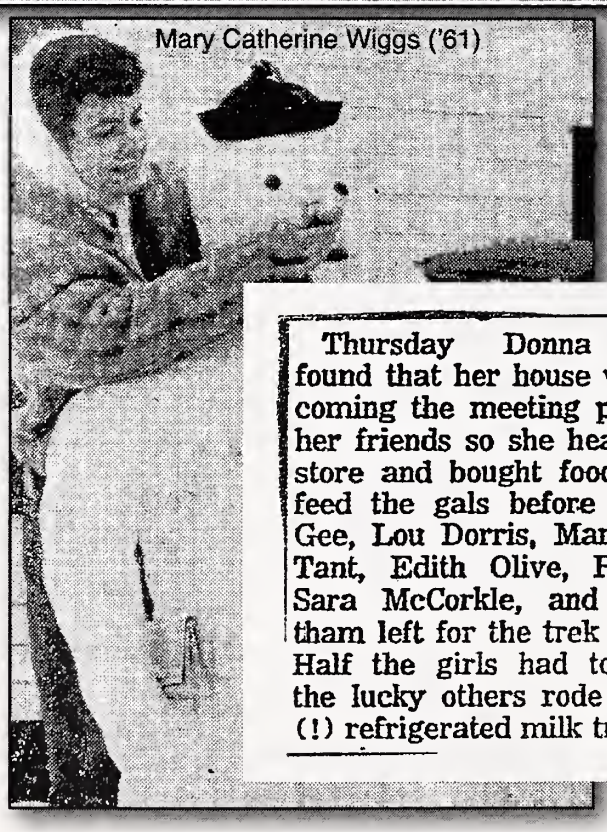

Snow continued to fall all day. Raleigh had more snow than in any December since the first World War — a total of nine inches.

What about school? Every minute had something scheduled. The last minute details of planning for Career Day were to be finished on Thursday. It was to be Friday. Career Day was cancelled.

The Y-Teens had planned a Sadie Hawkins Day dance for Friday night. It had to be cancelled.

Practice for the Christmas programs did not occur. The Monogram Club had to wait until Tuesday to get its Christmas project of collecting food and toys underway.

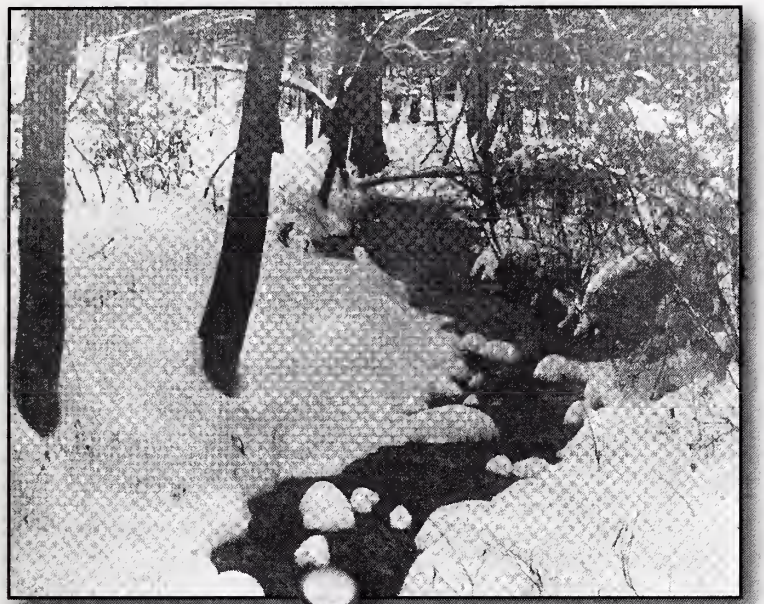

Classroom work that was planned for Thursday and Friday got underway again on Tuesday as teachers gave orders for more work than ever to be done before the Christmas holidays stop everything until 1959.

Mary Catherine Wiggs ('61)

Thursday Donna Wilkerson found that her house was fast becoming the meeting place for all her friends so she headed for the store and bought food enough to feed the gals before Jackie McGee, Lou Dorris, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Edith Olive, Rella Lanca Sara McCorkle, and Linda Latham left for the trek to the club. Half the girls had to walk, but the lucky others rode in a warm (!) refrigerated milk truck!

Student Council Sponsors Snowball Dance

Every member of the student body is invited to the annual snowball dance which is to be held tomorrow night in the gymnasium. The dance is a project of the student council.

In keeping with the cold of December and the nearness of Christmas, the ball will use as a theme winter romance and Christmas good tidings.

The dance is to be semi-formal. Simon Dixon is chairman of the decorations committee.

A Merry Christmas

A Merry Christmas to the Faculty.
To the Taxpayers of Raleigh for our new Cafeteria.
To Mr. Holliday, our boss, for everything.
To Mr. Holyfield, for his work with Career Day even if it had to be cancelled.
To Mrs. Sandlin, for her understanding of us in sickness and health.
To Mr. Butler, for his gentleness in hearing our excuses.
To Mrs. Peacock for "Romeo and Juliet" and "Hamlet."
To coach King for securing the cow palace for basketball games.
To Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Price, and Mr. Southwick for the Christmas programs.
To the janitors for a warm building on cold mornings.
To the stage crew for the beautiful sets for assembly programs.
To the artists that decorated the new cafeteria.
To the language classes that sing us Christmas carols.
To the poster committee for the ever new bulletin boards.
To the memo assistants that make our tests easier to endure.
To the home ec department for making it "smell" like Christmas.
To the student council for letting everyone have a part in running NBHS.
To the photographers for showing us what we really look like (?)
To the reporters that cover the activities of the teenagers for the city papers. They make us want to read the papers on Friday.
To the student teachers. They are a welcome addition in our quest for knowledge.
To everyone at NBHS, without each one, Christmas would not be merry.

Monogram Club Undertakes Christmas Project

Johnny Daniel, president of the Monogram Club, assured the student body that it is not too late to contribute to the annual Christmas project of collecting food, clothing and toys which is carried out by the Monogram Club. The collection of donations began Tuesday, December 16 and will end Friday, December 19. On Friday the club will distribute the donations to fifty needy families of which the Welfare Department supplied names. Food clothing and toys were collected in a bin in front of the auditorium. The money which was collected at the end of the lunch line during lunch period will be used to buy additional food for these needy families.

By taking part in this project everyone in the school was given an opportunity to express the true meaning of the Christmas season by helping those who are less fortunate than the average person. Coach Walker is the advisor for the Monogram Club.

A Sportsman's Night Before Christmas

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the gym,
Not a creature was stirring, not even "Earl Sidney."
The uniforms were hung on their racks with care,
In hopes that a winning season soon would be there.
The players were nestled all snug in their beds,
While visions of victory danced in their heads.
And "Hessie" in his kerchief and Bert in his cap
Had just settled down for a long winter's nap.
When out on the court there arose such a noise,
"T. C." sprang from his bed to check on the boys.
He streaked up the stairs as he turned on the gas,
Slipped on a towel and fell on his arm.
The moon on the crest of the new fallen snow
Gave a lustre of midday to objects below.
"Thom" scratched his dimple and what did he see
But fourteen "Cappers" in a red MG.
With a moose of a driver, with cheeks red and ruddy,
He knew in a moment that it must be "Puddy."
More rapid than "mad bats" his cagers they came.
And he whistled and shouted and called them by name . . .
Now Doobyl now Buzzard! now Hatchet and Beak!
On Snookums! on Weasel! on Bino and Brick!
He left gifts for each player,
Some big and some small,
And to little "T. C." he gave a crystal ball.
Two thing did it forecast and we hope they are true.
A State Championship for Raleigh,
And a Merry Christmas to you!

PLAN TO ATTEND QUEEN OF HEARTS DANCE

ON HIGH SCHOOL, RALEIGH, N. C., FEBRUARY 6, 1959 No. 5

Old Cafeteria Converted Into Student Lounge; From Amusement To Study Available

On Tuesday, January 20, the new Student Lounge was finally opened for the use of the students. The Student Co-operative committee of the Student Council, headed by John Cameron, has had charge of the work on the new lounge. The benches are the products of the industrial arts department. Members of this department worked on the benches during the Thanksgiving and Christmas vacations. The old kitchen has been transformed into a classroom which is used as a study hall. It is presided over by the Honor Society.

Many games such as cards, checkers, chess, and ping-pong are provided for lunch-time enjoyment. A juke box has been furnished for those who wish to dance. The television set has been placed in one corner for those who wish to watch their favorite lunch-time program. Both the juke box, which is set to play continually so that all the records can be heard, and the television set are presided over by a supervisor.

Everyone is to remain in the cafeteria or the student lounge, during lunch periods, but no one is to be in the halls.

Reggie Goodwin, Betsy Smith and Jimmy Holder try out records in the new student lounge.

Mary Lou Dorris Reigns As Queen of Hearts

On Friday 13, at an assembly for the juniors and seniors and at one for the sophomores, the Queen of Our Hearts, her Maid of Honor, and her Court were introduced to the students. Mary Lou Dorris was elected queen and Edith Olive, Maid of Honor by the senior class.

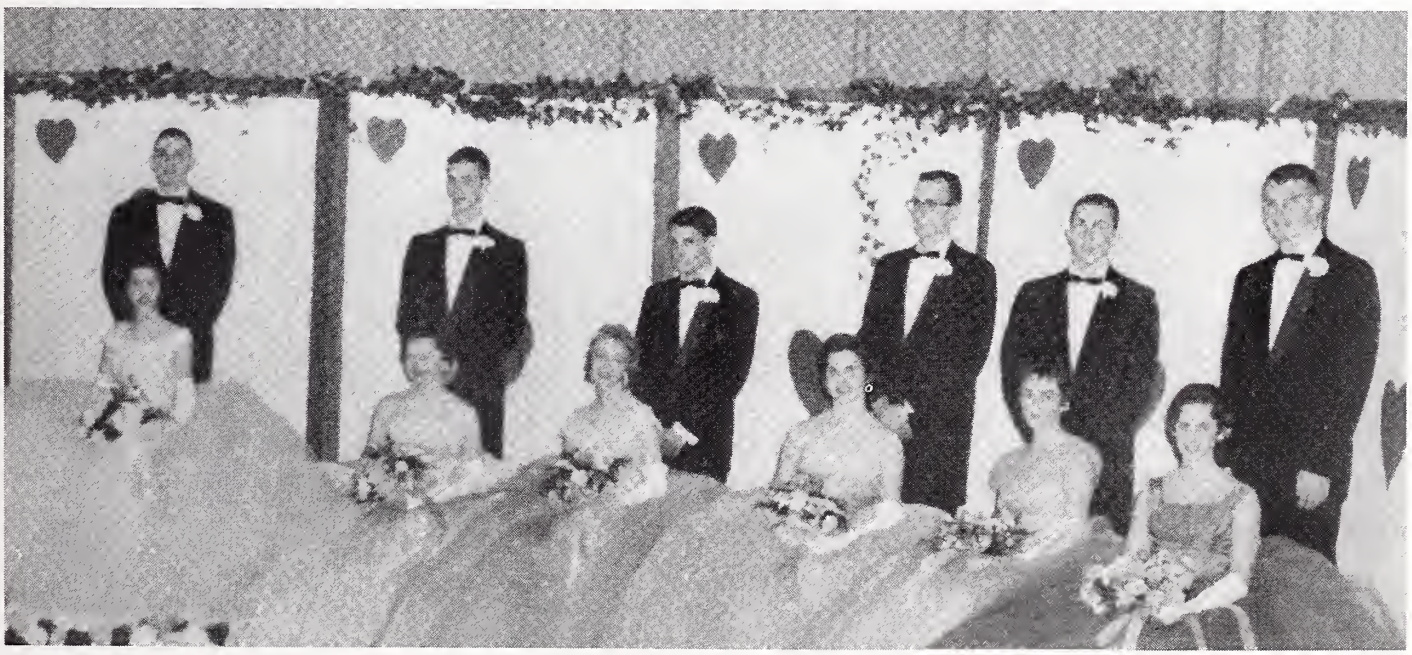

Before the program began, Clint Page, the narrator of the program introduced Vista Edwards who sang "The Lord's Prayer," as the devotional. Clint then introduced the Queen's court. From the senior class came Sis Strong, escorted by Simon Dixon; Nancy Edwards escorted by Smedes York; Donna Matthews, escorted by Alan Langston; and Sandra Strickland, escorted by Bugg Berryhill. From the junior class were Brenda Ferree, escorted by Woody Byrd; Susan Hill Blount, escorted by Robert Hocutt; and Helen Simms, escorted by Mac Boxley. From the sophomore class were Johnsey Massenburg, escorted by Charles Styron; Marsha Mustard, escorted by Ed Bailey; and Bernice Bazemore, escorted by Jim Goodman. Edith Olive and her escort Doc Dickinson, were then introduced, followed by Queen Mary Lou, escorted by the President of the Senior Class, Mac Goodwin.

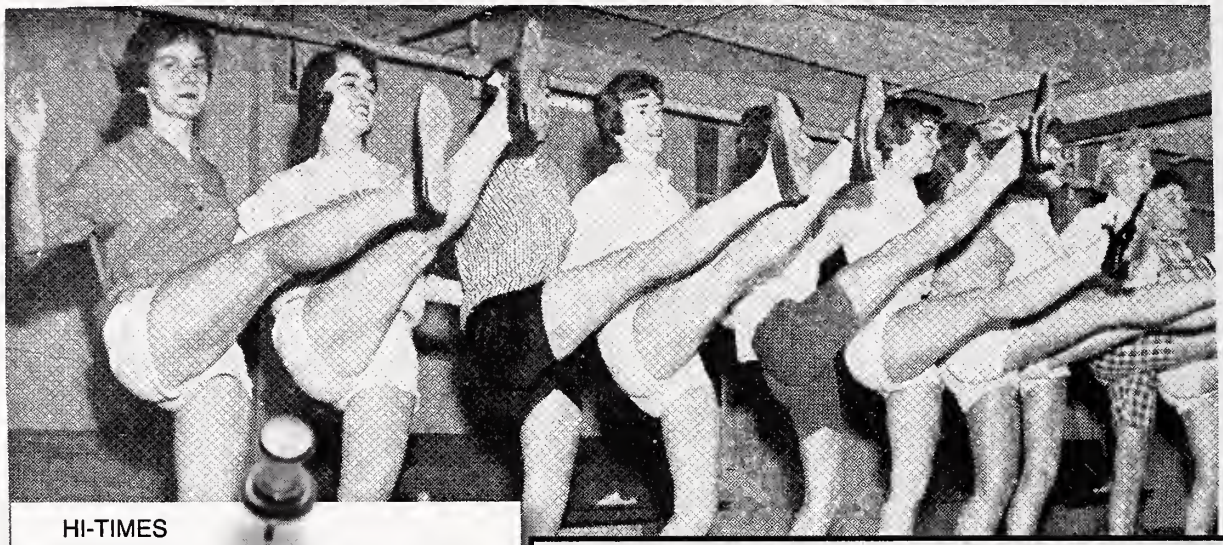

Entertainment for the occasion was provided by numerous subjects of the queen. Ken Barnes sang "Lonesometown," and accompanied himself on his guitar. Vicki Kareiva and Pat Eubanks did an Oriental dance. Betsy Smith did a flashy tap dance. Gloria Thompson sang a medley of tunes from "My Fair Lady." A quartet composed of Walter Richardson, Jimmy Barefoot, Ray Luther, and Fred Partin concluded the entertainment portion of the program by singing two songs.

The regal party and court then proceeded up the aisle and out of the auditorium to end the morning Queen of Hearts program. But Queen of Hearts festivities were not over.

16 Girls Out of 60 Picked For Kickline

February 17, tapping feet could be heard from the auditorium. This was the exciting day that many girls had waited for. Yes, this was the day for try-outs for the Hi-Y kick-line. Nearly sixty nervous girls, one by one went forth to show their talent. After each girl had performed thirty-two girls were chosen for the final try-out.

The next day, after each of the thirty-two girls had practiced till blue in the face, they tried once again to be one of the lucky girls to perform in this exciting event. This time 16 girls were chosen and they are as follows: Sandra Shaw, Carol Williams, Tudy Thomas, Marguirett Howard, Rella Lancaster, Jane Liles, Jackie McGee, Helen Simms, Pam Wilder, Elva Edwards, Peggy Moore, Sandra Estes, Ann Alford, Susie Kaye, Linda Swain, and Carolyn Smith.

HI-TIMES

On March 18, thirty-one representatives from Broughton's Future Homemakers of America attended the County F.H.A. Rally held in the auditorium of the old Wake Forest High School.

After registering, the delegates were served refreshments. Lillian Davis of the Wake Forest Chapter led the opening ceremony. The guest speaker was Mrs. Elmo Scoggins, a missionary to Israel, who spoke on "Romance in Israel."

Her speech was followed by the introduction and voting of candidates for offices for the coming year. Susan Hill Blount of Broughton won the office of secretary. The installation of new officers closed the meeting.

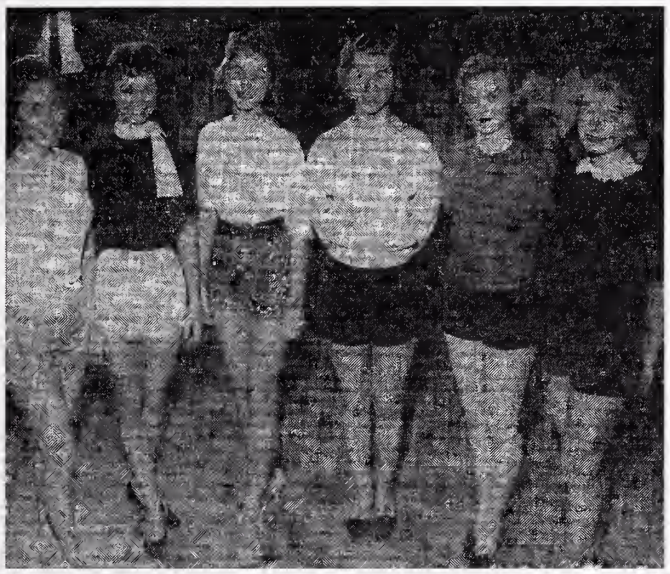

The NBHS Chapter was responsible for the ushers. Miss Betty Shealy, the advisor, accompanied the group.

DEBATE TEAM

The Needham Broughton debate team won the right to go to the district debate April 9 by defeating the Kinston negative and the Greenville affirmative last week. The district meet will be held at Meredith College. If either of the NBHS teams win that team will go on to the state contest in Chapel Hill. If the NBHS team wins this year and next, they will win the Aycock cup. The last time a Broughton team won the cup was in 1932. The topic for discussion is "Should we adopt the essential parts of the British School System?"

Next year the debate team will discuss one of these three topics: "Resolved; that section 14-b of the National Labor Relations Act should be repealed. Resolved; that the Federal government should substantially increase its regulation of labor unions. Resolved; that the Federal government should require arbitration of labor disputes in all basic industries."

Mrs. Snow, the debate advisor, is tentatively planning a debate workshop for this spring. There will be one next fall. The debate team is chosen from these workshops. All students are eligible.

Hard Worker Finds Time for Hobbies

DONNA MATTHEWS

The three-thirty bell rings, and hours later, you can probably find Donna Matthews somewhere in Broughton working awake with a paint brush or fountain pen. As a member of the Poster Committee, Student Council Representative, member of the finance committee for the senior class (and boy, does its treasury need financing), and as chairman of Career Day, Donna has few spare minutes for anything but work.

Some of her hobbies are drawing, (she can really swish a brush and paint), all sports but especially swimming, singing, dancing, and listen-to popular music. Another favorite pastime is talking and going to those ever-loving slumber parties. She can cook a good meal but prefers eating . . . any and all things. She is a vital necessity when it comes to decorating for dances for school which she loves.

Donna Matthews resides at 2809 Fowler Avenue, is 18 years old, and stands 5'3½'. She has a younger sister who is eight years old and keeps her quite busy. (She has a dog, too, and they can involve extra work).

Donna's favorite color is green. Her favorite food is vanilla ice cream. And she goes with a very nice gentleman called Monty.

After graduation from high school, Donna is going to Peace College for two years, and then on, she isn't certain. Donna is interested in secretarial practice and religious education. She is a member of Forest Hill Baptist Church.

The special thing about this neat miss is her always present smile. Cheerfulness and energy constitute a popular and outstanding teen. (When I asked for suggestions for Teenager of the Week, Donna was one of those most nominated or nominated the most, I mean). Her service is always given with a smile and the best effort that Donna has to give. Donna is a friend, companion, help, inspiration, and ideal to all those who know her.

Bowers and Martin Sparkle In Sectional Track Event

Despite poor strength in the field events, the Raleigh High track team came within one and two-tenths seconds of the final mile relay of winning the Eastern Sectional meet held at State College yesterday.

Running the relay in different heats, Durham's team made the distance in 3:38.7 to win. Raleigh was second in a time of 3:39.9.

The final count gave Durham the team victory over Raleigh 46¾ to 42¾. Durham qualified 13 men for next week's state meet at Chapel Hill and Raleigh will be represented by 11.

Although there were no team honors for Raleigh, the local harriers carted off the individual awards. Scott Bowers and Bob Martin were the individual standouts of the day.

Bowers came through in excellent style to win the hotly contested 100 yard dash in 10 seconds flat. The Raleigh dash ace went on to make it a clean sweep by taking the 220.

Martin, one of the finest track men Raleigh has had in some time, made another clean sweep by winning both the high and low hurdles.

Both Bowers and Martin will be among the favorites in their respective events at the state meet next Friday.

Durham's Bill Croom was another individual standout. He took wins in the high jump and the broad jump. He beat out Raleigh's Johnny Wardlaw in the broad jump.

Wardlaw took a win in the 440-yard run. He was among the high point man with the dash win and second place in the jump.

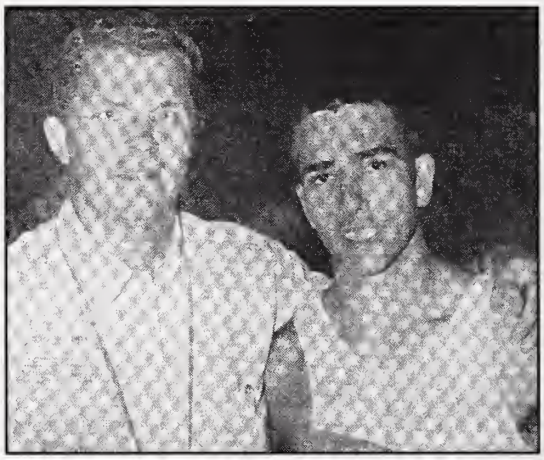

There was a four-way tie in the pole vault. Billy Peabody of Raleigh tied with Smithfield, Durham and Goldsboro entries.

Raleigh won five firsts, two seconds and had a first place tie. Durham won five firsts, four seconds and a first place tie.

The Caps' failure to offe serious challenges in suc events as the shot put, mile ru and discus was the difference.

Raleigh's Bob Martin won both hurdles events in the Eastern Sectional track meet.

Raleigh dash winner John Wardlaw, right, gets congratulations from his coach, Clyde Walker, after winning the 440 yard dash in the Eastern Sectional track meet.

Raleigh Gets 2nd Track Win

Raleigh took nine first place wins but had to scramble to defeat a well-balanced New Bern track team here yesterday, 61 2-5 to 51 3-5.

Johnny Wardlaw anchored the Caps' mile relay team in the final event and streaked home ahead of the pack to insure Raleigh of their victory on the cinders in as many starts.

Scott Bowers, Bob Martin and Wardlaw were the big Cap winners. Bowers took firsts in the 100-yard dash and the 220. Martin took wins in the high hurdles and low hurdles. Wardlaw, besides running on the relay team, won the 440 and tied for first in the pole vault.

Caps Overcome Blackbirds, 6-3

Raleigh's Needham Broughton High School broke a close game wide open in the bottom of the eighth inning here Friday by scoring three runs to defeat Rocky Mount, 6-3. The win gives Raleigh a 3-1 record and third place in conference standings.

Jimmy Rowland, despite an early game wild spree during which he walked 11 men, settled down in the last innings of the game to strike out 12 batters and go the distance for Raleigh. He also had two for two at bat, both singles, and was credited with one RBI.

Bobby Pleasants, who hit a double and two singles for four times at bat, was the leading hitter for Raleigh. He scored one run himself.

The three hits allowed by Rowland were singles. Newell, the Rocky Mount left fielder, hit for one and was credited with two RBI's.

Caps Win, 9-2, Over Cranbrook

Scoring in six of eight innings, Raleigh's Caps downed Cranbrook, 9-2, yesterday for their first win of the season.

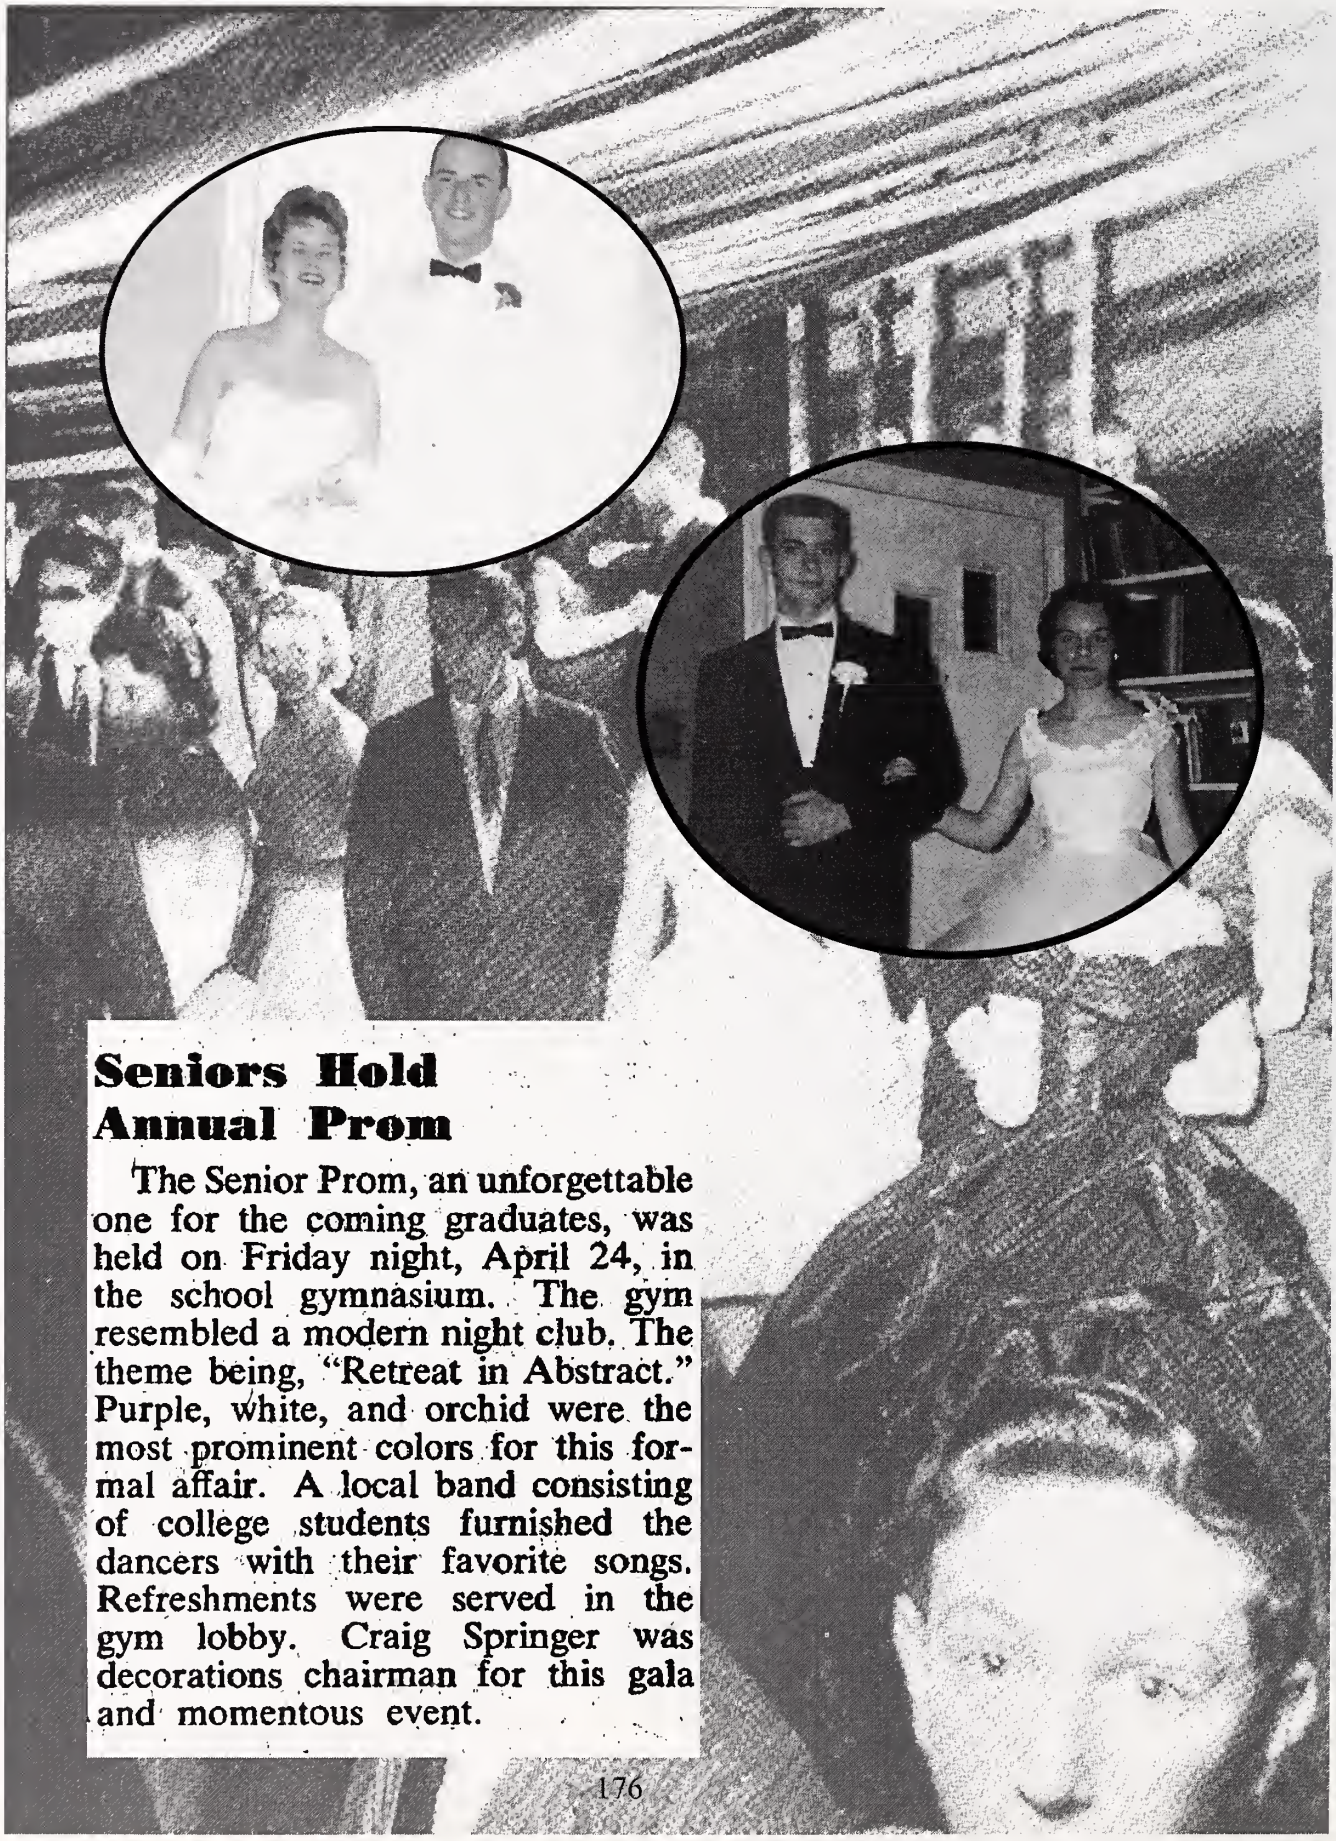

Joe Mangum, Johnny Daniel, Bobby Pleasants, and Lance Walker led an 11-hit Cap attack. Mangum had three for five, Daniel and Pleasants had two for four, and Walker got two out of five.

Senior righthander Riley Pleasants went the distance, allowing just five hits. Three of them came in the seventh when the Michigan school scored both its runs. Pleasants struck out five and walked only one.

Raleigh, now 1-2, begins its Eastern AAA Conference schedule Friday when it goes to Fayetteville.

Seniors Hold Annual Prom

The Senior Prom, an unforgettable one for the coming graduates, was held on Friday night, April 24, in the school gymnasium. The gym resembled a modern night club. The theme being, "Retreat in Abstract." Purple, white, and orchid were the most prominent colors for this formal affair. A local band consisting of college students furnished the dancers with their favorite songs. Refreshments were served in the gym lobby. Craig Springer was decorations chairman for this gala and momentous event.

Raleigh Report Card

Broughton Youths Head for NY

By CAROLYN BISHOP
Times Reporter

Eighteen Broughton students, accompanied by Miss Laura Helen Paschal and Mrs. Alice Ehrlich, will leave Raleigh Tuesday night for New York City.

Barry Benson, Helen Broewn, Linda Cromley, Sandra Estes, Dottie Hicks, Susan Kilgore, Rella Lancaster, Emily Lloyd, Mark Lynch, Peggy Pitser, Betty Poole, Jeanne Poole, Sarah Shepherd, Sally Ann Smith, Fleming Straughn, John Taylor, Mary Lou Willett, and Martha Thomas will represent Broughton at the annual press conference for high school students sponsored by Columbia University.

Besides attending the conference, the group, composed of art and journalism students, will visit the many places of interest in and around the city.

Summer School

Senior, junior and sophomor class meetings were held last week. At each, Principal Joe Holliday explained the summer school program that will be carried out at Broughton this summer.

Not only remedial courses will be offered. More interested students have an opportunity to take subjects, such as advanced biology, advanced chemistry, and the third year of a language, that will give them a more specialized education in these fields. World history and plane geometry, for example, will be taught to any interested persons. Typing, mechanical drawing and driver education will also be taught.

An application blank for summer school must be turned in by March 16. Preliminary registration is June 9. The school begins June 10 and closes July 22. Classes will start at 8 a.m. and end at 1 p.m.

The Band Plays

The Symphonic Band, under the direction of Richard Southwick, presented its annual spring concert Thursday night.

Seniors's Favorite Hangout

In the poll of Seniors a few places (the L & M, the Profile, and the beach) took top billing as the most favorite spot to stop. A few of the nonconformists, however, had original hangouts—for example:

Emily Lloyd—Swain's at a certain time each day.

Bill Johnston—Any golf course (at night?)

Jerry Liles—N. O. Y. B.

Mark Boone—the Pits.

Hanna Blalock—the bathtub.

Clarissa Joyce—Y. O. S. (?)

Andy Rogers—next to his Hi-Fi.

Jean Shimer—a peace in the sun.

Bobby Tomlinson—The Hanging Tree.

Frank Smith — Art Museum (huh?)

Sarah Shepherd—Bed.

Linda Shirley — Hee-hee, -hoo, haa, haa!

Carl Stroupe — Brown-Wynne Funeral Home.

Ann Swindell—I don't.

Cabot Gupton — where there's food.

Joan Williams—I'll never tell.

Bitsy Wingfield—Poolroom.

Janet Brinkley—Who has time to hang out?

Betty Parker—It burned down!

Vista Edwards—March 21, 1959—I received two musical awards in the same day in two different states.

Charlie Nelson—When I ran into Miss Strother on the wrong stairs.

Mary Lou Dorris—When I was elected Queen of Hearts.

Sandra Palmer—First time I was caught by "the Shore Patrol."

Jimmy Rogers—Starting the hex movement with Bobby Shinn.

Leon Barker—Leaving this school.

Tom Brookins — The day Mr. Butler told me to straighten up and fly right.

Buggs Berryhill — Falling down the seats of my Rambler.

Mark Dennis—9:30 p.m., April 3, 1959.

W. C. Haynes—Getting symphonic band letter.

Renee Aguirre — Shooting for basket in Student Faculty Game.

Kay Wood—Graduation.

Jannett Hicks—The day I received my class ring.

Andy Rogers—Several shafts.

Dow Pender—Four wheel drifts in the parking lot.

Jane Todd—My first day here—I walked into Boys' shop class.

Remember that caps and gowns are ceremonial attire and are to be worn accordingly. The only occasions for wearing them are: (1) Senior picture (2) Baccalaureate Sermon (3) Class day and night program (4) Senior assembly (5) Graduation (6) Church Programs

At all other times they should be carried in a box provided for that purpose including coming to and returning home from school. Remember it takes only one person to cause a negative impression. Remember you are responsible for yourself and your class. Please take care of the box also as the gowns have to be returned in these boxes.

Girls do not remove caps at any time during the baccalaureate or graduation exercises. All boys remove caps simultaneously whenever a prayer is being offered. The cap should be removed with the left hand. Boys remove their caps when receiving their diploma: the diploma is received with the right hand. After receiving diploma, do not replace cap until seated.

The tassel is worn over the right eye; pin it in place. The point of the cap crown is worn to the rear. The cap at all times should be worn parallel to the ground. It is suggested that the girls wear dark shoes and very light-weight clothing. Boys should wear white shirts and dark ties. No coats should be worn due to the heat. Dark shoes and trousers should be worn if possible.

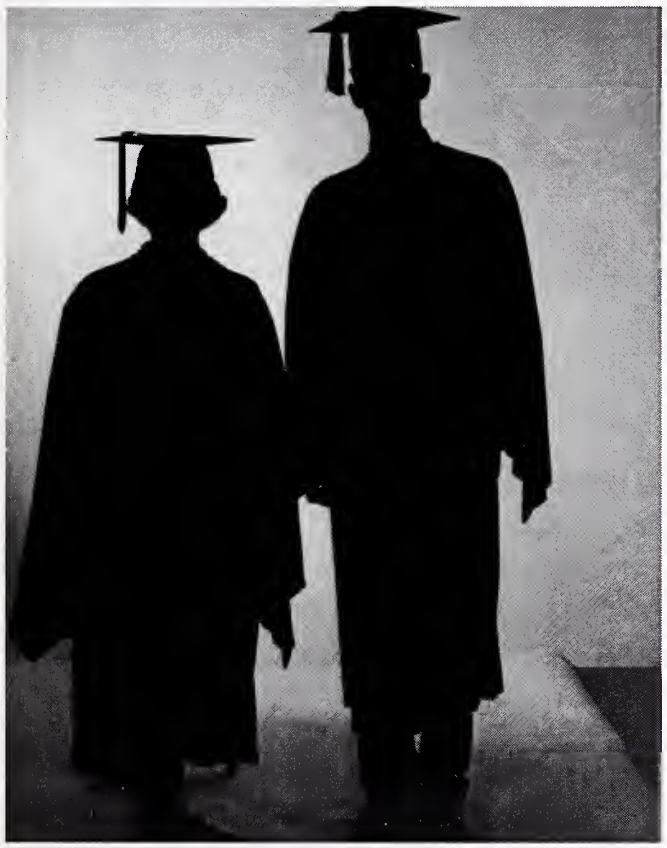

Should a comment be necessary about chewing gum????????

THIS IS YOUR GRADUATION. IN ORDER FOR IT TO BE THE MOST HAPPY OCCASION POSSIBLE EVERY SENIOR MUST COOPERATE 100%. THE TEACHERS WHO ARE HELPING WILL DO THEIR PART. THE REST IS UP TO YOU. ALL SENIORS ARE TO BE AT SCHOOL AT ALL TIMES UNLESS DISMISSED FOR SOME SPECIFIC PURPOSE. SENIORS WHO WILL NOT GRADUATE ON JUNE 5th WILL NOT PARTICIPATE IN THESE FESTIVITIES.

Most Embarrassing Moment

1. Annette Gill — My campaign speech this year.
2. Waymoth Overby—The time a girl told me my pants were torn in the seat.
3. Lib Hodges—Walking into the little boy room.
4. Johnny Daniel—Coming to school on Easter Monday.
5. Sally Derr—The day my crinaline fell down in the cafeteria.
6. Joe Johnson—The day I hit Miss Strother with a piece of chalk.
7. Janet Brinkley—Being stopped by a cop in driver's education.
8. Nancy Britt—When Mrs. Shore caught me writing love letters in Biology.
9. Sarah Collins—The day I went to gym 3rd period and was supposed to be in typing and got dressed before I discovered it.
10. Kay Cheves—Falling down at the first football game while singing "Cheer Raleigh High School."
11. Peggy Wood—The day I went out of gym with my dress unzipped.
12. Betsy Adams — The day Mr. Blakeway's Class sang a song to me.
13. Yvonne Goss—Being late for my classes the first day at school.
14. George Bryan—The day Franklin Smith threw a brick at me in Physics class.
15. Carolyn Sellers—The day my book fell out of the window into the court.

Lead on, O King Eternal

Lead on, O King Eternal, The day of march has come,
Hence-forth in fields of conquest Thy tents shall be our home:
Through days of preparation Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal, We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal, Till sin's fierce war shall cease,
And Holiness shall whisper The sweet Amen of peace;
For not with swords' loud clashing, Nor roll of stirring drums,
With deeds of love and mercy, The heavenly Kingdom comes.

Lead on, O King Eternal: We follow, not with fears;
For gladness breaks like morning Where'er Thy face appears;
Thy cross is lifted o'er us, We journey in its light:
The crown awaits the conquest; Lead on, O God of might. Amen.

—Henry Smart

"WHAT IS BROUGHTON"

I am a building—stone, brick, and steel.
I am classrooms bounded by walls and blackboards—yellow, beige, and green.
I am a library—shelf upon shelf, and book after book.
I am an auditorium—campaigns, assemblies, and the world series on television.
I am a gymnasium—footballs, and tennis rackets, and dirty towels.
I am a cafeteria—tables, and chairs, and hungry people to be fed.
I am teachers—understanding, encouragement, and correction.
This is my collateral—this is what I bank on.

I am a semicircle of crabapple trees—courage and bravery.
I am the golden torch of the National Honor Society—integrity, scholarship.
I am a Key Club pin, a Hi-Y pin, and an athletic letter—sportsmanship and leadership.
I am a band—purple and gold and snare drums.
I am cheerleaders and pep rallies and the "Alma Mater"—school spirit.
I am the F.H.A., the F.T.A., and the Y-Teens—plans for the future.
I am the Service Club and scholarships—recognition of talent and ability.
This is my interest—this is what I produce.

I am a man realizing the need. . . .
This was my beginning—realization.

I grew quickly—too quickly.
Expand! Keep up!
Buildings change, traditions change, people change.
Who among the first of you would recognize me?
Steel skeletons change my outlines. . . .
New faces come—old faces go. . . .
Trophies are added—traditions change. . . .
What is change?
Realization? Awakening? Awareness?
Change is personified in me—I am change.
I am a realization, an awakening, an awareness.

I was built—stone upon stone and change after change.
I will grow—stone upon stone and change after change.
I am the future, for the future is of youth and I am youth.
I am class officers, marshals, and the Student Council.
I am dances, and sponsors, and the Queen of Hearts.
I am rings exchanged and hands held.
I am writers and journalists—Winged Words and the Hi-Times.
I am actors and stage crews—the Little Theater and Golden Masquers.
I am mathematicians, and linguists, and chemists, and doctors.
I am typewriters clicking and pencils whispering against paper.
I am effort and achievement. . . .
I am parents and teachers working together.
I am conferences and schedules—decisions made.
Sophomores find me awesome, but they are cocky—they are the "wise fools."
Juniors do not consider me—they are sure and conceited, they know where they are going.
Seniors reverence me—I am their last march down the aisle, their class ring, their Senior Prom

Some will never see me again; others will.
Their children will come to me and I will guide them and mold them.
I will grow—stone by stone and change by change, but my meaning will never change.
I will be to them what I was to their parents:
Broughton—cradle of their future.

Hats off to: the senior class president, Mac Goodwin. This young man has handled all the graduation confusion with the patience of Job and the wisdom of Solomon. Few people bother to notice his efforts and hard work. He has done a good job, though he has undoubtedly found that people are much more willing to criticize than to help. To him, a simple Senior thank-you!

Nancy Britt (on the right) looks pretty sassy in her cap and gown. Ready to conquer the world.

SENIOR CLASS NIGHT

CLASS NIGHT PROGRAM

CLASS PROCESSIONAL

INTRODUCTION OF VALEDICTORIAN.... Mac Goodwin

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS .....Linda Shirley

CLASS NIGHT PRODUCTION

Theme: Our high school knowledge is a picture -- a painting whose richness, realism, and meaning are revealed to us more fully as years pass and our perspective grows.

Symbolism: The narrator, his inner voice, and the background painting of Broughton form the major features of the production. The narrator and his inner thoughts (represented by the Voice) portray the class of '59, today; tomorrow -- the future. The painting is symbolic of the true importance of Broughton. Now it is blurred and obscured. Only faintly is any part of the picture discernible. Yet, as time passes, the painting -- Broughton's true significance -- becomes clearer, more meaningful.

Act I

The time is now. Graduating tomorrow, our narrator struggles with himself (the Voice) about what high school has really meant to him. He recalls the events of his high school years that at present mean the most to him. Prominent in his thoughts are the fun and hard work of his three years here. The real significance of Broughton -- symbolized by the painting -- is dark, unclear to the graduate.

Act I

A few years have passed now, and our narrator is in college. He still questions himself on the importance of Broughton. Yet, in his questioning he is beginning to see more than the good times of high school. He is beginning to recognize the true educational value of his school years. Now the Broughton picture is beginning to take shape, to become clear to him.

Act II

High school, college, business -- our narrator is ten years older. Self-confident, mature, he no longer questions Broughton's importance; dances and homework are no longer so salient in his memories. In these later years the '59 graduate realizes and appreciates his high school training. The years have lighted for him the whole picture of Broughton.

GRADUATION DAY brings thoughts of the future. But memories of the past also come t mind, as Betsy Joe writes in today's "Younger Set." Pictured above, in cap and gown, ready for tonight's commencement exercises, are Dock Dickinson and Edith Olive.

Younger Set

—By Betsy Poe—

"TOMORROW AND TOMORROW AND TOMORROW . . ." But at this moment most seniors are looking critically at yesterday. Broughton has offered us a world—have we taken advantage of the gift? Broughton has handed us a box of memories, too. . . .

Remember in the tenth grade? We all came together from Morson or Daniels . . . some of us with chips on our shoulders and some wondering what would happen to us after we left the familiar surroundings of our own junior high school . . .

We met and made as many new friends as we originally had . . . Scott Bowers, Mac Goodwin, Sis Strong, Lou Dorris, and David Poole were chosen to lead us through that carefree first year of high school . . . They did a great job, too, proven by the fact that we beat the juniors in the magazine sale . . . Many of the girls started dating senior boys until our males reached the age of 16. . . . Then there were the bug hunts and the wildflower collections and eating friend grasshoppers . . . Big weekends at the ed with those of the upperclassmen, but more often weekends were like the one at Wrightsville near the end of the year—Swoose Phelps taking Donna Wilkerson, Sara McCorkle, Beverly Daniely, and more to ride in his red convertible . . . and the continual wildflower hunt? That was the big year, too, for the numerous parties at the Garner's cabin . . . and all the girls' slumber parties where no one slept (how unlike the same parties two years later!).

The next year Tommy Worth, Scott Bowers, and many more of our male population returned to school and formed "no - date" clubs; so the gals were forced again to date the older boys (a vicious circle). Mac Goodwin, Johnny Wardlaw, Kay Cheves, Stuart Austin, and Bobby Soden were our officers and Sandra Shaw was the only junior cheerleader . . . This was the year that Bill Duncan and Johnny Wardlaw taught us all how to get up early on Saturday morning to pick up trash from the front lawn . . . Miss Penny taught us the punctuation rules . . . Miss Stinson and her socks were the coversation pice of the day . . .

ants as Sergeant at arms? Doci Dickinson and Rella Lancaste headed the Hi-Times staff; An nette Gill and Jerry Liles, th Latipac.

The new cafeteria was finishe —nearly everyone enjoyed usin it except . . . (and for some peo ple this brings to mind lunches a Swains and Roys, running fron behind the gym in order not t be seen by Mr. Butler). The girl decided not to compete with th sophomores so only a few senio couples remained through th year—like Docie Dickinson an Edith Olive, Jay McClellan an Cabell Robb, Jack Wall an Becky Franklin . . .

Homecoming was a tremendous success becausc of the able work of such chairmen as Bobby Soden, Linda Jacobs, Bill Price, and Sarah Levine . . . Sandra Shaw, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Kay Cheves, and Sis Strong cheered—increasing the number of checrleaders from one to four . . . The big snows kept us in school longer, but we made up for it with all the fun we had sledding at the Carolina Country Club . . . we sold wrapping paper . . . We obtained advisors and senior homerooms and marched into assem-

Nancy Edwards, Mary Elizabeth Tant, and Mary Lou Dorris marched down the aisles in the Queen of Hearts assembly . . . Linda Jacobs, Bob Martin, Lou Dorris, and Docie Dickinson led us down these same aisles as our marshals . . . Girls wore chemises and boys threatened to wear their shirttails out to remedy the situation . . . When we finally got our class rings, we felt BIG, but not as big as when that senior class sang goodbye to us in their last assembly . . . It was then that we realized that the next year was the last . . . and that we were seniors!

Since the seniors are always looked up to, we had to have very capable leaders; who could have been better than Mac Goodwin for our president, Don Carmichael as vice president, Sandra Shaw for secretary, Brooks Garnett as our treasurer, and Riley Pleas-by as seniors looking neither right or left (and a little shaky?) deciding to be the best class ever . . . Naturally we beat the faculty in both basketball games . . . and the Hi-Y kickline was perfection! . . . and the Queen of our Hearts, Mary Lou Dorris, reigned beautifully . . .

Term papers were "bigger and better" (likewise the sales of "nodoze" pills, coffee, cokes, and cigarettes) . . . College Boards showed us that the way to college was not an easy path . . . Linda Shirley and David Swain won National Merit scholarships after a year of testing . . . College applications flooded the office . . . College and Career Days pulled us back to the realization that the future is near at hand . . . Our class, too, was different by providing a modern theme for its seniors prom . . . and the Latipac was new, exciting, and different from any of the past years . . . Everyone was proud to say, "We're the Class

AND THEN CAME Senior Week . . . It began with exams and is ending with parties (from one extreme to another?) All day Tuesday the Student Lounge and the cafeteria were filled with Seniors, ink, and people signing Latipacs. But, as if that wasn't enough, Willard Barbee furnished the house, and most of the senior class went over there for food and more writing.

Just a few of the "million" getting "writer's cramp" from signing their John Henry were Lou Dorris, Sara McCorkle, Smedes York, E. P. Brinkley, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Peggy Payne, Kurt Griset, Jeanie Hobby, Mac Goodwin, Laura Grady, Riley Pleasants, Mickey MacDonald, Tommy Hines, and Al Lassiter.

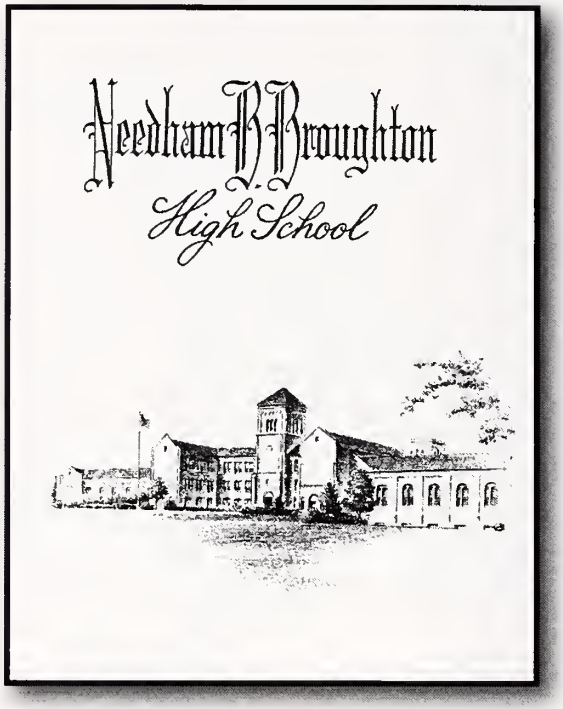

Wednesday was sunny for the Senior Picnic, and the rains didn't come until after many of the Younger Setters came from the Carolina Inn, where a dinner was had honoring Margaret Darden and Jane Fadum. Wallace Dunn, Bill Porter, Judy Oliver, Joanne Walters, Roberta Brown, Jerry Bell, Shebe Roy, Tina Demerrit, Ann Prescott, Paul Houston, and Pete Range, Jr. ate at tables decorated in purple and gold (!) with Jane and Margaret, who are leaving for Europe. (By the way, Jane will stay there for a year).

Thursday night the Senior Class was privileged to see the magnificent production of Class Night, (written by Linda Shirley, Israel Tyler, Marie Overby, David Swain, and Bob Self) which the underclassmen had viewed that morning.

And now is the time of graduation. The parting from here to the future. The dark, cold world awaits us . . .

"Hold our memories within you,
Cherish these all your days.
We'll remember for all time—
Class of '59!"

407 Graduate at Broughton High

A class of 407 Needham Broughton seniors wound up high school days last night.

Before a full house, they filed across the stage at Memorial Auditorium to receive their diplomas.

City Schools Superintendent Jesse O. Sanderson passed out the sheepskins after the students had heard one of their own handle the speaking chore.

George Lothian, president of the Student Council, delivered the graduation address.

Principal Joseph Q. Holliday presented the seniors as they received their diplomas.

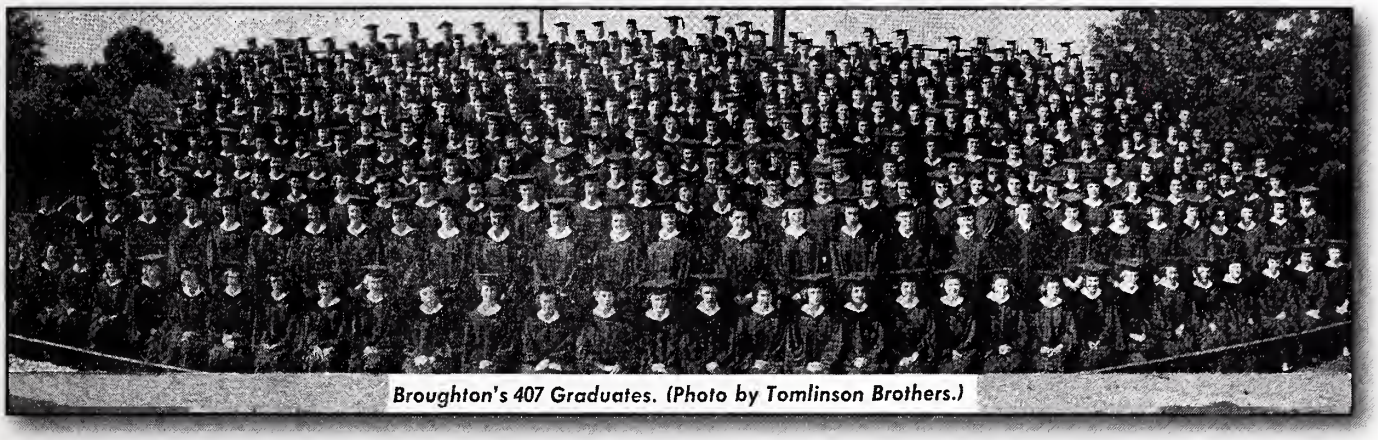

Other graduates who participated in the program were Annette Gill who gave the invocation and Robert Soden who pronounced the benediction.

Music was given by the Broughton chorus under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Freeman and the Broughton Symphony, conducted by Richard Southwick. David Perry was the pianist.

It's a scholarly graduating group. Some 43 of them have received scholarships to various colleges.

STUDENTS' PRESIDENT GEORGE LOTHIAN AND VALEDICTORIAN LINDA SHIRLEY.

Remember how hot it as as we posed for this picture at Deveraux Meadow? Many of us had just come back from the beach where we got too much sun (without sun screen). The sun was burning down on those black robes. We posed and smiled as the water blisters formed on our backs and chests ... needless to say, we peeled!

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died, Land of the pilgrims' pride,
From ev'ry mountain side, Let freedom ring.

My native country, thee, Land of the noble free, Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills, Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills, Like that above.

Our fathers' God, to thee, Author of liberty, To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light;
Protect us– by thy might, Great God, our King.

Our Personal Journeys From 1959-2009

Spouse: Charles A. Newell, Jr.

Children: Adam, Grayson, and Charles

Grandchildren: 2

Education: Salem College, BA; UNC, M.Ed.

Alice

Alice Wilson Newell

Greensboro, North Carolina

Career: I taught elementary school (grades 3, 4, 5, and 6) for 35 years.

Retired

Hobbies: Oil painting, garden club, book club, and duplicate bridge.

Alice and Chuck—"Living It Up"

Along the way: After graduating from Salem, I spent two months in Europe (one of the best experiences of my life) before going to Jacksonville, Florida, to teach school. After 2 years, I came back to Raleigh and went to UNC for my Masters. I went on many trips (Nassau, Miami, Denver, etc.) before marrying my husband, Chuck, of 40 years. We settled in Greensboro, NC, where we brought up our three boys. I taught school for 35 years and retired in 2001. I have 2 grandchildren. I'm enjoying my hobby as an artist and will be president of the Yard Birds Garden club This next year. My mother (92) lives here in Greensboro and is doing well.

Below: Our family on a Windjammer Cruises in Maine—Adam, Chuck (husband), Grayson, Alice, and Charles.

My philosophy: You can't always control what happens in your life, but the way you deal with your fortunes, good or bad, is up to you. Play the hand you're dealt smartly, wisely, and with as much grace as you can muster. Feel the joy of life and live it with passion.

Broughton memories: Somehow my memories of Broughton are just a blur of happiness and expectations. I remember writing a term paper for Ms. Coffey; only passing geometry under Miss Cogdell because of my boyfriend, Johnny Miller; being terrified of our principal, Joe Holliday; and playing mean jokes on the Latin teacher. I walked home from school (about 3 miles) every day, carrying all those heavy books and having wonderful conversations as we walked down St. Mary's Street. The Best thing to me was dating Johnny—going to the dances and football games. I've always looked upon these high school years as the best, most carefree time of my life.

Learned since Broughton: I left Broughton after the 11th grade and finished the 12th grade and first 2 years of college there at St. Mary's. I went to Salem College with a major in history and a minor in education. I got my M.Ed. From UNC—Chapel Hill. As for learning about LIFE since Broughton, I could write a book—not enough space here even to begin.

Spouse: Marilyn R. Holmes

Children: 5 (Blended family)

Grandchildren: 9

Education: University of the South (Sewanee) , BA; University of Southern California, MPA; USAR and DoD, various

Spouse: Carey

Children: Glen

Grandchildren: 3

Education: UNC Greensboro and Peace College

Amy

Amy Ballowe Faison

King George, Virginia

Career: Executive secretary, medical administrator, patient advocate

Retired

Hobbies: Gardening, yoga, Pilates, reading, cooking, and decorating

Along the way: I served as Ombudsman for USS Leahy (DLG-16) from '60-'71 and received a citation for service. When we lived in Carmel, CA, as part of my medical administrative duties, I was charged with admitting emergency psychiatric patients for inpatient care and with coordinating their care in my employer's absence. During that period('78-'81). I began my patient advocacy, working with AIDS patients and assisting other patients in disputes with their insurance companies. For the remainder of Carey's naval career, I managed psychiatric, general, surgery, and orthopedic practices in Virginia, Beach, VA; San Diego, CA; Ventura, CA; and Oxnard, CA. When he retired from the Navy, I retired from "paid employment." Since 1987, I have volunteered and/or raised funds for numerous causes. While Carey was on active duty, we moved all over the country, with Carmel, CA, and Kailua, Hawaii, being my favorite places! We've returned to both over the years and I keep threatening not to leave them each time we go back! We've also enjoyed trips to Gatlinburg, TN, San Antonio's River Walk, and Bermuda. While Carey was on active duty, I volunteered with the Muscular Dystrophy telethons. I continue to work with friends and family as an advocate with their insurance companies.

Carey and I at Carmel Highland Inn for our son's wedding on July 2, 2005

Broughton memories: Good times with the Little Theater and the Golden Masquers. Hanging out with Patricia Robinson, Lib Hodges, Renie Feltner, Bobby Beatner, Roy Coffee, and John Daniels. Trips to the beach. The football games – going to Finch's or the White Castle after the games to eat! Working with Mrs. Sandling, Mr. Holliday, and Mr. Holyfield – I was such a nerd! Graduation was the happiest day and also the saddest because I knew my friends and I were moving on with our lives.

Lessons since Broughton: Having lived with many different cultures, religions, and lifestyles has shown me how alike we all really are. Most people are kind and thoughtful.

In Hawaii in 1974

I realize how important my family is to me and now I can spend time with them. In exchange, I'm far away from our son and his family who are in CA, but I try to get back there often so the grandchildren have happy memories of the "fun grandma" as they call me!

My philosophy: Be open to new ideas. Be there for family, friends, and neighbors.

Spouse: Linda Secord

Children: David, Cassie, Charlotte, Lucy

Grandchildren: 5

Education: Florida State University, BA and MA; UCLA, Ph.D.

Andy

Andrew Layton Rogers

Austin, Texas

Career: Engineering Aide, Production Shift Foreman, English Teacher, Graduate Student, Linguistics Professor, Technical Writer, Cathard

Semi-Retired

Hobbies: Linguistics, photography, collecting jazz, defensive gardening

Along the way:

Fulbright Scholar to Kiev, Ukraine; President Austin Chapter, Society for Technical Communication; Organized 2nd Edited Major Linguistics Conference at University of Texas; Employee # 12 of Tivoli Systems, a software startup; Presented linguistics paper at University of Urbrey, Italy; Web site: www.armadilloresearch.org.; Made the first production thin-film capretor; Academic conferences in Linguistics; Married Linda in 1978.

Favorite Broughton memories:

Mrs. Peacock's English class; Miss Freeman's chemistry class; Miss Runnion's homeroom; Miss Cogdell yelling, "Phil—up!" when Phil Horwitz misbehaved again; Miss Penney's P1-12.

Learned since Broughton:

That Broughton was academically and intellectually the best school I ever went to. That the world is a much broader and more tolerant place than where we grew up.

My philosophy:

All you can do is all you an do.

Spouse: William Evans Wyche, Jr.

Children: William Wyche, III and Jonathan Wyche

Grandchildren: 4

Education: High Point University, BA; NC School of the Arts, BM; Graduate school at UNC-Chapel Hill and the University of Virginia

Ann

Ann Swindell Wyche

High Point, North Carolina

Career: 23 years in education. Taught at Martinsville High School (VA) and in West Palm Beach. Presently Dept. Chair English and IB 11th and 12tth English at Central High School in High Point. Also I teach voice at UNC School of the Arts in Winston-Salem, NC.

Hobbies: Cooking, reading, and driving pontoon at High Rock Lake.

My philosophy:
Live life to the fullest so you have no regrets.

Along the way: Edited base newspaper at Yorktown, VA, US Coast Officer Candidate School. Sang at Carnegie Hall in 1985. Review from NY Times still on line. Sang for 20 years with Piedmont Opera in Winston-Salem, NC. Soloist in South Jersey Festival Chorus and many oratorio societies and with Stockton State Opera. Loved Salzburg and Heidelberg, Quebec, Hawaii, and parts of Jamaica and Mexico.
Had a great single life. Married a Career Coast Guard Officer in 1968. He went to Viet Nam. His final post was Group Commander of 4 bases, including Atlantic City. He is retired and I love to work!

Learned since Broughton:

1. To like good wine.
2. Time flies. (Tempus fugit.)
3. I tell my students to seize the moment because that's all we have.

Looks like Ann is enjoying some of that good wine she's learned to like.

Broughton memories:
Mrs. Peacock's English class. Now I stand on a chair and quote a little poetry. In fact, I am she, in a miniscule way.
Vocal ensemble with Mrs. Freeman.
Mr. Bello's jokes.
Wishing I could write like Ann Tyler and Bill Price's brother, Reynolds.

Spouse: John W.

Children: Lynn and Marilee

Grandchildren: 2 girls and 1 boy (They are my life.)

Education: East Carolina for 2-year secretarial course

Annette

Annette Ratcliffe Haithcock

Raleigh, North Carolina

Career: After 2 years in college, went to work as a secretary. After 48 years, I'm still working with the same family-owned business. Am I crazy or not?

Hobbies: Am an avid reader and love to play cards. Enjoy gardening when my arthritis allows it.

Along the way:

I married the love of my life (sometimes). We've been married for 44 wonderful years.

Favorite Broughton memories:

Great friendships (the SolidSix), social clubs (Esquirettes), slumber parties, high school dances.
As you can see, I was more into the social scene than the education scene.

My philosophy:

Live every day as if it was your last. Love your family and friends unconditionally.

Spouse: Gary G. Hansen

Children: David and Gary Hansen

Grandchildren: 3

Education: Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, DC

Annie Lee

Annie Lee McLeod Hansen

Career: 18 years as Staff Assistant for Congressman David Price, 4th District Congressman

Retired

Hobbies: Playing bridge

Annie Lee and her husband, Gary, in 2007

Along the way: I have continued exchanging Christmas cards with Gail McClamrock, Janice Houston, Martha Thomas, Mary Lou Dorris, and Susan Kilgore since Broughton days.

Broughton memories:
Hurricane Hazel coming to Raleigh when we were in the 8th grade.
Football games.
Dating Tom Wingfield and Wallace Dunn (but not at the same time!)
Going to the "L & M" on Glenwood Avenue.
Being friends with Carey Oliver, Gail McClamrock, Janis Houston, and Mary Evelyn Dughi.

Learned Since Broughton:
I know that Broughton was one of the best high schools in the state. We are all lucky to have attended Broughton.

My guiding philosophy:
Take one hour at a time in life.

Spouse: Theodore (Ted) Peterson

Children: Ted Peterson, Jr., Kimberly Hoben, and Debbie Starnes

Rebekah Franklin Balentine

Zebulon, North Carolina

Career: Director of Evangelism at Hayes Barton United Methodist Church (retired.) Now Visitation Ministry to Shut Ins at HBUMC.

Hobbies: Grandchildren, gardening-flowers, reading, and going to the mountains.

Along the way: The most special and meaningful thing occurred when I retired form Hayes Barton UMC after 17 years. They made a prayer room in my honor, completely decorated. My passion is to help others, family and church.

Broughton memories: Meeting my husband, football games, going to Long Meadow after games and dating Johnny, slumber parties, and dances.

Learned Since Broughton: Make the best of each day as if it might be your last. Walk humbly with my God.

My philosophy: Consider others before myself.

Career: Mortgage Processor for FHA Multi-Family Loans

Retired

Hobbies: Gym, reading, church activities

Along the way: My travels have been out West and to England and the western country. The highlight of my life has been reuniting with my high school sweetheart. We got married Sept. 6, 2008. He is Buddy Westbrook, who graduated a year before us in 1958. The results of my hard work are my two sons. The are both doing well . Both sons and their families live in Wilmington, NC.

Learned since Broughton: Life goes by so quickly the older you get. It is important to appreciate every day and be thankful for each day.

My guiding philosophy: Appreciate your family and friends. To hold strong in my Christian faith.

Betsy Poe Manning

Wilmington, North Carolina

Career: Systems Engineer (IBM) until I became a mother. Then I did contract programming for several firms in Atlanta, worked and taught classes at a craft store, and taught computer science at North Texas.

Retired

Current interests: I make small quilts for my grandchildren and other small fabric wall hangings (art quilts). My art quilts were in a show at an art gallery in Wilmington this year; that "opening" was a great exciting evening for me. I also make greeting cards using my many rubber stamps – this is my favorite occupation and I spend hours in my stamp room. I take as many vacations as possible with Jack and with my children and grandchildren. Instead of sailing, now I am learning to kayak.

Along the way: I did many years of volunteer work with the Junior League and my church and I used to play a mean hand of bridge and I used to sail but no longer. I've traveled the world on cruise ships and on walking and hiking trips. I've lived in Atlanta (3 times), Tampa, Huntsville AL, Detroit, Denton TX, Boulder CO, and Wilmington NC. I moved to Boulder to be near my daughter's family as my first two grandsons were born and I loved it there. I'd never lived near mountains before and I loved snowshoes and the outdoor life we led and all the friends I made. HOWEVER something big happened while I was there: Jack Manning, my high school sweetheart, found me and we married in Raleigh at my Grandfather's old house amid all the family memories. It is a dream come true! My grandsons are still in Colorado so I see them several times a year instead of weekly; my granddaughters live in NC so I see them more often. We spend a week together each year at the beach and I look forward to that all year long

Broughton memories: I loved decorating the gym – turning it into a wonderland for dances – and I loved all the slumber parties. My memories are all about the friendships. I liked skipping school at lunchtime to eat burgers at Swains. I loved our school spirit at ball games and parades. I felt privileged to be chosen to write The Younger Set for the News and Observer; that was great fun!

Learned since Broughton: It is the people in my life that are of number one importance...actually that was awfully important to me in school too.

My guiding philosophy: Family is the first most important thing to me and I try to do as much as I can for my children and grandchildren. I try to promote family get-togethers for my family as well as for Jack's family.

Elizabeth Smith Waud

Mill Valley, California

Children: Christopher C. M. Waud

Grandchildren: Wyatt, 6; Austin, 3.

Education: Duke University, BA; Art Institute of Chicago, graduate studies; Dominican University.

Career: Assistant Editor– Scott, Foresman Publishing; Associate Editor-Macmillan; Assoc. Ed.-Holt, Rinehart; Editor– Science Research, Associates; Editor-Addison Wesley Publishing; Mom; Pianist; Professional photographer.

Hobbies: Photography; life drawing; genealogy (preparing to take the Board for Certification of Genealogists in February); family and grandchildren.

Along the way: After graduation from Duke, went to Lausanne, Switzerland, to study French lang. and lit. for 3 months and then traveled around Europe. Got married in '64 and lived in Chicago while Ben finished law school. Favorite editorial project was filming a live production of Sophocles' Antigone at Hearst Greek Theatre in Berkeley, CA. for a multimedia package on Greek drama (1966,Scott, Foresman Com). The three leads were Charleton Heston, David McCallum, and Nina Foch. Hardest volunteer project was the Chairmanship of the San Francisco Decorator Showcase 1989 (a 24/7 job for 8 months). We cleared $305,000 for the University High School Scholarship Fund, a record at that time. The second hardest volunteer project was the Chairmanship for the children's book selection committee for the Annual Book Fair at Chris's School. For six years I read 3000 K-8/Young Adult books per year, winnowing them down to the best 300 books for the Fair each year. My biggest thrill was studying photography for four months with photographer Henry Wessel, Jr. My best photo shoots for PATA (Pacific-Asia Travel Association): Vietnam; India; Sikkim; Thailand; China, 4 times; Philippines, 3 times; Fiji; Tonga; Bali; Oaxaca, Mexico for Days of the Dead. The nicest gesture was my nephew Tad Smith and his wife Caroline Fitzgibbons' inviting me to visit them in London after I recovered from cancer surgery We channeled over to Paris for 4 days so I could photograph my favorite paintings in the Musee D'Orsay and browse the Left Bank book stalls. My most enjoyable music experiences were playing piano, harpsichord, and celeste with the Marin Community Orchestra for seven years.

Favorite Broughton memories: Attending speech by Eleanor Roosevelt at State College, representing Miss Stinson's Am. history class. Attending debate workshop at Wake Forest University with Brooks Garnett. Mrs. Peacock's 7th period class—I don't even know where to BEGIN...!! Essential! Playing piano duets with Carol Williams ("Blue Moon" and "Boogie Woogie"). Painting sets and decorations for dances with Mark Lynch, Jeanne Poole, et al. Going to "away" football games with Boopie Poole, Boopie's mother, and Jack Wilson's mother. Mr. Holliday—I was scared of him at first but eventually learned he was terrific. Miss McDearman—I was scared of her first, last, and always! Good teacher, though. Tapping surprised students for Nation Honor Society. Snow! No school! Sledding on the Country Cub golf course! Slumber parties! Miss Penney's frigging "P 1-12"- argh. NFL's State Student Legislature for 2 days in the old Capitol.

Learned since Broughton: I learn more from listening than talking. In Asia, I learned to give up "comfort zone" and be flexible. Traveling through jungles is easiest on an elephant. Art and music are essential to a child's early education. Family comes first!

My philosophy: Every person has value, each in his or her unique way. We are all fellow inhabitants of Earth.

Career: 32 years as 4th grade teacher

Retired

Hobbies: Antique auctions and traveling

Along the way:

2008 trip to Virgin Islands with daughter, son-in-law, and grandchildren. Built new house in Pittsboro, NC, in 2008. Yard work is on going.

Learned since Broughton:

I have learned since graduation that I knew pretty much nothing about life and its applications and what to expect in the future. I had very few life experiences to draw upon, but I have been blessed with a wonderful family that includes two delightful grandchildren.

My guiding philosophy:

Be an optimist. Don't dwell on the past and what you can't change or control. Be informed and know you can't control politics and the future.

Raleigh, North Carolina

Career: Taught high school English 35 years: Freshman English at NC State 1 year; summer school and night school.

Retired

Hobbies: Reading, sewing ,quilting, spinning, knitting, crocheting, cooking and baking, and spending lots of time with the grandbabies.

Betty and Jim and Maggie Christmas 2008

Along the way: I've been married to a fellow from Florida, Jim Savage, for 39 years. We have two sons, both married, and three grandchildren. My husband and I are both retired and totally enjoying it. He was a teacher and coach in Florida for many years. In Fla. I taught at Ft. Lauderdale High School, the "Broughton" of that area, modeling myself as best I could after Mary Penney. I even taught my students P 1-12, using my original copy! I had headed to South Florida for an adventure after graduating from Wake Forest. Sixteen years later, I had some interesting stories to tell, a husband and two sons. In 1979, we moved to Raleigh and into my old family home. I taught at Cary High School until 2003. Retirement gives me lots of time for my hobbies. This 50th reunion is giving me a chance to reconnect with old friends—not that we are old, but our friendships are certainly long standing.

Broughton memories: Nightmares about being thrown into "the pit" as a Sub-Freshman. Smedes wearing a sheet for our Julius Caesar skit in Miss Penney's class. Volunteering for the first sentence of the translation assignment in Latin because I had done only three of them. Mrs. Peacock's ruler slamming down on my desk in the middle of my papers, shouting, "Plagiarism! Plagiarism!" Getting out of class all day to turn the gym into a wonderland with mere crepe paper and chicken wire. Being in the Ensemble. Missing the Latipac trip to New York because I had bronchitis. Slumber parties with little or no slumber. Having to write a book report for Miss Penney using P1-12 in order. Air Raid drills. Marching down the auditorium aisle as a Senior. Making a C in PE because I didn't have my uniform washed—and being grounded for it. Football games out of town and at Devereux. Being allowed to change into blue jeans on campus to go to the State Fair. Entire class having to have chest x-rays after two of our classmates were diagnosed with tuberculosis our sophomore year. Dreading cutting up that frog in biology. Being called to the office to hear that I had won a scholarship to Wake Forest…

My philosophy: I try to treat others as I would like to be treated. I was blessed as a teacher to make a difference in the lives of many of my students. Life is good and I plan to be stepping high till I'm 104!

Career: U.S. Navy, including a tour in Vietnam 1963-1966; NC Department of Archives and History (1971-1995), Director from 1981-1995; History Professor, Meredith College (1995-2006).

Retired

Along the way: Published 5 books (mostly scholarly, but one "popular'); won 2 of the State's highest awards for historians—The Cannon Cup and the Crittenden Award (both in 1995). Was Tar Heel of the Week in 1982. Served on the National Historical and Records Commission from 1988-1992 where I worked with 2 U.S. Supreme court Justices, 2 Senators, and 4 House members. Aside from my family, the things I'm proudest of are the books and articles I've published through 4 decades—and that it goes on. I'm working on one right now! My 45th wedding anniversary will occur this December. I married a beautiful, resourceful, patient woman!

Learned since Broughton: A lot—too much to detail here. My life and learning at Broughton served me well. With 4 years of college, then various schooling as a Naval Officer, followed by graduate school, I've had lots of teachers! The best by far was Miss Penney. If I am able to write well, it's because of her. Also, in a career in historical scholarship, the only instruction I ever received in research methods and footnote writing was from her.

My guiding philosophy: Enjoy the good things in life and shake off the bad ones as fast as you can.

Hobbies: Motorcycle riding, golfing, and boating

Broughton memories:

Start up of "The Casuals" with Craig Springer and Howard Garris. "The Casuals" had some great parties but also raised money for some good charities and gave time to a lot of charities.
Trips to Atlantic Beach.

Learned since Broughton:

Highs and lows are relative. Your high may be another person's low, and conversely, your low may be another person's high. Believe in yourself and limit your distractions so that you can move forward. Be flexible because the road to success is always under construction.

My philosophy:

Attitude is everything. Keep it positive. It is a choice that YOU control!

Along the way:
Achieved Rank of company Commander ( Third highest rank) at Naval Officer Candidate School in Newport, RI; One of seven officer candidates awarded Leadership Citation for advancing my company from Last Place when I became Company Commander to Second Place at my graduation. As an Ensign, I ran the seventh largest Special Services Operation in the world—a Lt. Commander rank job.

Mary Elizabeth Wingfield Dick

Louisville, Kentucky

Education: Associate Degree (St. Mary's); AB English; MEd; Rank 1 in Administration

Career: High School English Teacher; Writing Consultant; District Literacy Coordinator (currently)

Along the way: My professional passion is writing instruction, kindergarten through Grade 12. This year is my 39th year in education and I'm still going strong. I have written several published articles, made presentations in at least half the counties in KY, and produced an instructional DVD about teaching writing across grade levels and the curriculum. Currently, I work with the Franklin County Schools in Frankfort, KY.

Lessons since Broughton: I have learned that there is much more to life than high school. I have also learned that I am still very proud to say that I graduated from Broughton. I think that if I had stayed in NC, I would have been better at staying in touch with more of my high school friends.

Broughton memories: Lining up by height for assemblies. Listening to music in the auditorium during lunch hour. "Come as you are" surprise birthday parties. Queen of Hearts dance. Beach weekend after the prom. Dissecting a frog in 10th grade biology with Bob Martin. Being driven home by my boyfriend, Jeff (now my husband of 46 years). Miss Runnion, Miss Cogdell, Miss McDearman, Miss Strother (I was scared of them ALL!) Attending Jeff's swim meets.

My guiding philosophy: Life is an adventure, one with many unpredictable up's and down's. I try to take one day at a time and enjoy the journey.

Too many years zoomed by while working on computer software; lots of basketball, skiing, biking, and beach volleyball when I took the time. Highlights include working in Europe for a while ( they actually paid me) and taking one winter off to be a ski-bum at Vail.

Learned since Broughton:
I had more good friends during my school years than I've had in all the years since. I really have missed them.

Favorite Broughton memories:
A senior party at the beach. Someone jumping out of the window after Mr. Blakely's math class in order to get to the front of the cafeteria line...the food wasn't that good, was it?
A trip to Asheville to watch the football team pull out a hard-fought victory.

Hobbies: Playing golf, playing with new twin granddaughters, attending NCSU football and basketball games, and working in my church.

Along the way: Active in Trinity United Methodist Church for over 50 years. I served in many capacities including Sunday School Teacher, Chairman of the Finance Committee, and Chairman of the Administrative Board. I am active in the NCSU Alumni Association and served as Chairman of the Wake County Loyalty Drive for many years and served on the NCSU Alumni Board of Directors for a three year term.

Broughton memories: I thoroughly enjoyed my three years at Broughton. I met a lot of great people and made a number of life-long friends. I received an outstanding education which prepared me to make a smooth transition to NCSU and to very successful in my college work. I enjoyed playing basketball during my time at Broughton. It was a real honor to represent the school on the court. I remember all the great teachers, including Mr. Blakeway (college math), Ms. Penney (English), and Ms. Peacock (English). In summary, the student body and faculty at Broughton were outstanding and provided me with one of the best high school experiences a person could have. I am eternally grateful to Broughton for these opportunities.

Learned since Broughton: I have learned that the greatest blessing is knowing and accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. The next greatest blessing is to have a wonderful, loving wife. I have been blessed to be married to Barbara for 45 years. She has provided me and our two children with a wonderful home. And finally, ask God for joy in your life and share it with others.

Hobbies: Member of Covenant Church INT on Strickland Road, Raleigh. Precinct Chairman (1904) & Vice-Chairman of District 40 in Wake county Republican Party

Along the way: After graduating from Broughton High School, I took a 2-year senior accounting course at Hardbargers Business College. I served in the North Carolina National Guard from 1962 to 1968. I took classes in helicopter maintenance at Fort Rucker, Alabama. I did riot duty in Raleigh with my unit when rioting resulted from the assassination of Rev. Martin Luther King in 1968. I worked with Carolina Power & Light in accounting from 1964-1969. In Nashville, NC, I worked with another company as office manager for a few years, but I decided I wasn't happy with a desk job. In 1973, at the prompting of David Medlin, another graduate of the class of '59, who worked at the Post Office, I took the postal exam and was hired and retired at 62 years of age with 30 years of service. I married Joan Andra Perry on November 24, 1963. She was a Needham Broughton graduate in 1961. We reared three children (2 sons and 1 daughter) and have two grandsons.

Perhaps the one thing that has guided my life is an encounter with almighty God and His Son. My spiritual life and being before this encounter was somewhere between a deist and agnostic until June of 1969. God became real to me and His love saturated my soul and changed my life forever.

Favorite Broughton memories: 1. Lou Bello's eighth grade math class- the hilarity carried over to 9th grade at Daniels.
2. Homecoming/Hurricane Hazel- Who doesn't remember that day? Riding home in the middle of the storm!
3. Mr. Blakeway's Advanced Algebra class Senior year. Being the most ignorant one in the class; (that's a nice way of putting it!).
4. Hi-Y Kickline my Soph., Junior and Senior years. Nice to have all those years of dancing school pay off!
5. Journalism class trip to NY. Traveled by train-great fun!
6. Latipac signing party at my house. My mother was going to be in the hospital, but she arranged for two friends to chaperone us. What a hoot!

Learned since Broughton: It was a great time to have grown up in the 40's and 50's. Except for the fact we now enjoy the wonderful technological and medical advances that came in later decades, and the opportunities afforded me as a college student, member of the work force, marriage, motherhood and now grandmotherhood!, I look back with nostalgia on those days. We were taught so much by our parents, teachers and peers. It appears to me now that the same principles we adhered to in high school and college/workforce are no longer in vogue. The bar has been lowered in so many areas, and I fear it will be a long time before the pendulum swings back to an era of integrity in the workplace, personal life, and in government, especially. Time marches on, and since I describe myself as an old fuddy-duddy, I don't have to like what is happening to our world, and I will continue to hold on fiercely to those principles we upheld. I've imparted them to my daughter, and will do so with my three young granddaughters.....just hope they'll listen to me!!

My philosophy: It doesn't cost a dime to lend an ear, offer a shoulder to cry on, a hand to hold, and a smile to put someone at ease. JUST DO IT!!!

Spouse: Joanne

Children: Margaret Becton Crumpler Spiver, Adam M. Burr, Alex M. Burr, Michele B. Burr (last three step-children)

Grandchildren: 4

Education: NCSU, BS in Economics, 1963

Career: Employed by T.A. Loving company, in 1963. In 1973, I left to work with a friend, in a similar capacity, for a year. In late 1974, I entered the residential real estate business with Bacon and Co. For 35 years I have ranged from the brokerage side to the management part when we were Merrill Lynch Realty in the 1980's. I have recently returned to the brokerage side but at a much slower pace than before.

Semi-Retired

Hobbies: Am a golf nut!
Also my wife and I enjoy hiking locally, In the mountains and in the Sun Valley ID area when we visit with goods friends there. We recently hiked part of the Armstrong Redwood Forest in California.

Along the way:
As far as honors go relating to business, I was elected to the Board of Directors of the Raleigh Regional Association of Realtors (RRAR) and the North Carolina Association of Realtors (NCAR) beginning in 1977 through 1995. During that time, I served as Secretary, Treasurer, Vice-President, and President in 1987. In 1992, I was selected as The Realtor of the Year. I retired from the RRAR work but did serve as Chairman of the Professional Standards Committee for several years during the 1990"s. I also served on the Board of Directors of the Episcopal Housing Ministry whose mission was to provide as much affordable housing as possible for those in need.

Favorite Broughton memories:
Sporting events, especially the football games (since I was on the team). Occasionally sneaking off campus for lunch. The great teachers although I was not one of the great students. Club affiliations. Joe Holiday and the fear he put in all of us. Mr. Holyfield and his kind way. All of the great friendships that have lasted through the years.

Hobbies: :Reading, listening to music and singing along, playing cards, line dancing, traveling via car

Favorite Broughton memories:
1. Joe Holliday's references to our /pa/ (long a) /rents. / I never got used to it.

2. Mr. Blalock's accent. And the way he wrote his _x_'s. He seemed to be making two _c_'s back to back. Was anyone else impressed?I was mesmerized every day, and I still try to write that way.

3. Reading Uncle Remus stories out loud in Mr. Midkiff's class.

4. I liked the cafeteria food - especially brownies.

5. Miss Cogdell - the only teacher I had for two years. She tried to make us think she was so mean, but she had the cutest little sense of humor. I absolutely adored her and am sorry I never told her.

6. Sitting on the front lawn under the cherry trees. I thought that a cherry tree had been planted in honor of each Broughton ex-student who had been killed in World War II. I can't find anyone else who has heard this story. Did I make it up?

Learned since Broughton:

Hobbies: Playing and performing with an Appalachian Dulcimer group; Harold and I travel a lot; his hobbies are cooking and genealogy

Learned since Broughton:
I have met so many wonderful and exciting people in undergrad and grad school. I spent some time in NYC studying drama and enjoyed my "theatre career" in Charlotte. For a while, I taught adult tap dancing at the Y here. I have learned that some friends pass thru your life and others comle and go, but usually come back to stay. I really miss Tempie Outlaw!

Along the way:

Special vacations—We've traveled to Peru and Ecquador—Galapogas Islands, Amazon River; Ireland—my family's (Carroll) birthplace—"beautiful beyond belief"; Scotland; Great Britain: Alaska. More recently we have taken River Cruises in Germany and in China—what history! We did a coach/ferry trip to Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Finland and ended in Russia. Such interesting cultures. This year we are going to Greece or the Greek Isles. I've become very involved with the visually handicapped as my dad has severe macular degeneration. Also I volunteer at a senior center—once again in the library.

My philosophy:

The Golden Rule and
"Two roads diverged in a yellow wood...I took the one less traveled by, And that has made all the difference." (Robert Frost)

Favorite Broughton memories:

Attending the ball games—cheering for Johnny Wardlaw in football and the whole basketball team! Hanging out with "The Group." Slumber parties at each other's houses.
I loved Latin classes, my best foreign language ever!!

While living in Garner, NC, I was a member of the Civitan Club. It was an enjoyable experience.
Unexpected fun would be the last 10 years of my working career. The husband of one our classmates mentioned my name to a business in New Bern, NC. To make a long story short, the business called, I interviewed, and I was hired. The kids had already left home so Linda and I went to New Bern. Our granddaughter was born Dec. 1, 2004. Linda said, "Let's go home." So we did a reverse retirement and came back to be near our granddaughter even though we really enjoyed New Bern. Hobbies: Tennis, travel, reading, and beach trips

Along the way:

1. Along the way, a number of civic, church, and Not-For-Profit volunteer jobs in Greensboro, Salisbury, Durham, and Charlotte.
2. A number of great family vacations over the years—one memorable one in 1982 (with 11- and 14-year-old sons), 21 days from California to NYC and ending up in Bermuda.
3. We've been fortunate to travel over the years, beginning with my International Banking days ( 1970-74) with NCNB, traveling to Asia, Australia and England.
4. One great, almost spontaneous purchase—a beach house at Ocean Isle Beach that we bought with Buzzy and Frank Smith in 1983. We've had many great times there.

My philosophy: Life is full of "ups and downs." One is fortunate if the "ups" are longer and more frequent than the "downs."

Frank Smith, Kay Cheves, Mark Dennis, Sis Strong, and Don Carmichael at Ocean Isle Beach—2008

Learned since Broughton:
Family and friends become more important as we age. I've learned that life is fleeting—just look at how fast these 50 years have gone by. One needs to "enjoy the moment." A strong faith is increasingly important as one ages.

Favorite Broughton Memories: Nothing was better than the dances in the gym, especially the ones I helped to decorate. Going to the L&M drive-in, shopping at Virginia Crabtree's in Cameron Village, learning to drive, working at Britain's Shoe Store and spending my salary with Linda Jacobs at MacJoseph's. Dancing with the doorknob to the latest shag tune, Saturday morning Coke parties, open house after the football games (I hosted a few at my house). Slow dancing in the basement of White Memorial Presbyterian Church. Can you still smell the English Leather and British Sterling cologne? The special friendships that continue to this day and oh, those slumber parties and trips to the beach! I loved Mr. Blakeway's Algebra classes, but never understood anything about Geometry. My favorite class was Creative Writing. Socializing between classes and at lunch was great and I remember being mesmerized watching Carol Lee Kelly and Bobby Tomlinson shag in the old cafeteria. Writing our senior song with Carol Williams. (We called ourselves Rogers and Hammerstein.) We shed tears of sadness when we graduated and tears of joy when we gathered at each reunion.

What I have learned since Broughton: That I am fearfully and wonderfully made (Ps, 138:14) by an awesome God with a plan for my life (Jeremiah 29:11). The love of your family and friends buoys you. God can and will heal you.

Career: My "career" was like a kaleidoscope. I cannot think of anything I ever wanted to do that I did not try. I loved being a Mother so I stayed home with my children for about ten years and for spending money, I sold Tupperware! I have been a secretary in state government, at ECU and with the Pitt County School System. God blessed me with organization skills and many times I was hired to set up an office or organize an existing office. I have managed a real estate office and also a psychiatrist's office. I owned and operated two businesses: a needlework shop and a full-service boarding barn for show ring hunters. I served as a Liaison for constituent services for two NC State Senators. I became the campaign manager and fundraiser for one of the senators. I spent years as a paralegal and returned to Raleigh to my final position as an Event Planner withy the Division of Tourism (NC Department of Commerce).

Eddie's Story

I am married to my wife, Christina, who was born in Greece. I have two children, Eddie and Doug, and four grandchildren.

After Broughton, I graduated from UNC-Chapel Hill with a BSBA in Accounting. With the war in Vietnam, I received a commission in the US Navy. I served in Charleston, SC; Athens, GA; on board the USS Rushmore in Virginia Beach, VA; Saigon; Vietnam; and Rota, Spain. I resigned my commission as a Lieutenant Commander, Supply Corps after seven years of service.

I took a Department of the Navy civil service job as the comptroller of the Fleet Support Office in Athens, Greece. I was later transferred to Naples, Italy. I returned to the US in 1977. I worked for the Navy Facilities Engineering Command and then the Navy Comptroller Office in the Pentagon. I returned to Spain for a three year job in Madrid and then back to the Pentagon. I retired from the government in the summer of 1996 with 36 years of service. Among my awards are the Joint Service Commendation and the Distinguished Government Service Medals.

I still collect stamps as I did in high school. I have won several awards for my Greek collection. I also like NASCAR and go to Dover, Delaware, twice each year., My wife and I both snow ski and take week trips four times each year in the US, Canada, and Europe.

I lost my father several years ago, but my mother is 91 years old and still lives in Raleigh. We visit often. I have attended each Broughton reunion before; however, this year I cannot make it. We will be in Greece leading a tour group of 40 people.

Career: Nurse, business owner, volunteer

Retired

Hobbies: Travel, white water kayaking, photography, golf, bridge, canasta, and lunches and movies with friends

Edie—Kayaking at Rollapalosa sight-seeing at Notre Dame in Paris, and just smiling.

Along the way: I worked in Raleigh at Dorothea Dix Hospital the first year after graduation from UNC, moved to Winston Salem after marriage to KDD, started a family in 1969 and was a stay at home mom for a number of years. In the early 80's I started a masters in Special Education but decided I had had enough of being a student. In 1986 I started a business which I owned until 1994. I expanded into another business. I sold both when I moved to Salt Lake City, Utah, where I lived for 9 years. (1994 - 2003)
Utah was an awakening for me in many ways. I was a southern girl on an adventure. My favorite volunteer activities were working with Splore (an organization working with disabled adults/ children in canoeing, cross country skiing and white water rafting) and with the Shelter School for the Homeless (helping young kids while their parents looked for work and housing). I also volunteered to be a gate judge in many World Cup events at Park City/Deer Valley and later was a volunteer in Deer Valley Freestyle Event during the 2002 Olympics. There were also some income producing jobs (mostly play) and other "things" which were remarkable and interesting. I lived in Sugar House, one of the oldest areas of SLC. International travel with friends became a big part of life. Skiing, snowmobiling in Idaho/Wyoming, white water rafting out of Jackson Hole and on the Colorado, extreme hiking with the National Arch and Bridge society in northern Arizona and southern Utah, camping, as well as attending opera, theatre and the symphony kept me quite busy during those years and exposed me to much that was new and exciting. I visited in Raleigh several times a year to see family and friends. Now I try to visit SLC several times a year. I moved back to Raleigh in 2003 and love being near family and friends. My children began their families and I have the privilege of loving and taking care of little ones now and then.

Favorite Broughton memories: Slumber parties, trips to Carolina Beach/Azalea festival with friends, White Memorial Church after football games, dances, most anything social. Bryant Garner's cabin, Rella Jean's ford, Jackie getting her driver's license & Emily getting her driver's license and our first outings—what a hoot! Hayes Barton Pool, going in the exit of the Forest Drive-In.

Learned since Broughton: We are on a journey with twists and turns along the way so make the most of every opportunity. Tell family and friends you love them (often). Change is good. It is going to happen so why resist?

My philosophy: Live life to the fullest every day with joy and enthusiasm. Think positive thoughts. Be creative in your ideas and actions. Believe you can do what you want to do. Be all you want to be. Welcome and learn from the lessons presented to you.

Forney's Story

I could have had a good life had I been able to avoid a 3rd grade trauma that has followed me all my life.

A certain girl and I sat across the aisle from each other in the 3rd grade and, although she may not have known it, I was madly in love with her. One day I innocently leaned over to get some books out of my desk (remember how they were stored under the seat?) just as she walked by in one of those skirts with five or six crinolines. I did not see her coming and raised my head just as she passed my desk. My head went right up her skirt and she reacted by beating me about the face like a rubber chicken. That trauma was seared into my heart causing a deep-seated fear of women, not to mention the thousands of dollars I have spent on shrinks. To this day, when I see or hear the swish of a crinoline, I break out in hives. (I just realized that if she figures out who she is, she'll think I am some kind of pervert.)

Otherwise, I have been able to advance to the age of 67 without being incarcerated and I am proud of that fact.

We have a son and daughter, both making their parents proud, and two grandchildren: Emily ( age 10), the next American Idol; and Colt, the next All-American power forward for the Wolfpack (age 10 weeks).

I worked for 25 years with American Hospital Supply (now Baxter International). I took an early retirement package in 1991 and became a financial advisor for individuals. After fully retiring in 2001, to keep me off the streets, I became a tour guide for Colonial Williamsburg. Today, my wife and I own a farm in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia where we raise beef cattle and angora goats.

I recently had the pleasure of having lunch with some of our old classmates and told them something I truly believe. It does not matter how much money you make in life. The true measure of wealth is counted in the lives you have touched and those that have touched you. For that reason, I consider all my 1959 classmates a large part of my wealth.

Along the way: 40 year career in banking including heading the commercial lending department at a Chicago-area bank in the '70s. In 1980, joined First Union in his native North Carolina, first as Credit Standards/Credit Review Manager and then as Credit Administrator in the Corporate and Investment Banking Division. Hands-on experience with a wide variety of industries and lending types. Retired as Managing Director/Senior Risk officer in 2006, after several years heading the credit policy and approval for the $9 billion asset-based lending portfolio. Experienced with a variety of corporate financing types, for companies of every size, running the gamut from structuring and syndicating transaction-driven credit facilities to corporate reorganization and workout. Specific experience with a variety of industries.
With Gene L. Temkin, formed Steele Temkin Advisors in 2006 to provide consulting services to business. This includes business development strategies as well as financial and operational recovery for owner-managed businesses. Katrina and I have found that the travel we enjoy the most is to various parks in our region where we can just relax and experience the astounding natural beauty of interior Florida. We take our bikes on our bike rack so that people who see us on the road will think we are young and athletic

Favorite Broughton memories: Marching Band trips, Symphonic Band, Mrs. Peacock's class, Beach Trips, and The Crossroads

Learned since Broughton: Everything. I was clueless for a long time. I have learned how to understand people and deal with them better. I'm still learning to enjoy each moment as a gift and to be attentive to what is going on now instead of what was in the past or will be in the future.
My philosophy: The best think I can do is focus on The Golden Rule and try to focus on my own behavior rather than trying to enforce my ideas on everyone else!

Gay Sandlin Eatman

Raleigh, North Carolina

Career: Worked in Interior Design since graduation with time out for raising our daughters.

Hobbies: Family, first and foremost, especially with "Cece" (3½). Bible Study. Boating on the Pamlico River. Dancing (finally learning). Politics (informing senators and congressmen of my position). Reading (so much to read and so little time!). Basically enjoying life.

Along the way: My passion: Family and family business (really love that part of my life; do not plan to retire); Bible Study and Church.

Greatest accomplishments: Working with my husband every day and still having fun. (Anyway, I told him when we got married if he ever left, I was going with him!)
Enjoyed getting my private pilot's license, flew single and twin engines for about 25 years (with Woody); flew for pleasure and then in business. Big, big thrill: getting to fly a Gulfstream Corporate Jet from Florida to North Carolina (with instructor, as I am not rated to fly jets). I love to go fast in cars, boats, planes, whatever. By the way, for any of you who are in this and surrounding areas: If you like to drive slow or on the speed limit and notice a little black car behind you, please stay in the right hand lane or better yet, pull off the road and let this person pass. She has an appointment and is probably late!!!!

Learned since Broughton: Not enough time or space to do this one! What I thought was important in high school is definitely not what I know to be important today. Love your family, friends, and dog, because you can always count on them, and be kind to everybody else (whether you like them or not). Stand up for the things that you know to be true even when they are unpopular and try not to be obnoxious about it (I'm working on this one!). Carpe Diem: the present is too precious to waste! I have enjoyed every year (well, almost every year; there are always hills and valleys in life) since I graduated and being an adult is a lot more fun than being a teenager. (Daddy told me: "These are the best years of your life! When I was at NBHS, he was definitely wrong on this one but right on all the other things I did not agree with at the time.) The journey since Broughton has been filled with rich experiences; therefore I feel very blessed. It's great to be alive and still enjoying life. (That's trite but true!)

Guiding philosophy: Proverbs 3:5 – "Love the Lord with all your heart and do not rely on your own understanding." If you want to know more, call me.

Kingsville, Maryland

Career: High school history and English teacher, 1963-1968;Partner and Tour Director of About Town Tours and Convention Services, 1981-2000

Retired

Hobbies: Travel, reading, tennis, attending symphonies, theater, and opera, and grandchildren's activities and vacations.

Along the way: During my professional career at About Town, I was an active board member of the Baltimore Tourism Association and twice chaired a major marketing event, Red Carpet Weekend. The 2nd year, 1993, the major blizzard of the Mid-Atlantic stormed in and stranded all of the mid-west buses that had come over the mountains. It was not something that I would want to cope with again.

When my children were in school, I was an education activist and formed a citizens' committee to have input on broad curriculum objectives.

Lately my major volunteer efforts have been as a board member of the Kingsville Civic Association which has the goal of preserving the rural character of our community. Opposing poorly planned development and thoughtless politicians has been frequently irritating and occasionally rewarding.

In 2004 and 2006 I volunteered to teach English and history at the International University of Vienna, Austria. This small church-sponsored school teaches students from over 35 nations. The students come from a broad range of economic backgrounds--refugees from Africa and Asia, children of diplomats serving In their national embassies, and children of employees of International organizations such as the UN or OPEC. While living in the faculty hostel there, I learned to live on much less and to appreciate the bounty here in the US. Since I do not speak a foreign language, I learned to point fluently In German and Italian. After each teaching stint, my husband came over, and we embarked on a four week driving trip through central Europe--Italy, Switzerland, Bavaria, Czech Republic and Austria.

Favorite Broughton memories: It's all a blur and nothing stands out. I do know that the teachers there prepared me well for college work.

Family dinner with Canadays: Ila Jean, Cathleen Canaday and Carole Ann Canaday

Learned since Broughton: I have learned that I love to discover new ideas, histories, sights, and sounds through travel and study. I have learned that I can manage fairly complex projects and see them through to completion.

My philosophy: In my high school and college years, my major focus was on knowledge. Since my husband is a scientist and I was liberal-arty , we felt that we were fully equipped to guide successfully our children into maturity. Our children taught us otherwise, and we returned to the "faith of our fathers" to establish a moral framework for our family. We feel very blessed that our adult children are wonderful friends and support for us

James Marshall Ferguson

Satellite Beach, Florida

Career: US Air Force for 21 years in Space Operations as an analyst, planner, manager; defense contractor for 20 years as a space systems analyst

Retired

Hobbies: Golf, travel, card games, going out to eat, getting together with family and friends, going to grandchildren activities, walking particularly on the beach, nature

Along the Way:
Being in the Air Force, I got to first go to Colorado for my best assignment as a space analyst; to Shemya, AK, for a year; to Washington, DC; Eglin

Air Force Base (AFB), FL; to Patrick AFB, FL; to Colorado Springs, CO; and back to Patrick AFB for retirement from the Air Force. Received the Air Force Commendation Medals, Meritorious Service Medals and Defense Meritorious Medal. People in the Air Force are super and they become extended family.
After the Air Force I found similar work in Colorado Springs and that became home where I spent 20 plus years working with great people and very interesting space related projects.
Before I got remarried, my vacations were to visit my children and in particular the times when grandbabies arrived. I found Jeanne Lakin Townsend in church. We got married in May 1999 and spent our honeymoon on a trip to Israel with 145 people from our church. Along the way Jeanne and I became landlords with houses in Florida, Colorado, and Arkansas. Since we began to miss children and particularly grandchildren, we decided to retire, sell our Colorado properties and move to Satellite Beach, Florida and Bella Vista, Arkansas.
Other notable vacations include a week in Victoria British Columbia, Canada, an Alaskan Cruise, 2 trips to Hawaii, and yearly trips with special Colorado, Arizona, friends.
Jeanne and I began Red Cross training this year for disaster relief and shelter operations and are volunteers in support of the Armed Forces Emergency Services. We organized a grief recovery workshop for our Florida church.

Favorite Broughton Memories:
Football games, Proms, going to the beach, being asked to join the Casuals (not a school club but close). Not necessarily a favorite but a standout, I still remember Ms Christopher, Jr./Sr. English teacher and some of her comments on my papers, in particular – BMS – Be More Specific. I enjoyed high school and the friends that I made.

Learned since Broughton:
I have learned a lot about myself and gained self confidence. I have met some great people and learned many things from them about work-related matters and self growth.
Remodeling a house yourself is really hard work, but well worth it. We did that to our 30-year old never-been updated house in Florida. Now it looks much different and great.

My philosophy:
Be responsible, be honest and be respectful.

Career: Coordinator for the NC Division of Commerce and Industry; Graphic/ advertising agency for 20+ years; Director of Publications in the Office of Public Information at WCU; Visiting lecturer for Senior Graphic Design Studio at NCSU School of Design for two semesters; 5 years as a free lance graphic designer; "Trailing Spouse" for Molly.

Retired

Hobbies: Travel, fishing, sailing, reading mysteries, painting, and trips to the beach.

Along the way:
Mollie and I are retired now, but for the past few years, I've been helping Mollie. She was the Executive Director for the NC Veterinary Medical Association. I did all the publications and communications, carried boxes, and was the "Trailing Spouse" for most of the meetings she had to attend. Let me tell you, "Trailing Spouse" is the best job in the world—all play and no work!
I was the Principal and Creative Director with graphic/advertising agency for 20+ years. Mollie handled the business end and I did the creative. Our work has won approximately 100 design awards and has been featured in graphic design books, annuals, and magazines in this country and in Europe.
I was a visiting lecturer for Senior Design Studio at NCSU School of Design for two semesters. I always get a laugh out of this since I graduated from State with a 2.00001 GPA.
I spent four years as Director of Publications in the Office of Public Information at Western Carolina University. A poster I designed for the University was selected by the University and College Designers Association to be included in a ten-year retrospective of the best in university design.
I spent five years as a free-lane graphic designer and spent the first four years after college as the Coordinator for the NC Division of Commerce and Industry.

Mollie and I have two sons. Greg is single and is an Executive Chef. Our other son , Lee, is married to Cristina and is a hotel executive. In 2009, we did an Alaskan cruise with our younger son and his wife.

Right: Mollie and I had a great trip to Vancouver.

Because of my interest in these issues, I've volunteered in various associations. As a family, we are very close and have lots of fun traveling in the U.S. and overseas. (My husband is retired military.) Recently we went with 13 relatives for a two-week vacation to Hawaii.

Clockwise: Phil and their three daughters; Dana, at home in Hot Springs; Joanne and her husband, Phil.

Favorite Broughton memories: Football, assemblies, friends, and fair days when we got out of school early and were allowed to wear jeans.

Learned since Broughton: Belief in God and a desire to follow Him changes everything. When the Spirit is in the right place, the mind, emotions, and body are aligned. We then realize that challenges can be met with success with the strength and power of Christ.

My philosophy: Do your best with whatever God has allowed in your life. Keep a strong faith and trust in Christ. Don't give up and don't let anything get you down.

Hobbies: Reading, hiking, photography, crafts, travel, reuniting with good friends, meeting new people, a little bridge, lots of e-mailing.

Along the Way:
Volunteered with new immigrants helping them to learn English; tutored Montagnard child. Various church volunteer jobs. On-going projects – helping my Mother with shopping, banking and PLAYING with my grandchildren.

Highlights – coming too close for comfort to a grizzly while hiking in the Glacier; making it to the top of Mt. Washburn (10,000 feet); touring France in a car; seeing our sons hold their new-borns; swimming with dolphins; sunsets on Smith Mountain Lake; sailing in a catamaran under a full moon.

Favorite Broughton memories: Annual Hi-Y Follies Show; band/chorus; assemblies; proms; annual signing parties. The dignity of our graduation ceremony – it was remarkable! The high qualifications of our teachers. Most had Master's degrees. They were truly professionals.

Learned since Broughton: It's all about communication – not how fast or how often, but how well we can express ourselves and how well we can listen to others and how often we can use it to add joy and laughter or to console.

My guiding philosophy: Like the chambered nautilus, try to keep outgrowing the old shell and move on to more wisdom, more compassion.

Volunteer at my children's schools—the same schools I attended: Sherwood Bates, Daniels, and Broughton.
That "déjà vu" feeling as I went into my elementary school as a parent!
44-year marriage to Gene, "The World's Best Husband."
Two awesome children.

Favorite Broughton memories:
Riding home from Broughton with my wonderful big brother, Bill, in his '54 Chevy, the windows rolled down, the radio blaring, and our singing at the top of our lungs, "The Wabash Cannonball'!

Surprise 16th birthday party at Donna's.

The girls' Coke parties.

Learned since Broughton:
As a college student, and as an adult, I came to appreciate the great education I received at Broughton; but, as important as a good education is, it is not the key to happiness and success. I once thought it was. The key to real happiness and real success for me has been knowing Jesus Christ as the Most Important Person in my life and my Best Friend.

My philosophy:
Psalm 95:1-7 (Living Bible)

Learned since Broughton: "Old" friends are really special; life is better with a sense of humor.

Another major passion has been participation in civil rights organizations and activities that promote equality of opportunity, especially in education. This interest began in graduate school and has continued for over 40 years.

Kay and Huni family in Zimbabwe – I stayed with this family in one of the houses in the photo.

Favorite Broughton memories:
Ms. Penney's 10th and 11th grade English classes – I always scored well on grammar tests and attribute this to her classes.
Long-term friendships that started in 8th grade and continue to this day!
"Clouds" for one of the class dances; I still feel guilty about how awful they were! (Sorry, Sis!)
Football games and surprise birthday parties.

Laura Grady Crumpler

Raleigh, North Carolina

Career: 25 years in association management - AATCC (2.5 years) and ISA (23 years) both in RTP

Retired: No

Hobbies: Love my job; enjoying grandchildren, all in the area; and preparing for retirement.

Favorite Broughton memories:
Singing with the Broughton Ensemble and working in the school store

Along the way:

The most challenging and rewarding life experience for me has been the privilege of raising two wonderful children and now enjoying my grandchildren. Grady and Rochelle are strong, healthy, gainfully employed, accomplished, and productive contributors to their community. What parent could ask for more!

When the children were in school, kindergarten thru sixth grade, I taught a program called Green Circle to their classes that encouraged appreciation of diversity - and the fact that we are more alike than different. The program was created by a social worker in Philadelphia and offered ways to positively address integration. I would visit a class six or more times and bring guests to introduce specific areas of interest. For instance, what life is like for a blind person, living in Israel, or the parent who came to speak about the French culture and brought along her retarded son. (The students were prepared the week before for the visit and were wonderful with him.) To positively impact the life of a child is a wonderful gift.

I thoroughly enjoyed singing with the Raleigh Oratorio Society and in my church choir, plus teaching Sunday school, helping develop the Spiritual Life Group, Service on the Personnel Committee and Deacon Board - all enriched my life and relationships.

I have found great satisfaction in my work because it brings me in contact with people around the world, and I have enjoyed business trips to many countries, some more than once. Each trip I tacked on vacation time and most of the time Grady or Rochelle was able to join me, sharing experiences in Italy, Russia, England, Spain, Ireland, The Netherlands, and Belgium. Neither could join me in Brazil, Mexico, or India.

Learned since Broughton:

Life is full of surprises. Often what you expect is not what you get - even when you think you are "doing all the right things" and "playing by the rules," an outcome can surprise you. Regardless of what happens, the only one you have control over is yourself so make good choices because those choices do impact others - and are the stepping stone to your future ..... and a good sense of humor is a huge help! Indispensable for me has been the strength drawn from my spiritual life.

Laura—June 2009

My philosophy:
"What does God require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God"....Micah 6:8 .....don't burn bridges - be a peace maker - respect the opinions of others - strive to do no harm.

Retired

Hobbies: Volunteering (Chamber of Commerce, Hospital Auxiliary), training therapy dogs; reading; UNC sports; theatre; grandchildren (I can't believe how much I adore them!)

Along the way:
I've done tons of volunteering work, served on 6-7 boards ( Kidney Foundation, Chapter 10—funding mechanism for mental health services, etc.)
Been president of 3 clubs (Jr. Women, Women at the Well) Teacher of the Year.
Read to the blind on radio—Enough! I was married to a very sweet man, the father of my girls—divorced after10.
Have been married to Stan for 35 years.
Perhaps one of our most life-altering memories is that both converted from Judaism to Christianity in 1977. Stan is now a pastor in a church in the Shenandoah Valley ( beautiful but I'm ready to come "home" to Tidewater.)

My philosophy:
Kindness, Kindness, Kindness; and the 12-step prayer: "Lord, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference."

Favorite Broughton memories:
Going to Snowball Dance my sophomore year with Al Lassiter.
Getting an "A" in Mrs. Peacock's class (probably the only one.)
Being a Marshall.
Signing Latipacs at Betsy Poe's house.
Don Carmichael's teaching me to drive.
Movies Saturday afternoons at the Village Theatre.
Slumber parties (so many of them but especially one at Cabell Robb's house.)
Being George Lothian's first date when he moved here.
A young man in the Class of '57 whom I still remember and love.
Many friends, but especially my dear women friends who still have meals with me when I come home. They are still very precious to me.
After-football-game parties at White Memorial.

Hobbies: Cooking, gardening, and crafts

Along the way: My greatest accomplishments are my children, Jennie and Jeremiah. A family vacation wish came true – visit to Maui, Hawaii; bicycle ride from top of volcano at sunrise and the view was absolutely breathtaking. Sharing of yourself. The evening to remember for our memory book forever – our daughter, Jennie's wedding (husband, Kelley) in Cabo San Lucas, with family and special friends.

Favorite Broughton memories; Student/Faculty Girls' Basketball Game participation. Love the game of basketball and had always wished that we would have a girls' team at Broughton. "Go Dallas Mavericks!" Wish to express my appreciation to the faculty that molded and instilled the importance of education. They paved my future and my accomplishments in life.

Learned since Broughton:
The importance of leadership, hard work, discipline/advice, and education.

My guiding philosophy:
Strive to achieve/accomplish goals at my highest performance level possible, and the gift of giving/sharing with family, friends, and all mankind.

I have had the pleasure of seeing many places in the world. I'm glad I saw it when I did. The world is really changing. Yes, I have received honors along the way, but they are in a keepsake box and that's where they will stay. I have volunteered almost all my life, but I do very little volunteer work now except for my church.

Favorite Broughton memories:
Dances, Saturday Coke Parties, slumber parties, Bryant Garner's cabin, beach trips, football games, wonderful friends, dates, and teachers.

Learned since Broughton:
We grew up during the best of times. I wish our children and grandchildren could have had the same experience. If they had, maybe the country would be in better shape today. We were so blessed and didn't realize it at the time.

My guiding philosophy:
Love, laughter, and kindness keep you young at heart. Faith, God, and being true to yourself keep you strong during good times and bad times. Family, friends, and freedom are worth more than any treasure on earth.

Retired

Hobbies: Enjoy taking trips with grandchildren, getting together with friends. Swimming and reading.

Along the way: Memorial Day weekend at Carolina Beach is a special time for our family. Have enjoyed crossing the pond several times with friends. Also I have had some great experiences on the West coast. Since retiring, volunteer work through my church has been very rewarding.

Mary Elizabeth with her family on Easter Sunday, 2007

My guiding philosophy: Enjoy every day. If you have an opportunity to spend time with family or friends – do it; the housework will still be there.

Jimmy Yates, Mary Elizabeth Tant, Tom Cannon, and Mary Lou Dorris, 1957 or 1958.

Favorite Broughton memories: Football games, slumber parties, dances and trips to the beach. After my first year at Peace, I got a summer job working at a Jewish resort on Long Island. My high school friend, Joe Webb, offered to give me a ride as he was headed to Mass. After several mishaps, we arrived at my place of employment quite late and they were not very nice. After some discussion, Joe and I decided I would tag along with him and hope I could get a job at Eastover. In order to obtain a job, the owner, George Bisacca, insisted I sing "Dixie" and later he dictated a letter to Robert E. Lee. It was the beginning of a wonderful time in my life. Several years later, I helped two of my friends, JoAnn Winfree (Bell) and Sarah McCorkle obtain summer jobs.

Mary Lou Dorris O'Brien

Greenville, South Carolina

Career: Coordinator of Lay Ministry and Stewardship at Christ Episcopal Church; small business painting gift items for two years.

Retired

Hobbies: Traveling, reading, hiking, walking, painting, and time with grandchildren.

Along the way: Being married for 48 years to a wonderful man, raising two children and having four grandchildren. I was president of the Junior League of Greenville – 1979-80. I am involved with Kanuga Conference Center in Hendersonville, NC. I serve on the Program Committee and have coordinated six Kanuga sponsored conferences. I have facilitated a Women's Bible study for the past 20 years. We love to travel and our most recent trips have been to Australia and New Zealand in March and in June of 2008, we took our whole family to Goosewing Ranch in Jackson, Wyoming to celebrate Buzz's 70th birthday. I am a breast cancer survivor, 5 years, and I am involved in a Healing Support Group.

Buzz and Mary Lou—2009

Favorite Broughton memories: Finding wildflowers with Betsy Poe and Sara McCorkle and Sara driving backwards to take the miles off the speedometer, decorating for school dances, football and basketball games, parties after the games, working in the school store my senior year with Don Carmichael and Laura Grady, parties at the Poe's, going to Swain's and LM drive-in, Queen of Hearts Court, senior year – Homecoming court, serving as a Marshall, serving as office assistant for the football coach and having really good friends.

Learned since Broughton: I had a wonderful opportunity to go to a really good school where the teachers cared about the students. I could have studied more but I surely did have a lot of fun! I know the importance of having really good friends who care. I also know that I have to be grounded in who I am, more than what others think. Live one day at a time. I can enjoy the memories of yesterday, I have very little control over tomorrow, and my faith and trust in God is what sustains me. I am blessed with a wonderful family.

Along the way: I worked in Gov. Dan Moore's campaign and in the governor's Office. I also worked for Congressman Ike Andrews' office in Raleigh. I retired from the State and became the Disaster Services Human Resources Administrator for the State of NC Red. Cross. The first disaster I had to recruit for was Hurricane Fran. After the 9/11 Disaster, I sent 398 Red Cross volunteers to new York. NC actually had the second largest number of volunteers working there beside the New York. I still volunteer for my local Red Cross Chapter. The latest disaster I was involved in was the Con-Agra Explosion. It is rewarding to help make a difference in someone's life after a disaster.

In August of 2008, Eddie and I went to Oahu, Hawaii. We spent eight beautiful days in Honolulu on Waikiki Beach and traveled all over the island. We especially enjoyed seeing Pearl Harbor. In August we are going to Florida.

Nancy and Eddie Through the Years

I still love Beach Music and miss being able to shag like I used to—have had both knees replaced. Eddie likes Country Music so I have a few country favorites too, especially Garth Brooks!

Eddie is my second and third husband. (There's a great, long story about Nancy and Eddie, too long for this page so you'll have to ask her about it!) We met in the 5th grade at Boylan Heights School. We eventually remarried in 1992. We are very happy. Going out to eat is the highlight of our week.

Favorite Broughton memories: Making such good friends and being the 25th person to graduate. When Runt Rogers sent Mrs. Strother, our Latin teacher, black roses on the "Ides of March" when we were Juniors, I think. It went all over the school first thing that morning. She was really mad when we got to class. Getting out of school on the first Tuesday for the State Fair and being allowed to wear jeans. Going to gym on Fridays—we got to shag rather than play a sport. Being very proud to be a Needham Broughton High School Graduate of Class of 1959!

Learned since Broughton: To work hard and be successful in whatever I undertook. I enjoyed my work and appreciate the training that I received at Broughton and at Peace College. I have always lived my life to the fullest because I know I won't go this way but once. I am proud of what I have accomplished, being a good citizen and volunteer in my community. I have always loved life and being of help to others.

My philosophy: Be positive and live each day to the fullest because you may not go this way again.

Hobbies: Dogs (Rat Terriers), reading, and spending time with friends.

Along the way: Being retired is about the greatest thing I can think of at present. Meeting my husband in 1994 has also been a highlight of my life. We have taken some great trips together. This past year we built a new house, sold our home in West Raleigh and moved to Garner. Never thought I would live in Garner but it is beautiful out here.

Favorite Broughton memories: Mrs. Peacock's English class probably made the biggest impact on my life. My knowledge of English comes from her.

Learned since Broughton: I learned that I had a strong work ethic and managed to succeed in spite of myself. Fortunately I became less stubborn and learned to apply myself as I got older.

Hobbies: Sewing, knitting, playing tennis, reading, photography (wildlife), expedition travel, grandchildren, visiting national parks.

Along the way: Extensive travel: all seven continents, plus the Arctic Circle, Baja, Galapagos, Panama Canal, 2 trans-Atlantic crossings, virtually every western European country, and most of the western United States, including Alaska and Hawaii.

Daughter Elizabeth is expecting and son David is currently serving in Iraq—life is hectic.

Favorite Broughton memories: Mrs. Smaltz' gym class, our 1st class at Daniels Jr. High, Mr. Bello's algebra class, assemblies, senior procession

Learned since Broughton: I have learned that I really enjoy learning, particularly about history, geography, and wildlife. I don't think I realized at Broughton how much fun learning something new could be.

My guiding philosophy: Corny but, loving, being with and looking after my family.

Hobbies: Training my Rottie and Schipperke in AKC rally; visiting retirement homes, hospitals, etc. with my therapy dog, Cher. Hiking V.A. state parks with my dogs and companion.

Along the way: Volunteer at the SPCA as part of a special team trained to work with dogs that have issues such as shyness, aggression, etc. Volunteer at Maymont Animal Farm caring for animals on exhibition. Bred, raised and showed three female Schipperkes to their AKC Championship titles. Housed German exchange student in 1989 when my son participated in his high school German student program. A very special memory to me was my son being picked as his class representative for homecoming court each year he was in school and being chosen Homecoming King in his senior year. He was an outstanding athlete and excellent in soccer which earned him a partial scholarship to VMI. My son is the biggest highlight of my life.

Favorite Broughton memories
Unfortunately, I have no outstanding moments at Broughton. Well, maybe decorating the gym for homecoming and proms as I think if is sad that today's students rent hotels, clubs, etc. for their dances. I think they miss out on a lot of the fun of picking themes and transforming their gym into a magical wonderland for their dances. The preparations for the proms, etc. were a large part of the fun.

Learned since Broughton:
Work hard! Play hard! Enjoy Life! Keep Smiling!

My guiding philosophy:
Life is short. Live it to the fullest and be who you are and not what someone wants you to be.

My guiding philosophy:
My guiding philosophy is a very basic one: Be the best person you can be.

Along the way:
VOLUNTEERING: Past President, Guild of the Museum of York County; member of the Rock Hill School District's Education Foundation Board which funds grants for classroom teachers and provides food on weekends for elementary school children who otherwise wouldn't be eating; current president of Politeia, a ladies' luncheon club which focuses on civic involvement.
TRAVELING: Egypt, Jordan, Canada, the Caribbean, Belgium, Holland, and eight visits to England, including two sessions at Oxford. A trip to Alaska led to an unexpected enjoyment of whitewater rafting. I am now a rafter in Alaska, Costa Rica, and Oregon – but not yet at the National Whitewater Center, which is just up the road from me! None of my friends will go.

Favorite Broughton memories:
All those dances – the chocolate mint brownies in the cafeteria – marching into assemblies in order of height – the Hi-Y Follies – the feeling that we were responsible for sooooo much! – the Queen of Hearts assembly – an awful experience in Ms. McDearman's class.

Learned since Broughton:
The most basic thing I've learned since Broughton is that we do what we have to do. Sixteen years helping my husband fight a battle with Lou Gehrig's disease taught me that lesson. I've also come to appreciate those years at Broughton and the friendships formed there. The love and support I received from some of you recently certainly showed the lasting value of those connections.

Raleigh, North Carolina

Below: Jim and Sally Hooks

When I was nine years old my family moved to Raleigh from a very small town in the mountains of Virginia. I loved the three years at Myrtle Underwood, making new friends, playing, and learning. I was shocked that the very large medieval castle with a tower on Peace Street was actually Broughton High School! Broughton offered us an opportunity for an excellent education. When you graduated from Broughton, you were prepared to do something with your life. The faculty was excellent. They pulled thoughts and ideas out of our brains that we didn't know were there! For me, Broughton taught me to think, deduce, and decide.

Some of my favorite memories at Broughton were the assemblies our senior year when we got to file in last and "look senior." I loved the football games- even though I didn't have a clue what was going on in the game! I went to socialize! - and the dances. Our Journalism Club trip to New York - the train trip, sight-seeing, museums, plays, and Miss Paschal will forever fill my memory. My most treasured memories are of the lifelong friendships.

I attended Longwood College in Farmville, Virginia. I was a member of Kappa Delta Sorority. My freshman year I made excellent grades because my classes were just a repeat of what I had learned at Broughton. I had a rude awakening the next year when I realized studying was a requirement for good grades in college! While at Longwood, I experienced first-hand the change that was beginning in our nation. Prince Edward County, Virginia, decided they would not integrate their schools. They abolished their public schools and opened "private" schools (one white and one black). This experience tweaked a lifelong interest and study of our Federal Government, our politics, and our news media.

In 1963, I married the love of my life, Jim Hooks. We began our married life in St. Paul's, N.C., where Jim worked with Burlington Industries. He also worked for Celanese Corp. in Pearisburg, Virginia (my early childhood home), and IBM in Raleigh. In the 70's, we moved to Mountain Brook, Ala. Next we were back in Raleigh. Our last transfer was to Yokohama, Japan in 1978. It was an experience our whole family will never forget. There were stark differences in religion, mores, government, reverence for life, family systems, writing, and, of course, language and food. I could eat almost everything offered to me as long as I didn't know its name and it didn't wiggle! We shared our lives with other foreign families who were there to represent their countries in government and business. In the '80s we moved back to Raleigh and didn't move again until we downsized from our home in 2001. We reared two lovely daughters. They both live in Raleigh and have made us proud grandparents of one handsome grandson and three beautiful granddaughters.

I was fortunate to have my own antiques business for 20 years. I retired in 1998. Now it is 2009 and my partner and I plan to do private paid antique shows a few times a year. Antiques dealers never seem to stay retired!

My guiding philosophy is from 1 Corinthians 13:13 - But now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

Grandson Austin checking out his grandpa, uncle and father at the Raleigh Farmer's Market.

Along the way: A special teaching highlight was having my fourth grade class in Missoula, MT win the Pennies for Ponies Contest. They designed for the new carousel a spirited pony that depicted our class and named it Snapples for Sally Nelson's Apples.

Favorite Broughton memories: Loved the stone and look of NBBHS. Peter Beenen for sharing his love of American History and his prayers for us before a test. Mrs. Donovant for teaching me Physiology and Anatomy so well that Freshman Biology was simple. Farmer Smith's positive interest in his students. The gym turning into a magical place for dances, chocolate cake, and chess pie. Friday night football games and parties afterwards.

Retired

Hobbies: Currently a Docent at the Beaufort Historic Site, giving tours to school children and other visitors; boating; traveling; reading; all things coastal; last but not least Grandmothering.

Along the way: Chosen #1 Chef at the Howarth Family CookOff - Beach Trip 2008 - (my S'mores turned the tide) following grilled tuna & salmon plus sautéed scallops w/roasted potatoes & salad. (Grandson Noah told me we had won hands down). My greatest blessing and reward is that our sons have all grown up to be considerate & loving husbands & dads. They are hardworking yet fun-loving people who give of themselves to their communities. USTA (Tennis Team) State Champions (GA) ~ 1987 - We traveled to Little Rock, AR to play in Nationals & lost to Mississippi. Room Mother & other leadership roles in sons' schools 1968-1989; Little League & Soccer Mom; Soup Kitchen (GA) & Meals on Wheels (NC); Church - Altar Guild, Vestry, SS & VBS teacher, Youth Group & Happening leader, Bereavement meals, Receptions & Bazaar Chair & worker; Garden Club – recycling & litter clean up. Went "spelunking" in Cumberland Caverns, TN, while chaperoning Scott & Mark's youth group. We entered the cave via the woods, down into the bowels; sometimes we had to squeeze sideways through narrow spaces (albino cave spiders on the stone walls); climbed a slippery stone ladder to another level & up into a balcony listening to organ pipe sounding music. We slept in sleeping bags in pitch black darkness. Another fun time, Birkett & I traveled to AZ where we saw tumbling tumbleweeds, red square top mountains and red desert, saguaro cactus, rode along Route 66 and the highlight. Flying in a helicopter down to the bottom of Grand Canyon. How amazing and beautiful and scary! We safely disembarked and climbed into a raft to float on the Colorado River. WOW!

Favorite Broughton memories: Going to the State Fair in October - the Rides, Side Shows, cotton candy & trying to win prizes when playing games, the whole mystique at night. Slumber Parties - Such a great way to begin the school year or get together and have fun other times. I included a picture of Mary Elizabeth and me—don't know who I'm talking to on the phone but she's cheering and egging me on! We sure did have fun talking until the wee hours and dancing, laughing; when we finally did stop to sleep, we'd push a coupla' chairs together or stretch out in the bathtub, wherever was fine. Hayes Barton Swimming Pool - Great place to meet in the summer, playing cards, flirting, just hanging out. Cheerleading at Football & Basketball Games - Such a thrill running out onto the FB field with the team & the sound of that great band playing. Had such a great time when we cheerleaders went to the beach to practice and get ready. Dancing and Dances - What great music; we had the best!

Learned since Broughton: We were so lucky to have been students in the 50's. How fast things changed! The background we got there and the teachers who taught us served us well. To listen and observe; to stand up for my beliefs; to laugh each day.

My philosophy: *Do Unto Others....*God First, then Family & Self, then Community. * Keep Learning. * Music & Laughter bring Joy to my Heart.

My favorite Broughton memories are of the friends I had and all the fun we had together.

My guiding philosophy
"Always aim high, work hard, and care deeply about what you believe in." (Hillary Rodham Clinton, 2008)
This quote caught my attention because it expresses so well the approach I've tried to take in life. Also, I try to be guided by Albert Schweitzer's "Reverence for Life" philosophy—that we are kin to all living things and owe them all the same care and respect we wish for ourselves.

Learned since Broughton:
Things really do get complicated when you get past eighteen (just as the Statler Brothers warned us in The Class of '57).

Summer of 1958

All These Years Later

Along the way:
Lived in New Mexico and Arizona where I had hoped to live and also in places I never thought I would, like Minnesota, Missouri, and Virginia. Our retirement plans include moving back to the southwest as soon as possible. I have been involved with animal welfare organizations at the local level in Columbia, Missouri, and then Winchester, Virginia, since the mid-70's, serving on boards of directors, committees and as officers. Current involvement is as secretary and Board of Directors member of the Virginia Federation of Humane Societies, a state-level organization made up of animal welfare organizations, animal control agencies, and individual supporters. I have served as a National Park Service volunteer at the Vietnam Veterans' Memorial in Washington DC since 1985, assisting visitors and helping them locate and make rubbings of names on the memorial. I Illustrated A Manual of Marsh and Aquatic Vascular Plants of North Carolina; Aquatic and Wetland Plants of Kentucky; and Virginia Native Plants, a series commissioned by the State Arboretum of Virginia. I Received in 1998 Distinguished Staff Award, Lord Fairfax Community College; 2005 Bravo Award by the Virginia Federation of Humane Societies for outstanding service to and promotion of animal welfare in Virginia.
My horses and horse-related activities were a significant part of my life from the mid-60's until the late 90's.

Hobbies: Writing, reading, compiling oral and pictorial histories, gardening (flowers), traveling (St. Thomas, Hawaii, US travel – especially CA, AZ and NY)

Along the way:
My career at NC State was quite rewarding in seeing student's lives changed and expanded due to the college experiences. I thoroughly enjoyed interacting with them as well as my office mates as we increased our knowledge of life through the years. In my home life, it was a pleasure to contribute to the love and growth of our children and see the changes in their lives. Through the years, I discovered a passion for writing and history that is becoming a primary interest in my maturing years. My hope is to combine that with some travel opportunities!

My guiding philosophy:
Have faith in God, support for family and find pleasure, surprises and laughter in all of life's ordinary events.

Favorite Broughton memories:
I remember the carefree enjoyment of being with friends and enjoying student activities, ballgames, and music on the jukebox at the Milky Way! Slumber parties, dances, parades, and singing with the Chorus are also good memories to relive! I am grateful for the excellent teaching skills of the faculty – especially Ms. Peacock, Mr. Bello and Mrs. Smith.

Learned since Broughton:
Don't wait until later to do something you want to do. Do it now!
If you can't sleep at night: change whatever is bothering you.

My philosophy:
1. Treat people like you would like to be treated.
2. Be patient in all aspects of life.
3. Develop friends and treat them well.
4. Take care of your family and spend time with them.

Sarnia Dream Farm, North Carolina

Real time: My own little 5 acres, Sarnia Dream Farm, Pittsboro, North Chatham County...Have 9 horses-7 miniature,1 Spanish Mustang] and one appaloosa large pony for my g'children. 3 Cats, 5 dogs, 1 parrot, a rooster named DUC and numerous chickens that lay blue eggs. I'm currently taking cart driving lessons for my 120 year old Courting Cart...Look for me this Xmas parade in Raleigh. With my g'kids leading the two littlest minis.- Each 27 inches tall. Enjoy English Country Gardening, loving all my critters and making my little valley into a functional but fun farm for kids, and me to meditate. Hope to start a 4H club this spring for foster kids. Am a Lay Eucharistic Minister and on Alter guild in my wonderful ltlle Episcopalian church, St. Bartholomew's. Was very active in our Democratic Party and was Precinct Chairman for N. Chatham. (the seat of Liberalism...Jessie Helms nemesis...and damn proud of it. Am a community activist and give try to humbly give back some of my blessings. Now working part time as a RN at Dix Hospital as charge. Still find nursing rewarding and challenging. Was a med/surg/ICU nurse and Home Health nurse and IV specialist and Board Certified Med/Surg Specialist for years. Was instrumental in the first volunteer group with Hospice in Wake County. Spend as much time with my g'kids as I can with them in Charlotte - son Chad Gantt and one boy two girls or Georgia - daughter Courtney Gantt Hall, one girl..Savannah – who is too much like me. All my kids are successful, fine adults, They are involved in rescuing animals, gardening and children involvement. I was a home health RN in Oriental, NC. Involved in sailing. Sailed for 1 year with a rascal pirate all down the East Coast and anchored out in Marathon Key, Fla. for 6 months..Worked at a little hospital as an RN - then over to the Bahamas. Lots of reef diving and nature experiences. Also travel nurse in NW Washington Coast for 4 months. Sailed up the Puget Sound to British Columbia and got petrogylph rubbings from Tsimian indians. Really interested in NW Coast Native American Spirituality and their respect/ oneness with the earth. Travel nursed 4 months also in Sitka, Alaska. Little island in the pacific where the whales, salmon and eagles live. Worked with Raptor rehab while there. Took the bus, stopping at every amazing place, to come to my son's wedding in 1990. Over three weeks in wonderful cities. Portland, SF, LA, Grand Canyon, Santa Fe, Albuquerque.

Went to Marjorie Webster Jr. College DC. Was in DC for Kennedy's inauguration and went to one of the balls with my West Point boyfriend. Then traveled through 15 countries in Europe for one summer. Flunked out of UNC - was an ADII. Married infamous Charlie Gantt a PIKA at NCSU –and was a rancher's wife, raising cattle (500) and quarter horses (60). We showed the horses up and down the East Coast. Had my three wonderful kids and divorced him. Married a total of 4 times. Too independent or else Knights in Rusted armour. They could never compete with my wonderful father..Now single for over 10 years and love it. On my dream farm, I eat breakfast most mornings in my chicken yard, beside my creek and under the persimmon tree. Birds singing. Not a bad life. Daddy died 15 yrs ago. Mother died a year ago and I got to care for her the last years - indirectly but closely - such a blessing. She was a curious, interesting and complicated mother but gave me much to grow on and encouraged my kindness. She's buried at my little cemetery, very old and beautiful with lots of boxwoods, birdfeeders, azaleas, and all. Miss my old energy. Broke my leg badly 4 years ago...9 months to heal - 4 surgeries but I'm still running, determined and still gardening and toting hay and caring for all my critters. Life is beautiful. Love being my age now. I laugh often, pray a lot and love my stillness at my farm. Never could be still before and missed too much. Have sweet neighbors and friends and a purpose for God to choose. There's shagging at The General Store in Pittsboro. I ought to go and show them how ....but have no weejuns. Maybe I'll order some used polished ones from Ebay and dance on down...

Alumni carry the day, save Broughton's lawn

School officials surprised by spirited opposition to parking plan

By T. Keung Hui
STAFF WRITER

RALEIGH – Broughton High :hool's front lawn is more than st green grass to alumni. It's "sacred expanse" and an "icon" quivalent to the Mona Lisa. Those were some of the emo-onal phrases invoked by the hool's influential alumni on uesday as they persuaded the aleigh Planning Commission reject a plan to turn the tiered wn into a parking lot. They :at down arguments from hool officials and parents who id the additional parking is eded to give students and traf- some relief.

"Protect the integrity of this ilding," said Harold Tharrington, an alum-is and retired founding partner of the law m of Tharrington Smith. "It's worth it. It's e right thing to do."

William Berryhill Jr., another alumnus d retired U.S. marshal for the Eastern strict of North Carolina, said paving over the front lawn would be like spray painting graffiti on the Mona Lisa.

Broughton High School, Raleigh's oldest, was built in 1929 and features an expansive front lawn.

"It's unthinkable to pave over the front lawn for a parking lot," Berryhill said.

In the aftermath of the planning commission's 6-3 vote rejecting the parking plan, Wake County school officials said they haven't decided whether they appeal to the Raleigh City Cou cil, which would have final sa

The fierce opposition to th plan surprised school official who had expected easy approv and additional parking ready b October.

Opened in 1929, Broughton the oldest high school i Raleigh. It has been designate a historic landmark by the cit and features a distinct architec tural look, similar to a castl that's at odds with the box school designs of today.

Located on St. Mary's Stree near Cameron Village Broughton, like many older hig schools, has less parking tha newer campuses. While the standard fc new Wake high schools is 797 spaces for stu dents, staff and visitors, Broughton has 27 spaces; the plan to pave over the lawn woul add 126, camouflaged by streetscaping.

The lack of on-campus parking for Broughton's 2,200 students means many students pay up to $400 a year to use off-campus parking lots. The school district charges $170 a year for parking.

School officials say they are trying to replace parking spaces that have been lost on campus and surrounding streets.

"We really need to have more parking on campus," said Maggie Turner, 16, a junior, who pays $300 a year to use an off-campus lot across from Broughton.

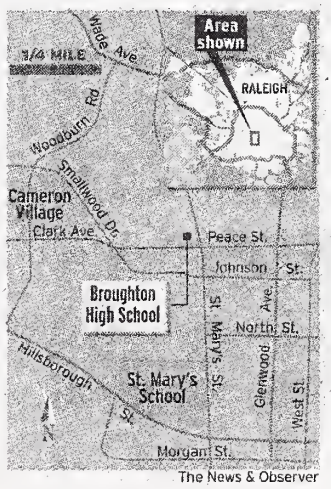

Other students get to school very early in the morning to find street parking or a spot in a free, first-come, first-se ve gravel lot behind the school.

The Planning Commission delayed taking action last month, asking the school district to consider other options.

School officials said Tuesday that alternatives such as using nearby Fletcher Park wouldn't provide enough spaces. They also said they were worried about the safety hazards of creating additional parking that would require students to cross the street.

Two dozen Broughton alumni showed up at Tuesday's hearing to oppose the project. They recognized the need for more space, but favored building a parking deck over paving the lawn.

Tharrington, one of the leaders of the alumni opposition, said some areas aren't meant to have cars. For instance, he said, you wouldn't pave over the Bell Tower at N.C. State University to get more parking.

The News & Observer

"This building is an icon," he said. "There aren't many icons in Raleigh."

A few parents also attended the hearing to voice support for the parking lot.

"The fact that it's a school, unfortunately, takes a little bit of precedence over historic preservation," said Susan Leonard whose daughter is a senior at Broughton.

Bart White, an alumnus and parent of a Broughton student said the school will be weakened without adequate parking. "The strength of Broughton is not the beauty of the school," White said. "The strength of Broughton is the students of the school."

A stretch of seven low-rise buildings on the west side of the 200 block of downtown Raleigh's Fayetteville Street either have been renovated or are being renovated, creating 'a very cool block,' according to one tenant.

Hundreds of feet below the surging shimmer of Raleigh's new RBC office tower, a humbler but equally dynamic transformation is taking shape.

Down along the broad new sidewalks of Raleigh's reborn Fayetteville Street, entrepreneurs and preservationists are restoring century-old storefronts in vibrant colors, decorative facades and historic textures.

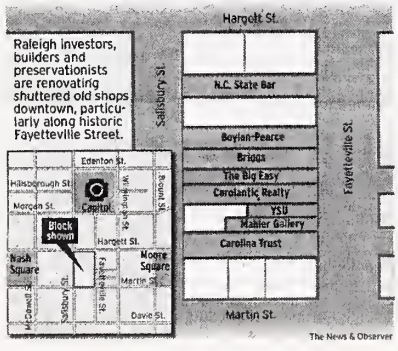

Like others scattered throughout downtown, the reincarnated cast-offs, standing as thick as seven abreast along Fayetteville Street's 200 block, are helping to revive the city's forlorn heart — one costly, painstaking renovation at a time.

"When you looked at this block 10 years go, it was primarily vacant, and half the block had false facades," said Myrick Howard, president of Preservation North Carolina, whose headquarters is in the 1874 Briggs Building, which anchors the stretch. "It has turned into a very cool block. It will wind up in a lot of brochures about Raleigh, because it has a very interesting, late 19th-century/early 20th-century streetscape."

The last bell has rung ...

Dear Class of 1959,

We have reached a milestone in our journey together: we graduated from Needham B. Broughton High School fifty years ago! We offer you this memory book, Journeys, to remind you of those incredible years. It will enable you to catch up quickly and concisely with the last fifty years of many of your fellow graduates with pictures and stories. We hope that this record of our shared journey and our individual journeys will become as important to you as our Latipac was in 1959.

We thank all of you who dug through dusty attics or basements or in the bottom of closets and boxes to find the great pictures and memorabilia that meant enough for you to save them for fifty years. You were gracious in sharing them with us so that we could, in turn, share them with the class. Thank you also to the 127 graduates who filled out the profile forms and located personal pictures as a means of enriching their own stories. We have honored our Alma Mater as we have taken our places in society.

A big thank you to Sally Anne Smith Hooks and to Sarah Collins Gaskins for typing your information into word documents. Kudoes to Tudi Thomas Gaskins for our cover collage. Appreciation goes to Michael Savage and Becky Thacker for their computer expertise and to Jim Savage for his understanding and support.

Neither of us has any experience with graphic design or "book making," but someone on the committee said that "we really need one of these books" so we decided to accept the challenge. Be kind to us if you find shortcomings. Just know that Journeys was created for you with love and passion.

We are the real winners in this project because we have had special experiences with many of you as we compiled the materials needed. We have rekindled a friendship of long ago and made it deeper and richer. We love you, Class of 1959, and thank you for opening your hearts to us and in turn to each other.

God bless,

Donna Wilkerson Daughtry and Betty Parker Savage
